Comic Quartet at Craterian

About once a year the Four Marx Brothers break out of their padded cells and make another motion picture filled with gags, girls and all around hilarity. Such a picture is their latest, "Duck Soup", which opened a five gay run at the Craterian theatre today. The title has nothing whatsoever to do with the picture, gives one a fair idea of what to expect from the four maniacs.

A Ted Fio Rito two-reeler, a Pathe Review, and a novelty reel round out the balance of the program.

Another Double Bill at Rialto

A new double feature attraction opened this afternoon at the Rialto theatre with Spencer Tracy and Colleen Moore featured in "The Power and the Glory" and Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows, featured in "Hypnotized", as the other half of the program.

City Warrants Called for Payment. Notice is hereby given that there are funds on hand in the General Fund of the City of Medford for the redemption of Warrants Nos. 1599 to 1693 inc. Interest on the above Warrants will cease after December 8, 1933.

GUS H. SAMUELS, City Treasurer.

TURKEY TOURNAMENT AT ANTLE ALLEYS

Medford bowlers will have an opportunity to participate in a singles tournament Friday evening on the Smoke House alleys, across from the Roky theater, according to Walt Antle, manager.

The tournament will be a handicap match with handicaps figured from this season's averages. Big fat turkeys will be awarded to the winners. No entrance fee will be charged for the event, giving all bowlers a chance to try the alleys.

Mr. Antle also announces that there will be one from Medford, captained by Hal Haight, on next Sunday afternoon.

All bowlers are invited to drop in and look the alleys over.

CLINGMAN FLOPS LOGGER HEIBERT

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Ole Clingman of Oklahoma City won the main event on last night's wrestling program here, taking the last two falls after his opponent, Logger Heibert of St. Helena, had taken the initial fall. Clingman weighed 161, a pound more than his opponent.

Heibert used a body press to win the first fall in 11 minutes. Clingman came back to take the second with a series of flying tackles and a body press in 6 minutes, then applied a Boston crab hold to win the deciding fall in 9 minutes.

Robin Reed, 157, Reedsport, defeated Jack Brantano, 156, Grants Pass, Wash., getting one fall.

Buildup Jackson, 159, Klamath Falls, won the opener from "Totem Pole" Anderson, 159, Fort Lewis, Wash., getting one fall.

LIQUOR BILL TO VOTE TOMORROW

and loan associations aggregating several millions of dollars in value have "frozen" in the hands of the corporation department for more than two years without payment of a single dollar either as an operating or liquidating dividend or the restoration of a single association to the control of its members.

It was openly charged, the result-tion continued, by stockholders of some of the associations that the corporation department had received and withheld information from stockholders and that there have been serious irregularities in the administration of the affairs of the associations, handling of properties, accounts and the disbursement of funds and has failed to proceed against certain alleged wrong-doers.

Zane Grey Picture Heads Double Bill On Holly Program

Another special double bill is again ready for Holly patrons, according to Manager E. E. Marsh.

"The Thundering Herd," another of Zane Grey's thrilling novels, filmed by Paramount, is the headline on this double bill program.

With Randolph Scott and Judith Allen in the leading romantic roles, supported by such stellar players as Buster Crabbe, Noah Beery, Raymond Hatton and Harry Carey, the picture was directed by Henry Hathaway from a screen play by Jack Cunningham and Mary Plannery.

Movie fans will be pleased to see another of their old time favorites, Monte Blue, who also has an important supporting role in this Zane Grey epic.

"The Thundering Herd" is set against a moving background of buffalo. In the days when that animal roamed the western prairies in great droves, much money was to be made in selling buffalo hides.

Another feature on the same bill will be "Sling Sinner Gings" with a fine cast headed by Paul Lukas and Lella Hyams.
