

MARY M'ELHOSE PROVES TALENT IN PIANO RECITAL

(By Jeunesse Butler.)

As though they were hovering near an eminent company of musicians and music-lovers, including George, Ella, Ed and Mrs. Ed Andrews, Charles and Nellie Hazelrigg and the other brothers, Clyde and Art, Art Burgess, Everett March and all the rest, seemed to form a background and to mingle with the audience, at this musical event when little Mary Louise McElhose, 13, youngest artist of a "family," bowed Sunday to a gathering which was both large and intelligently appreciative.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. (Florence Hazelrigg) McElhose, descended from and born into musical connections, the young pianist proved not unworthy of her forebears. Unspoiled by self-esteem, lovely in her natural poise and absence of self-consciousness, she gave a most satisfying performance, as well.

The important matters of clarity and facility are noticeable in her playing, forming an open channel through which her outstanding characteristic, a strong sense of rhythm, appears to its best advantage. The listener is early made aware of many an indication of true musical feeling, which is either inherent or absent, and seldom, if ever, can be acquired by those not possessing it naturally.

Miss Imogene Wallace used wisdom in presenting her pupil in forms of dance rhythms, in charming and interesting modern compositions, as well as in one or two of the older classics. James Stevens, who is either "uncle," "cousin" or "relative-by-marriage" to Mary Louise, was assisting artist, lending his gracious, kindly presence and beautiful voice to the important occasion. Miss Wallace played his accompaniments.

The Baldwin recital hall never looked more attractive with its arrangement of flowers, ferns and candles, and as Mary Louise gave her final bow over armloads of roses, the first of the holiday musical events came to a close. The program was as follows:

- I. Minuet in E Flat Major.....Mozart
- Country Dances No. 1, II, III.....Beethoven
- II. Andante in D Major.....Mendelssohn
- In the Country.....Schuett
- Minuet of the Little Marquis.....Schuett
- III. Clouds.....Ernest Charles
- When I think Upon the Maidens.....Michael Head
- Shoes.....Kathleen Lockhart Manning James Stevens
- IV. Sea Gardens, for two pianos.....Cooke
- First piano, Mary Louise McElhose.
- Second piano, Imogene Wallace.
- V. Two Fairy Tales.....MacDowell
- 1. From Dwarf-land.
- 2. Of a Tailor and a Bear.
- VI. At the Donybrook Fair.....John Prindle Scott
- Waltz in D Flat.....Mokrojs
- Miss Barbara Lemmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lemmon, assisted in the distribution of programs, and Mary Louise's brother, Richard McElhose, Jr., acted as usher.

Weekly Bible Class Makes Study of Jeremiah
The Weekly Bible class enjoyed an inspiring lesson on Jeremiah "the prophet to the kingdom of Judah and to the remnant left in the land after the Babylonian captivity," at the last meetings.

The peaks of prophecy visioned by Jeremiah were listed as:
The Babylonian captivity.
The return after the 70 years.
The world-wide dispersion.
The period of great tribulation or Jacob's trouble.
The final regathering.
The kingdom age.
The judgment of the nations.
The rebuilding of Jerusalem.
The remnant of Israel.
Jeremiah prophesied to Judah during the reigns of Josiah and Zedekiah. He warned the king and people constantly that unless they returned to God they would be dispersed, but the people refused to listen to his message and put him in prison. He was not released until the capture of the city by Nebuzaradan. It was brought out by the instructor.

Mrs. Willett to Give Recital This Evening
Bringing to Medford music lovers a wealth of experience gained in many lands, Mrs. Rosa Blackmore Willett will play in public this evening at the recital announced for 8 o'clock at the Baldwin recital hall, presenting Mrs. Lydia Guetzlaff, pupil of the well-known local instructor.

Mrs. Willett, before coming to Medford, played in concert for a number of years here and abroad, and the finale she has promised for this evening's recital is anticipated by all who have heard her play and those who have yet to experience that pleasure.

