

FLYING COUPLE
RETICENT ABOUT FUTURE FLYING

The most enterprising city of Brazil, Natal usually is the first place in the country to be reached by trans-Atlantic liners; but the arrival of the Lindberghs—and the singular reverse of the colonel—topped all other like events in arousing interest here. The entire population was out along the harbor when the Americans' big hydroplane roared in from the Atlantic yesterday afternoon. Cheers were deafening. Police battled the crowds to maintain order. With Mrs. Lindbergh operating their planes' wireless, the famous pair had traveled over the ocean 1875 miles in 16 hours and 10 minutes—the to become the first woman ever to fly in a plane across the South Atlantic. It was, all Natal thought, an event to celebrate. Yet what were the colonel's only words to the welcoming delegation which fought its way to his anchored monoplane in the harbor? "It was a fine trip," he said, and more of the same. Commemorative remarks, technical comment. Having from time to time greeted other United States aviators, Natal has come to consider them all very agreeable, very communicative. But this one—this "Lone Eagle"—said nothing. Businesslike, as always, Col. Lindbergh wasted no time in setting about making his ship ready for further flights. Long before noon he was out on the monoplane examining it with expert care.

DEATHS FROM FOOTBALL
FEWER IN PAST SEASON

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(AP)—A record of progress was marked up today in the efforts to check the deaths caused by football as a survey made by the Associated Press revealed only 26 deaths directly attributable to the game during the 1933 season. Last year a similar survey showed 38 football deaths and in 1931 there were 50. Ten more deaths may be partly charged against the game but are considered doubtful. In these cases doctors said football injuries may have been contributing factors. High schools again showed the greatest number of fatalities, 16, and "sandlot" games were next with 13 deaths. Not one college varsity player died as the result of football injuries that could be traced to supervised games or practice. The 26 deaths, including the ten "doubtful" fatalities, are classified as follows: College, 6; high school, 15; sandlot, 13; semi-pro and athletic clubs, 2.

WARBURTON WILL HANDLE TROJANS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 7.—(AP)—With the cripple list increased by the addition of Homer Griffith, senior quarterback, Southern California's football team went into another huddle with itself today, determined that its final game with Washington here Saturday shall not end in defeat. Griffith probably will not be able to start the game because of an ankle sprained in the Georgia game. He is not likely to play more than a few minutes at best. This means that Irvine Warburton, 147 pounds of All-American football fire, probably will be called upon to engineer the Trojan attack.

FRANKLIN PRAISED BY NEBRASKA HUSKER ACE

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Before forgetting the 1933 football season the Nebraska Cornhuskers, champions of the Big Six, selected an "all-opponent" honor roll from the ranks of teams they opposed. Three were given unanimous choices. They are Skidaway and Walton of Pittsburg and Franklin of Oregon State. George Sauer, Nebraska's All-American fullback, rated Franklin as the best ball carrier he played against during his three years as a Husker ace.

FORSGREN PINS
REILLY TWICE

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Jack Forsgren, 220, of Vancouver, B. C., won the main event on last night's wrestling program here from Pat Reilly, 208, of Boston, two out of three falls. The Canadian used a half nelson and a body slam to win the first fall in 16 minutes. Reilly tied the count with a body press in 14 minutes. Forsgren took the final and deciding fall in only one minute with a body slam. Howard Cantonwine, 230, Portland, and Ted Cox, 220, Lodi, Cal., drew after five rounds of wrestling in the semi-windup. Each took a fall. The three-round match between Bob Myers, 163, Tillamook, and Leo Jensen, 160, Vancouver, B. C., also ended in a draw. Bunny Martin, 160, Tulsa, defeated Sailor Frank, 165, San Diego, taking one fall in the preliminary.

STANFORD TOOK EASY
TEAM SAYS WARNER

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 7.—(AP)—In the opinion of Glenn "Pop" Warner, Stanford picked an "easy opponent" for the Rose Bowl game when Columbia was chosen. "There are at least eight better clubs in the east," said Warner. The Temple university mentor believes Pittsburgh or Nebraska should have been selected. State Director of Finance Roland A. Vandergift is advocating the finger printing of all persons handling California state funds.

BOWLING

Elks' Club
Jack Gill's Elks club bowling team rubbed out the championship chance of Carl Bowman's quintet by annexing two out of three games in their match last evening in the lodge tournament. Gill was high man for the evening, with 877 pins, 224 of which he garnered in the opening game.

WOMAN WINNER
IN DEER CONTEST

To a woman goes the $50 cash prize for killing the largest deer of any entrant in this year's Peters buck deer contest, according to announcement received by Hubbard Brothers, Inc., local dealers for Peters ammunition. Mrs. Ira Fortin, of Seattle, captured the prize with a 337-pound mule tail from the Methow Valley, Okanogan county. Vincent Butler of Camas, Wash.

water. A total of 43 inches of rain fell at Salem, Ore. The Columbia river highway and Portland and another near Oregon City delayed trains for some hours. Boy Proves Hero. Deeds of watchfulness and heroism which were credited with preventing a possible train wreck, were performed by Mrs. Julius L. Meier, wife of the Oregon governor, and Hubert Bigel, 13, of New Era, Ore. The Bigel boy, walking along a Southern Pacific track near New Era, saw the track bed give way with a roar and plunge into a river. He raced back to New Era to give the alarm, and a telegraph operator did the rest. Mrs. Meier was also credited with having been driving by on a highway and seeing the washout, and making a report.

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 7.—(AP)—R. V. (Nik) Borkeke, Whitman coach, severely criticized his 1933 football team at Washington competition last year was a Butte Falls man. According to plans, the Peters company plans to make this an annual event.

Auto Skid Fatal
For Ontario Man

ONTARIO, Ore., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Crushed by the overturning automobile in which he was riding, George N. Smith, 19, of Ontario, was killed near here last night on the Old Oregon Trail. The car, driven by Stanley Morris, skidded and overturned when Morris, blinded by lights of an approaching car, swerved to the shoulder of the road and then tried to return to the highway. Morris was only slightly hurt.

Oregon Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; occasional light rain in northwest portion; slightly colder east and extreme south portion tonight; moderate southwest and west winds offshore.
