

NEW LATTER DAY SAINTS CHAPEL

At dedicatory ceremonies on Nov. 5, this half million dollar chapel in Washington, D. C., will be consecrated by the Latter Day Saints church. Members of the first presidency and other officials of the faith were to attend. (Associated Press Photo)

STRIKERS SEIZE BIG MINNESOTA PACKING PLANT

This picture shows some of the 2,500 striking employees of the Hormel packing plant in Austin, Minn., as they kept warm by bonfires after a walkout. Leaders of the strikers who took possession of the plant and shut off its refrigerator system are shown at top. Left to right, seated: W. C. Knutson, C. J. Fosson, president of the workers' union which led the strike; Mary O'Shaughnessy, Frank Ellis, a strike leader; Ben Godfredson. Standing: William Hubbard, George Guerdard. (Associated Press Photos)

GOVERNORS AT WHITE HOUSE RELIEF PARLEY

Five hundred state and city officials assembled in the White House to hear President Roosevelt explain a new plan which he said would put four million men back to work in the winter months. Harry L. Hopkins (right), civil works administrator, is shown addressing the convention. Seated in the front row are, left to right, Governors Stanley C. Wilson, Vermont; Frank H. Cooney, Montana; B. B. Mear, Arizona; John G. Pollard, Virginia; Hill McAllister, Tennessee; Ruby Laffoon, Kentucky. Back row: Governors Henry Horner, Illinois; T. A. Reardon, representing Governor Ralph of California; Eugene Talmadge, Georgia; George White, Ohio; M. S. Connor, Mississippi, and Ira Blackwood, South Carolina. (Associated Press Photo)

Musical Prodigy Hailed By Critics

New York's most sophisticated music audience sat dumbfounded through the program of Bach, Beethoven, Mendelssohn and Chopin which 8-year-old Ruth Slenczynski played masterfully in her debut at Town Hall. This California-born prodigy has been studying in Europe for the past two years with her father acting as her only teacher. (Associated Press Photo)

GLAD TO ENTER STATE PRISON

Tony Serpa (above) smiled broadly as he was rushed to San Quentin prison after being sentenced in a San Jose, Cal., court. Serpa, convicted of manslaughter, was in the cell next to Thomas Thurmond when a mob broke into the jail and seized Thurmond and John Holmes and lynched them. Serpa, who was threatened by the lynching mob, was rushed to San Francisco for safety, and rather than appeal the conviction he dismissed his attorney and accepted the prison sentence. (Associated Press Photo)

Alcatraz Warden

James A. Johnston of San Francisco has been named warden of the new federal prison on Alcatraz Island in San Francisco bay. He has had experience in California's penal institutions. (Associated Press Photo)