Much is also expected this evening of Mrs. Guetzlaff, her advanced pupil, whose program includes a Chopin group, and numbers by Rachmaninoff, Victor Staub and Liszt.

Mrs. Willett will open her program with Chopin's Etude in F and Nocturn in F-sharp.

Queen Esther Circle Homecoming Hostess
Members of Queen Esther circle of the First Methodist church will be hostesses at the general monthly homecoming in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon, November 28, at 2 o'clock. After the short business session the program chairman will present one of the most interesting programs of the year.

The missionary barrel will be packed Wednesday and all persons who desire to contribute food and jellies are asked to please bring them to homecoming. Visitors will be welcomed.

Mrs. Ulrich Urges D. A. R. to Respond
Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, chairman of the local Daughters of the American Revolution Christmas project, including the sending of the annual box to Angel Island, has asked that all contributions be in early this week. The box should be on its way before Thanksgiving.

The list of most acceptable contributions for the box includes: Colton prints for dresses, needles, thread, toothbrushes, handkerchiefs, towels and things for children.

Medford Folk Return From California Game
Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts returned this morning from Palo Alto, where they attended the Stanford-California game Saturday and visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mantz.

Miss Betty Bardwell was also on the Shasta this morning, returning from the big game.

Brouschs of Bakersfield To Be Thanksgiving Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brousch of Bakersfield, Cal. will be among out-of-town guests in Medford for Thanksgiving. They are arriving today to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Darby, who will entertain with a family dinner Thursday. Mr. Brousch is Mrs. Darby's uncle.

Mrs. Gore, Hostess At Informal Tea
A number of friends of Mrs. E. E. Gore enjoyed a pleasant evening at her home on Geneva street yesterday, when she entertained informally at tea.

Mrs. Darby, Hostess To Club Today
Mrs. C. C. Darby is hostess today to members of her bridge club. The usual number of games will be enjoyed following dessert.

FOUR MORE CARS OF TURKEYS OFF TO 'FRISCO MART

Four more express car shipments of Rogue River turkeys left last night for San Francisco, attached to the Shasta Limited.
Saturday night a special train of eight refrigerated express cars were dispatched south, bringing the total to a dozen cars for the week-end. It is anticipated another shipment will be made tonight or tomorrow.
Close to 200,000 pounds of local turkeys have been shipped south in the past week. Between $40,000 and $45,000 dependent on the price, will be returned to local growers. The shipments are the heaviest in the history of the valley.

Autumn heat raised havoc with California turkeys, causing more San Francisco buyers to come here in larger numbers than usual. The local turkeys are purchased on 60 per cent down payment, balance determined by sale price.
Many of the county turkey raisers are holding their turkeys for the Christmas trade, in the expectation that the price will reach 25 cents per pound.

Local birds this year are reported of high quality and size, with many large flocks still unsold.
San Francisco prices today, as reported by Associated Press, are:
Net prices paid for turkeys delivered in San Francisco:
Prime turkeys (dressed) young toms, under 17 lbs., 18@20c; over 17 pounds, 18@19c; young hens, 18@20c; old hens, 16@17c.

GOVERNOR LAUDS SAN JOSE CROWD; OFFERS PARDONS

swifter justice and few kidnappings." "I don't think they will arrest anyone for the lynchings," the governor continued.
"With all the sorrows we have had why should we add the sorrows of kidnapping? It is about time the people should have comfort in their homes. This kidnapping business has become so bad that mothers and fathers are afraid to let their children out of their homes."
"Look at the Lindbergh case. Kidnapers have taken little children, killed them and then jockeyed for huge sums of money. Now they have taken to kidnapping men and women for the purpose of extracting money from distracted relatives."

Now that the fate of Thurmond and Holmes is settled the governor plans proceeding to his Boise conference. He is to fly from Sacramento tonight, speak at the conference tomorrow and return Wednesday night.

Lectures Tuesday

"The School of Life" is the title of the lecture which Flower Sechler will give Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the clubroom of the city hall on North Central avenue.
Miss Sechler is said to be a radiant and forceful speaker and the youngest lecturer in the metaphysical movement. Her talk deals with practical Christian life, undenominational in character, according to information received here. Miss Sechler lectured in Medford last month on the law of compensation.

