Sales Tax Passed Last.

A privilege or sales tax for the relief of the public schools of the state, a slao requested by the governor, was the last major issue to gain approval; when the senate, by a vote of 17 to 13 passed the house bill shortly before midnight. A referendum on the net was expected to get under way today by opponents of the hill. It could not become a law for 90 days.

The measure, similar to the Callifornia act, lories a one and one-half per cent tax on sales of personal tangible property and gross earnings of tutilities, both on private and municipal utilities. Opposition was expected, but the legislature voted the proposal, it was emphatically brought out on the fiedra of both houses, as the only means to aid schools at this time. The measure would be effective for two years. for two years.

Amend Bus Law.

The legislature refused to ropea he basic features of the 1983 truck and bus regulatory law, but did amend the present law to give relief in the matter of good faith bonds and compulsory insurance and eliminated many small truck owners its jurisdiction, charging them in-stead a flat fee. The measure, now declared more satisfactory, was still being fought by the smaller truck owners and special carriers. Relief for the unemployed was pro-vided in various way. First the an-

Relief for the unemployed was purided in various ways. First the appropriation of $3,000,000 for direct relief, certificates of indebtedness to be assessed against liquor revenue, was passed earlier last week. The legislature also provided for federal contract for the $1,500,000 state building the state of the $1,500,000 state building the $1,500,000 state building the state of the state of the $1,500,000 state building the state of contract for the status of the con-struction of the five coast bridges to be paid from tolls.

Tax Penalty Not Raised.

Numerous tax delinquency measures were were enacted, but none which world increase the penalty and in-terest rates. Other relief proposals, affecting various sections of the state, were approved, one which would re-lieve Tillamook county from paying its state property tax for one year as a result of the damaging fire.

The power measure, incorporating omewhat the governor's proposal for a power commission to provide trans-mission lines to Bonneville, died in the senate when adjournment taken before house amendments to the so-called power bill were con-curred in by the upper body. The house amended the Grange plan to include much of the governor's recommendations. Therefore the acfailed.

To Study Bonneville.

The legislature however did pass the joint resolution providing for the appointment of an interim committee to study the Bonneville power projec and report to the 1935 regular sesnotice.
