

FIRST CAGE TILT TENTATIVELY SET NEXT WEDNESDAY

(By Harold Grove.)

With their first basketball game tentatively scheduled for December 20, with Weed, Cal. high, the Medford high school team held their initial practice of the season last night in the boys' gym of the high school. Ten of the 1933 squad reported.

Four of last year's five reported to Coach Darwin K. Burger last night. Wayne Harris, Tom White, Russell Brown and Lloyd Hammack are the first team players of the 1933 aggregation reporting back.

Burger will find it hard to replace Red Scheel, who was Medford high's greatest guard. Red won all-state honors one year and helped to lead his team through another season to the Southern Oregon conference championship and a trip to the Oregon state basketball tournament held in Salem.

Among the other members of the squad that will be fighting for his position are: Stan Kunzman and Olat Sieverson.

The squad including Max Gillinsky, Wayne Harris, Tom White, Bill Luman, Lloyd Hammack, Russell Brown, Stan Kunzman, Harold Grove, Olat Sieverson, Bob Hinman, Hoke Curlik, Sam VanDyke, Don Stuart and Bill Bates, will be under observation at least a week, after which time Burger will thin the gang down to 12 players.

RUTH FORGOTTEN IN PLAYER DEALS

(CHICAGO, Dec. 14. — (AP) — The "forgotten man" of baseball today appeared to be none other than Babe Ruth.

In all the rumors and reports flying around not a word had been mentioned about the man who made the home run famous, and kept it that way.

When his aging legs began to let him down last season, the Bambino immediately was mentioned as a candidate for managerial posts at Boston or Chicago. Lew Fonseca is still manager of the White Sox, however, and Stanley Harris got the Boston job.

Ruth still belonged to the Yankees as the major league meeting neared its close today, and there was need for haste if he was to become involved in the current bargaining.

PONZI THREATENS TAKE CUE CROWN

(CHICAGO, Dec. 14. — (AP) — Although not highly rated in the advance dope, Andrew Ponzi, Philadelphia Italian, today was the man to beat in the world pocket billiards title tournament.

He had a close call yesterday, lagging a long way behind Charles Beebe of Astoria, N. Y., but rallied to win, 125 to 109, in 28 innings for his fifth straight victory.

Ponzi will defend his position tonight against Ralph Greenleaf of New York, the defending champion, and this afternoon Taberski was matched with Pasquale Natale of Chicago, and the Philadelphia, Kelly and Mosconi, were opposed.

HOCKEY PLAYER CLINGS TO LIFE

(BOSTON, Dec. 14. — (AP) — Irvin "Ace" Bailey, 31-year-old Toronto hockey player, clung tenaciously to life today as the best men medical science has to offer worked to mend his fractured skull.

Bailey was killed by the ice of the Boston garden during Tuesday night's hockey game between the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins. Dr. Martin Crotty, physician for the Boston club, said it was Bailey's superb physical condition that was his chief hope.

Bailey was at the Audubon hospital, his condition unchanged from last night, when it was considered "critical."

KRUSE PINIONS JACK FORSGREN

(PORTLAND, Dec. 14. — (AP) — Bob Kruse, 210, of Oswego, won the main event on last night's wrestling card here, defeating Jack Forsgren, 220, of Vancouver, B. C., two falls out of three.

Kruse took the first fall with a body slam in 11 minutes. The Canadian won the second with a Boston crab hold in three minutes. Kruse took the deciding tumbled with a wrist-lock in 22 minutes.

Ted Cox, 220, Lodi, Cal., lost on a foul to Billy Burns, 205, Denver, in the semi-windup, after having taken the only fall.

Bob Myers, 162, Tillamook, won over Henry Karhunsari, 180, Finland, one fall.

Leo Jensen, 164, Vancouver, B. C., defeated Teinie Olsen, 155, Portland, getting one fall, in the opener.

ROGUE SNOWMEN MEETING TONIGHT

All winter sport enthusiasts are invited to attend a meeting of the Rogue Snowmen to be held at the Chamber of Commerce this evening at 7:30. It was announced by Glen Fabrick, president, this morning.

The Rogue Snowmen organized last week, has as its object the promotion of winter sports in this section and has received enthusiastic response from those interested in skiing, tobogganing and skating. A course has been prepared on the Siskiyou mountains by members of the club and all indications are that the club's first year will be a highly successful one.

Chamber of Commerce officials believe that with a winter sports club functioning here, many out-of-state persons will be attracted to Medford, as has been the experience in other places where winter sports are emphasized.

It is expected that a well attended meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce tonight, and any one interested in winter recreation is urged to be present as further plans of the club will be outlined.

AVERAGE TRANSIENT WILLING TO LABOR

(SALEM, Ore., Dec. 14.—(AP)—R. Boardman, Salem transient relief supervisor, said today that "the average transient who comes through here is willing to work."

Boardman said he reached that conclusion after interviewing more than 1000 transients seeking food and lodging at the federal transient depot which is an outgrowth of the old Salem "flop-house."

The policy of "every man works" has transformed the old "flop-house" into a clean, vermin-free haven for the knights of the road.

Missing Pilot "Okay."
CHARLOTTE, N. C., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Eastern Air Transport officials here announced today that Charley Myers, missing airmail flier, had been forced down in a swamp near Savannah, Ga. Officials here said he was reported "okay."

Accused Of Attack

Lieut. John H. Murrell, former West Point football star and now attached to the ninth infantry in Texas, was held in San Antonio on a charge of attacking Blanche Ralls after a roadhouse party. Under federal law the offense is punishable by death or life imprisonment. (Associated Press Photo)

Dempsey Will Make 'Em Behave

Here's a tough pair of muscle twisters who will appear on the armory mat card Friday evening under auspices of the American Legion. Thor Jensen (above) known as the Elkton Thunderbolt, will tangle with Logger Helbert, St. Helens wild man, and Robin Reed (left) one of the greatest wrestlers at his weight in the world, will meet Klem Kusek, Tacoma fish. Another match on the card, which will be refereed throughout by Jack Dempsey, former world's heavyweight champion, is a curtain-raiser between Mickey McGuire, red-headed salem Irishman and Bob Roy, Scottish wonder from Jackson, Michigan.

New England Squirrels Start Westward March

(NEW YORK, Dec. 14. — (AP) — The winter of 1933-34 may go down in the books as the date of the great big trek of the little gray squirrels. The rodents are up to something in Massachusetts, Connecticut and eastern New York they are taking it on the lam.

YREKA CAGERS PLAY ASHLAND SATURDAY

(By Logan Nittinger.)

ASHLAND, Dec. 14.—(Spl.)—Yreka hoopsters will invade the Ashland court Saturday for the usual scrap initiating the Ashland high school basketball season.

Last year the Faber gang yielded to the Yreka after a hard fought battle, by a single point.

Besides three lettermen, Hokie Hardy and Baughman, much of last year's Ashland material is back again on the floor, including Hjalmar Kianto, Willie Durham, Parker Hess and