LYNCHING NEWS FROM SAN JOSE STIRS MEDFORD

Medford residents and a former Medford resident, know some of the central figures in the San Jose, Calif., kidnaping-slaying horror, climaxed last night by the lynching of the two confessed murderers.

Mrs. Edson C. (Jerry) Jerome, a high school teacher knows the Hart family, and remembers Brooke Hart, the 22-year-old victim of the callous crime, as a little boy. She also knows his parents and sisters. San Jose is the home town of Mrs. Jerome.

Jerome met Alex. Hart, the father, on visits to San Jose. Hart is a former business partner of Archie Ashe, former well resident of this city. Ashe introduced Jerome to Hart, on the former's first visit to the California city.

The final chapter of the grim tragedy created wide interest in this city. Early radio announcements last night told of the gathering mob. Later came the news of the first thwarted effort of the mob, about 10:30. An hour later many local radio listeners heard the brief report that the mob had accomplished its purpose.

The majority of local people learned of the lynching this morning when the Mail Tribune issued an extra, giving all details then available. No outside papers received here today contained the information.

Scores of Medford and valley folk have visited at San Jose, a beautiful and typical American community. Its citizenry is no different from any other similar sized city. It however the past two years has been the scene

CATTLEMEN ORGANIZE CREDIT ASSOCIATION

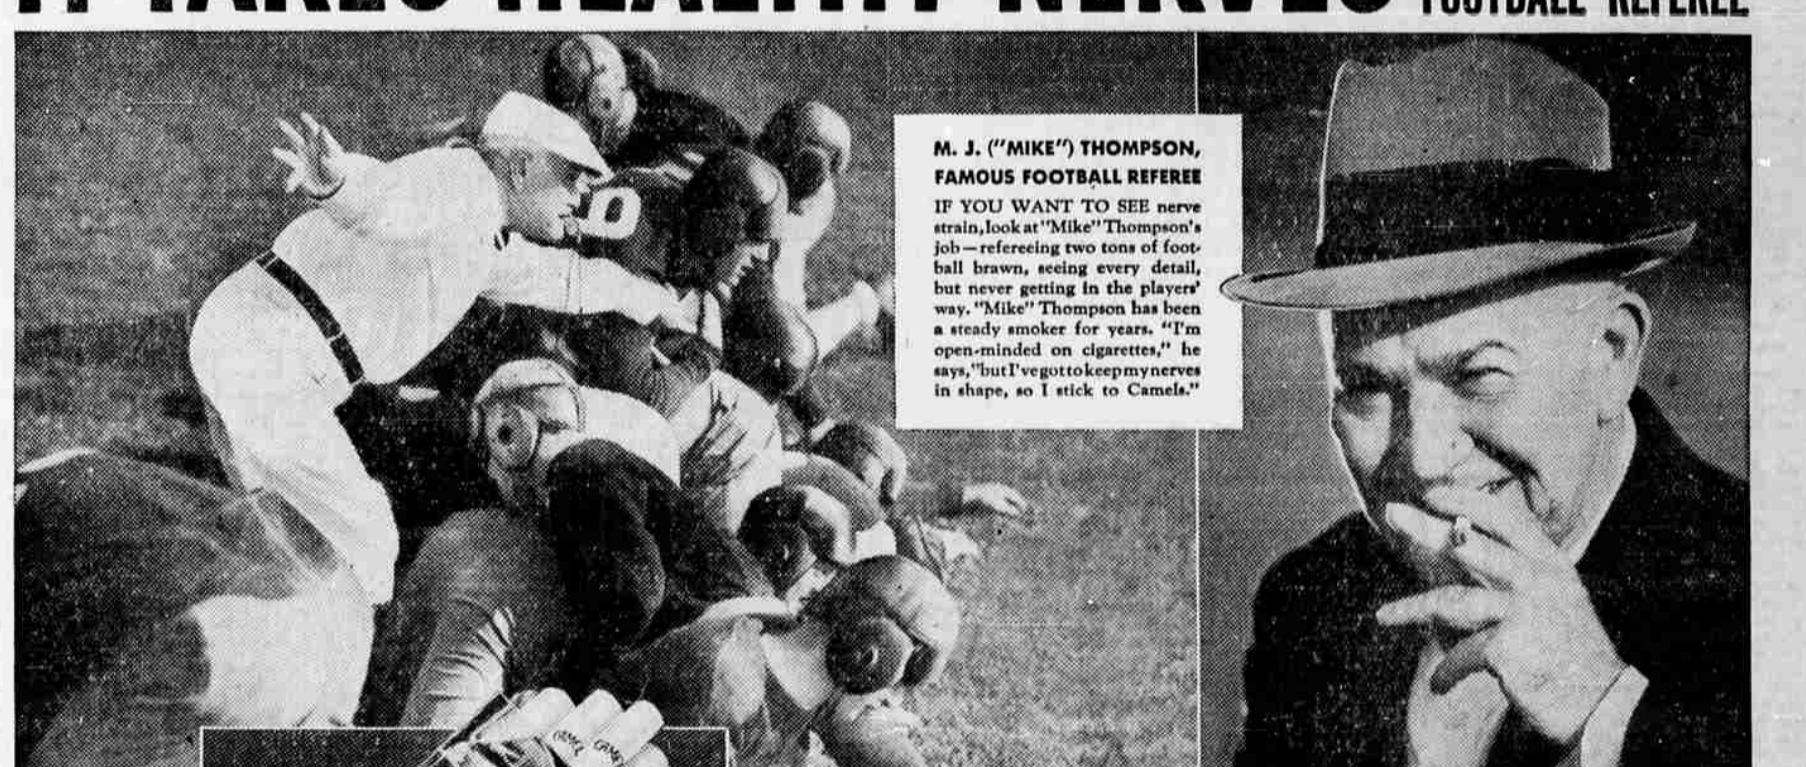

PORTLAND, Nov. 27.—(P)—Organization at Baker of a production credit corporation to make possible the financing of the range cattle and sheep industry of the state, was agreed to at a meeting here of livestock men from practically every range livestock district of Oregon.

