

LIQUOR IMPORTS TO SWAY TARIFFS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP) The government yesterday notified liquor importers it intends to use repeal to bring about a lowering of tariff barriers against American products in foreign countries, through allocation of liquor imports after December 5.

Edward G. Lowry, Jr., economic advisor to the treasury department, at the opening of hearings on a proposed government code for importers of beer, wine and spirits, predicted keen competition among foreign countries to get American liquor business.

This will militate against domestic distillers and brewers. Due to "growth of economic nationalism" in foreign countries in recent years, he said, American products have been discriminated against and the administration feels that through importations of liquor, an opportunity is afforded to correct "some of this."

TOD SLOAN DYING CHARITY PATIENT

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Familiarly known a quarter of a century ago as the "teeming turfs mightiest mite," Tod Sloan whose brilliant career as a jockey and that of a spendthrift was the talk of three continents, was near death in a county hospital today.

Sloan, reputed to have spent more than $1,000,000 in two years on pampered whims, became a patient at General hospital last night, having been removed from the home of Mrs. Jack Cuddey in Hollywood where he had resided the last six years.

Physicians said he had cirrhosis of the liver. They held out little hope for his recovery. They said his disease was traceable to his unchecked life—a life that led him to the world's choice race tracks, to bovery barrooms and amply English homes. He was born James Todhunter Sloan, but his companions called him "Little Toddy."

TENNIS QUEEN TARGET THREATENING LETTERS

BOSTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Helen Jacobs, national tennis champion, today reported to federal authorities she had received several threatening and obscene letters and appealed to the authorities for help.

Miss Jacobs, a resident of Berkeley, Cal., who has been the guest of Miss Alona Friend of Marblehead and Brookline since her default victory over Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, reported the receipt of the letters to the department of justice office here.

FORD ELIGIBLE FOR FEDERAL CONTRACTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The second time, Comptroller General J. R. McCarl held today that Ford Motor company products are eligible for government contracts.

This was ruled in an opinion given the department of agriculture as the result of an attempt by Hugh S. Johnson, the NRA administrator, to keep the Northwest Motors company of Bethesda, Md., a Ford dealer, from receiving a contract for Civilian Conservation Corps trucks.

CCC CONTINUANCE IS HOPE OF ROOSEVELT

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Dec. 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today told the boys of the Civilian Conservation camp near here that he hoped congress would continue the CCC for another year.

"I hope that when congress convenes," he said, "it will continue the civilian conservation corps for another year. It has been of great good to the countryside and of benefit to men."

PAYCHECKS FOR CWA WORKERS SATURDAY

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—(AP)—To insure proper issuance of pay checks to civil work administration workers throughout the state, Raymond B. Wilcox, CWA chairman, sent a communication to all county administrators Tuesday, announcing that every man on the job should work Saturday, the payday, in order that the United States treasury checks could be landed the men as they were in their proper places.

"Bridge Widow" to Add Zest To Game, Culbertson's Idea

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—A "widow" for contract bridge was suggested today by Ely Culbertson for consideration in future improvement of the game.

The widow would consist of four cards dealt face down in the middle of the table, while each player was receiving 12. The winner of the auction would look at the widow, select one card himself and pass one to each player as the declarer desired.

Culbertson thinks a widow would add a zest of uncertainty to the game and in addition promote skillful play by the declarer.

CHICAGO STOCK YARD STRIKE IS SETTLED

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 1.—(AP)—The strike of approximately 8000 workmen at the Union stockyards was settled early today, at least temporarily, when the employer organization agreed to a ten per cent wage increase, pending further negotiations. Within a few minutes after the agreement was reached pickets were withdrawn and the strikers started back to their jobs.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Geo. G. Moore, who died April 5, left a net estate of $544,075, a transfer tax appraisal filed today showed. Tusculum college, of Greenville, Tenn., was left $5000 from the estate and after the death of a daughter an additional $2500 goes to the college.

Dripping radiators repaired. Brill Metal Works.

BOSTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Judge Henry Nichols Blake, 95, the oldest graduate of Harvard law school and a prominent figure in the early days of Montana, died today at a hospital.
