

NEW DESIGNS IN EVENING FROCKS

An evening gown of gold toned crepe with ties of tomato crepe that fall from the décolletage at the back into a graceful train is worn by the screen actress, Carol Lombard (left). Chiffon and organdie are successfully combined in a green evening frock worn by Ida Lupino (right), film player. (Associated Press Photos)

IDAHO COEDS TURN TO FASHIONS OF THIRTY YEARS AGO

Five pretty University of Idaho coeds who entered the homecoming rally spirit by donning clothes of three decades ago were (left to right) Emily Gascolgne, Spokane, Wash.; Helen Kienholz, Moscow; Bertha Jackson, Grangeville; Lella Gabby, Boise, and Margaret Illingsworth, Pocatello. (Associated Press Photo)

PERSIMMONS SIMMER ON FLOOR OF DESERT

Persimmons are being dried successfully for the first time in the United States, according to Palm Springs, Cal., growers. Roy Wong, one of the growers, has spread 200 tons of the delicacy on the floor of the desert and is obtaining results. Left to right: Wong, Alice Johnson, a visitor, and W. R. Hoshaw, foreman. (Associated Press Photo)

SIX ARRESTED IN BOSTON NAZI DEMONSTRATION

This picture shows some exciting action outside a hall in Boston as a crowd of several thousand gathered for a demonstration while Dr. Friedrich Schoemann, University of Berlin professor, made an address defending the Hitler government. Six were arrested in the melee. (Associated Press Photo)

In Mississippi Trial

Miss Octavia Dockery (top), legal guardian of Richard H. Dana (below), 61-year-old eccentric, went on trial with him at Natchez, Miss., for the slaying a year ago of Miss Jane Surget Merrill. (Associated Press Photos)

COEDS BUILT TROJAN WAR HORSE

Women students of the University of Southern California are busy constructing a huge Trojan war horse of flowers to welcome 18,000 former students at the annual homecoming celebration Dec. 4-9 in Los Angeles. Lower: Draxy Trengove (left) and Donna Whitehorn. Top: Claire Carpenter (left) and Lois Knopanyder. (Associated Press Photo)

FILM PLAYERS WED IN NEW MEXICO

Adrienne Ames and Bruce Cabot of the films are shown after their marriage in Carlsbad, N. M., only a few hours after Miss Ames obtained a Nevada divorce from Stephen Ames, New York broker. (Associated Press Photo)

TRACY BACK AFTER MEXICO ARREST

Lee Tracy (left), motion picture actor, after his arrival in El Paso, Tex., from Mexico City where he was arrested on a charge of insulting Mexico. The studio announced his contract had been broken because of the incident. Tracy is being welcomed by H. W. Waller of El Paso. (Associated Press Photo)

HAS AN EYE FOR HUMMING BIRDS

A baby humming bird and Dr. J. J. Parsons of Monrovia, Cal., became such good friends that the bird learned to sit from his hand and even took to perching on his spectacles. The friendship continued until the baby grew up and flew away to build a nest near the doctor's window. (Associated Press Photo)

TENSION GROWS IN PALESTINE

With 30 persons killed and 200 wounded in demonstrations against migration of German Jews to the Holy Land the situation among the Arabs continued tense. Arabs and tourists in Jerusalem are reading a poster forbidding a procession to the Mosque of Omar to protest against further immigration of Jews. (Associated Press Photo)

Nazi Visits U. S.

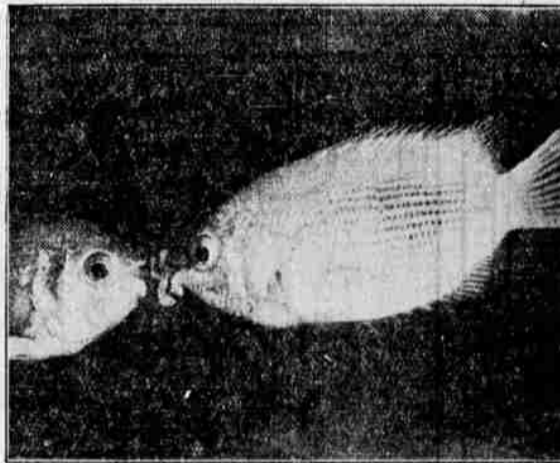

Capt. George Schmitt, emissary of Germany's Steel Helmet Federation, has come to the United States to make a coast-to-coast tour to explain Nazism to German-Americans. (Associated Press Photo)

Ousted By Nazis

Noel Panter, British journalist, was arrested and held in a Munich jail for 10 days before being ordered to leave Germany within 48 hours. (Associated Press Photo)

CHA, HOTCHA KISS, MAKE UP

To scientists these Java fish are "Helostoma" and "Temminckii" but to visitors at the New York aquarium they are "Cha" and "Hotcha." C. W. Coates, curator, who says they can hold on for hours, called a photographer when the osculating habit was discovered but the finny pair quarreled and made the camera man wait 17 days before they "made up." (Associated Press Photo)

HERE'S THE IDEAL BARTENDER

This robot bartender, who will shake a cocktail but never take a drink, was exhibited at the National Hotel Exposition in New York. Ruth Young tried a sample of its efficiency and commented on the time it will save the busy hostess. (Associated Press Photo)

SKY EXPLORERS LAND SAFELY

Maj. Chester Fordney (left) and Lieut. Comm. T. G. W. Settle are shown standing beside the gondola of their stratosphere balloon after landing in a marsh near Bridgeton, N. J. They reached an altitude of nearly 11 miles after their takeoff from Akron, Ohio. (Associated Press Photo)

Witness At Trial

William Hamm Jr. (above), wealthy St. Paul brewer for whose kidnaping four Chicago gangsters went on trial, was expected to be the principal witness for the government in the case. (Associated Press Photo)

Farm Credit Head

Dr. William I. Myers (above), was named to succeed Henry Morganthau, Jr., as head of the farm credit administration. He was formerly deputy governor. (Associated Press Photo)