Headquarters of the unit, to be known as the Oregon Livestock Production Credit association, will be established at Baker, probably within 15 days. The charter must first be approved by federal officials in Washington, D. C.

OREGON WARRANTS NOW MONTH BEHIND

SALEM, Nov. 27.—(P)—The state of Oregon is only slightly more than a month behind in refunding warrants. The latest call of $194,000 cars for all warrants issued up to and including October 23, the treasury department announced.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE A FOOTBALL REFEREE

M. J. ("MIKE") THOMPSON, FAMOUS FOOTBALL REFEREE
IF YOU WANT TO SEE nerve strain, look at "Mike" Thompson's job—refereeing two tons of football brawn, seeing every detail, but never getting in the players' way. "Mike" Thompson has been a steady smoker for years. "I'm open-minded on cigarettes," he says, "but I've gotta keep my nerves in shape, so I stick to Camels."

MEMBER THE ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

The NRA Code

We are not content to keep merely within the letter of the NRA code for funeral directors; we are trying, in every way, to live up to the spirit of its provisions.

As is every good American, we are solidly behind the government's efforts to bring back good times; we pledge ourselves to a continuation of our cooperation in every respect.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

M. J. ("Mike") Thompson, football's most famous referee, has to keep his nerves healthy. He says: "Because nothing can be allowed to interfere with healthy nerves I smoke Camels. I have tried them all—given every popular brand a chance to show what it can offer. Camels don't upset my nerves even when I smoke constantly. And the longer I smoke them the more I come to appreciate their mildness and rich flavor." Many smokers who have changed to Camels report that their nerves are no longer irritable... "jumpy." Switch to Camels yourself. You will find that Camels do not jangle your nerves—or tire your taste.
