

WHERE 30 WERE KILLED IN FRENCH TRAIN WRECK

Here is a general view of the most disastrous train wreck in French history—the derailment of a Cherbourg-Paris express near Conches, France. Thirty were killed and more than 30 injured in the wreck which occurred while the train was traveling 60 miles an hour. (Associated Press Photo)

LINDBERGH VISIT LE BOURGET

Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh photographed with a group of French airmen at Le Bourget field near Paris, after visiting the spot where Lindbergh ended his Atlantic ocean flight in 1927. (Associated Press Photo)

PRINCETON HITS THE COMEBACK TRAIL WITH A BANG

In the brief space of two years, Coach Fritz Cralter, an import from the midwest, has raised a Princeton team that has known nothing but defeat since 1928 to recognition as one of the most powerful and feared eleven in the east. Some of the outstanding stars in this Tiger outfit are Gerry Le Van, streaking little sophomore; Paul Pauk, a fast charging, aggressive ball carrier, and Gilbert Lea, a tricky and elusive end. (Associated Press Photo)

Pristine Sweets

Though more expensive confections are tempting, Melba Hudgins of Thomaston, Ga., goes to a sugar cane patch for a bit of natural goodness. (Associated Press Photo)

COATS OF INTEREST TO THE CO-ED

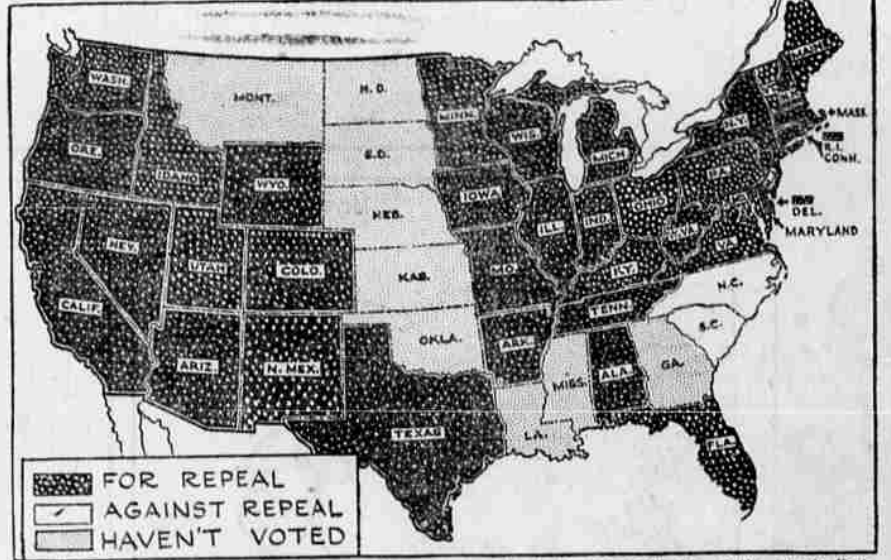

Here are two fur coat designs which probably will find favor on the campus. At left is a muskrat swaggar model. A coat of Persian lamb is shown at right. It is belted with black antelope and buckled with a novelty metal design. (Associated Press Photo)

PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO NATION

President Roosevelt is shown at his desk in the White House when he addressed the nation on his recovery program. Besides announcing a new policy to control the dollar, the President answered critics of the NRA. (Associated Press Photo)

HOW THE STATES WIPED DRY LAWS FROM CONSTITUTION

This Associated Press map shows how the necessary 36 states voted adoption of the twenty-first amendment to the constitution which repealed the eighteenth or prohibition law in effect for 13 years. Actual repeal does not become effective until about December 5.

MEETS MOTHER AFTER 31 YEARS

Lieut. Gov. Albert B. Chandler of Kentucky is shown as he was reunited in Jacksonville, Fla., with his mother, now Mrs. A. W. Chamberlin, whom he had not seen in 31 years and believed to be dead. Seeking her grave, he found her alive. (Associated Press Photo)

THREE DIE IN SCHOOL EXPLOSION

An 11-year-old boy and two negro janitors were fatally injured when the explosion of a basement boiler wrecked the fifth grade room of the consolidated school in Big Forest, Miss. Several other pupils were severely hurt. (Associated Press Photo)

ON TRIAL IN 'DRAKE ESTATE' CASE

Oscar M. Hartzell, promoter of the Drake estate scheme which federal authorities termed a swindle, is shown (center) with his attorneys as he went on trial at Sioux City, Ia., on charges of using the mails to defraud in collection of funds to carry a battle to British courts for an estate left by Sir Francis Drake. Paul Young is at left, Carlos Goltz at right. (Associated Press Photo)

CRAVES TO BUILD BRIDGES AND DAMS

Miss Grace Fenton, Idaho University sophomore dreams of the days when she will be a civil engineer. The picture shows her doing class field work. "Building bridges and dams has always been my ambition" she says "and if I can't do the outside work, I can draw up plans and estimates for them". (Associated Press Photo)

HARRIS BECOMES RED SOX PILOT

With the remark "If I can't get results in a year, then somebody else deserves the chance," Stanley "Bucky" Harris (right) signed a contract as manager of the Boston Red Sox for next year. Watching are President Tom Yawkey (left) of the Boston club, and General Manager Eddie Collins. Harris, who managed the Detroit Tigers last season, succeeds Marty McManus. (Associated Press Photo)

Quits NRA Board

Keith Neville, former governor of Nebraska, resigned as chairman of the state's NRA board. He said he felt the Nebraska NRA program could not succeed. (Associated Press Photo)

Farm Strike Leader

John Bosch of Atwater, Minn., is vice president of the National Farm Holiday association, president of the Minnesota branch and one of the leaders in the farm strike movement. (Associated Press Photo)

OIL FIRE SWEEPS MICHIGAN TANKS

One man was killed and two others injured in this spectacular oil fire at Mount Pleasant, Mich. The flames spread to 12 storage tanks, and damage was estimated in excess of $150,000. (Associated Press Photo)

FLEET FOOTED STANFORD BACK

Bob Grayson is one of the speedy backs Coach "Tiny" Thornhill has on his Stanford football team. (Associated Press Photo)