SEATTLE GIRL MAKES DEBUT

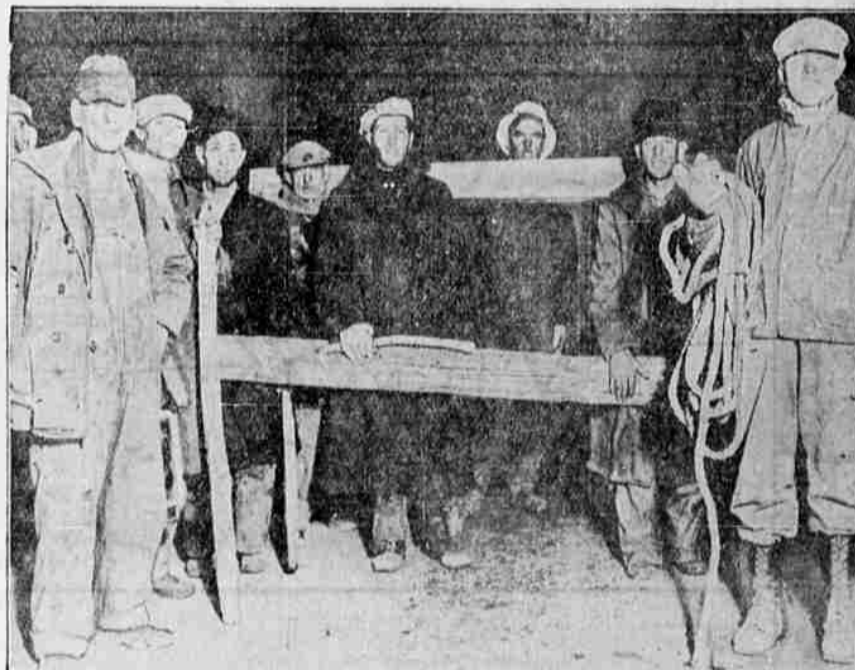

Byrd Elyot of Seattle, Wash., a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, made her bow into the world of violin virtuosi in New York. Her program was described by discerning critics as "interesting." (Associated Press Photo)

Beats Husking Champ

Ernest Rehn (above), 40-year-old farmer of Magnolia, Ill., defeated a field including Carl Seiler, last year's national champion, to win the 1933 Illinois corn-husking title and a chance at the national crown. (Associated Press Photo)

IOWA PICKETS USE RAIL TIES TO BLOCKADE ROADS

Using railroad ties, farm pickets near Sioux City, Ia., placed a blockade around the city to prevent marketing of farm commodities. This group of pickets is shown ready for action against market-bound trucks. (Associated Press Photo)

WARLIKE SCENES IN MARYLAND LYCHING BATTLE

In a surprise move by Governor Ritchie state militiamen were sent to the eastern shore of Maryland to round up men accused of participating in the lynching of George Armwood, a negro, at Princess Anne last October. Four men were arrested and immediately afterwards an angry crowd formed, bent on releasing the prisoners from an armory in Salisbury. Beaten back by bayonets and tear gas, the mob dispersed and the troopers returned to Baltimore with their prisoners. Left shows the prisoners being escorted from the armory and at right members of the mob are held at bay by the soldiers' bayonets. (Associated Press Photos)

ONE-HOUR BRIDE BECOMES WIDOW

Mrs. Alice Pluta Bergman, 17 (left), bride for an hour before her husband, Walter, was slain by officers of Kenosha county, Wis., after he had shot and wounded a filling station attendant, is shown with Mrs. Hazel Schomier, also 17, whose husband was captured in the same episode. (Associated Press Photo)

ARIZONA MAN BAGS BLUE EAGLE

Florence Rasmussen is showing the real "blue eagle" her employer, E. C. Stults of Phoenix, Ariz., killed on a hunting trip. Examination showed more than half the bird's feathers were bright blue, a color for which ornithologists could not account. The NRA "natural" was stuffed for a mascot. (Associated Press Photo)

VINES LOSES IN DAMAGE SUIT

Ellsworth Vines, Jr., tennis champion, was one of the defendants in a $30,000 damage suit in which John Albright, the plaintiff, was awarded $3500 in Los Angeles. His brother, George, and mother, Mrs. Caroline Vines, were co-defendants in the action which resulted from an automobile accident. The car was owned by Ellsworth and Mrs. Vines sanctioned her son's driver's license. Left to right: George Vines, Mrs. Ellsworth Vines, Jr., and Vines during a recess. (Associated Press Photo)

Oil Witness

William S. Fitzpatrick (above), former president of the Prairie Oil company, appeared before the senate stock market committee in Washington to tell of a payment to him of $300,000 from a pool in Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation stock. (Associated Press Photo)

Foreign Minister

Koki Hirota is Japan's new foreign minister. In his first public pronouncement he said the outlook was hopeful for amity between Japan and her three great neighbors, the United States, China and Russia. (Associated Press Photo)

BOULDER DAM WORK PROGRESSES

Here is the latest aerial view of the Boulder dam site on the Colorado river where progress ahead of schedule is being made. In this photo, looking downstream, the dam is seen rising in the river bed with Arizona (left) and Nevada spillways. (Associated Press Photo)