HIGH FIVE WILL PLAY WEED HERE TO START SEASON

(By Harold Grove)

Medford high school Tigers will open their 1933 basketball season Saturday, December 23, against Weed high school of northern California.

The Weed tilt is definitely set for Saturday, announced Coach D. M. Burgher.

The initial launching of the 1933 basketball season is set for either 7 p. m. or 8 p. m., Saturday, December 23.

Starting Monday, the Tiger basketball team will teach the fundamentals, fundamentals and more fundamentals in the art of passing, basket shooting, dribbling and guarding. The Tigers have had three days of practice already this week. However, if the Bengals expect to slip one over on the Weed team, they will have to practice mighty hard before they appear on the maple courts in the boys' gym at the south end of the Medford high school.

According to reports received by local fans and officials, the Weed high school will be fully prepared for anything the locals have to offer. It is reported here that Weed high has the strongest team in the history of the school. Being defeated in football and basketball during the seasons of 1932 and 1933, and again being defeated in football this season, the Weeders will have all the reasons in the world to make a vital thrust at the supremacy of the Medford high Tigers over them.

The game will be the first of many games to be played on the local court. The second game of the season will be called tentatively January 12. A game for January 19 has not been definitely settled as yet. However, on the following week, the Tigers will journey to Klamath Falls to play the Pelicans there.

DEMPSEY VIEWED IN ARMORY BOUTS

Still regarded as the king of "fiatania", Jack Dempsey gave local boxing fans a treat at wrestling matches Friday night at the armory, where he refereed three matches with rare efficiency. He placed obstreperous wrestlers in their places easily and a few times took up his old fighting pose.

Bulldog Jackson, Portland middleweight, provided color for the first event with Sergeant Anderson of Port Lewis. Jackson was a fighter once himself and a few times essayed to dig into Dempsey, but only for a moment. He would be pulled free from the ropes by Dempsey and thrown with resounding bang on the mat. Jackson who did almost as much grandstanding as wrestling, lost the first fall in 15 minutes but came back strong.

Dempsey found it necessary to warn him numerous times to refrain from biting, eye gouging and other playful antics. Jackson argued with the referee and Anderson would come charging in on him. Anderson lost the second fall in 12 minutes but suffered such injuries to a shoulder he was unable to return.

Presenting a much higher type of wrestling, Robin Reed of Heedersport and Mickey McGuire of Salem wrestled in a gentlemanly fashion. Dempsey had little to do but watch. Reed lost the first fall with a Boston crab, but won the second with a slam and the third with an airplane spin. Reed placed his well known whip wristlock into action several times.

Dempsey came in for a little more action in the third event between Thor Jensen of Astoria and Logger Hebert of Portland. Hebert lost the first fall in the 2nd, while Jensen rang the bell on the third. Jensen expressed dislike for Dempsey's refereeing and once took a flying tackle at him and brought Dempsey to his knees, with Hebert on top of Jensen.

Much of this match was wrestled outside the ring with Jensen taking several good dives onto the floor and at times climbing out seeking protection.

A good sized crowd saw the evening card, promoted by Herb Owen, who formerly promoted numerous cards here but is now one of the leading promoters in Portland.

The members last Thursday discussed the possibility of staging a party during the season and arranging some time around New Year's at Russell's Camp and a committee composed of Dr. D. H. Findley, Mrs. J. C. Boyle, Ralph Green and Mrs. D. D. Kay was appointed to take care of this matter.

In order to take care of the grounds during the season and arrange and conduct the events to be staged, Sam Jennings, Carl Ramstrom, D. D. Kay and Mr. Franklin were appointed a committee to handle this for the present season.

The progress made by the Snowmen during the past two weeks is remarkable, stated W. B. Bolger, president of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, "and I believe that the club will grow to be one of the strongest of its kind in northern California and southern Oregon. The Chamber of Commerce is enthusiastic about the possibilities of such an organization and pledges itself to see that it receives the proper publicity in magazines and newspapers over the country."

The next meeting of the Snowmen will be held at the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, December 21, at 7:30 p. m. and members and all others interested in winter sports are cordially invited to attend.

Accepting the resignation of Jackson L. Campbell as football coach, the Dartmouth athletic council tonight settled down to the task of selecting his successor from a list of more than 40 prominent coaches. The list was not made public.

BASKETBALL

BAKER, Dec. 16.—(AP)—The Baker Bulldogs defeated the Cove high school basketball team here Friday night by a score of 31 to 23 in a hotly contested game. The Baker Elks quintet trounced the Prairie City high school team by a score of 29 to 13.

SNOWMEN TOIL TO PLACE SISKIYOU SKI TRACK READY

With a large number in attendance another meeting of the Rogue Snowmen was held in the Chamber of Commerce last Thursday at which time further plans were outlined for the program of activities for this year. It was announced by Glen Patrick, president.

The course on the Siskiyou has been practically cleared of brush and other obstacles but the membership will visit the site again today and complete the task.

Enthusiasm for the winter sports club is increasing daily, and although the organization is only two weeks old, over 60 members have so far joined and it is expected that before the snows permit winter sports that 300 members will be enrolled this morning.

A complete report on the work so far accomplished was placed before the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce on Friday by Roland Hubbard and the individual members expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the progress made as the club will undoubtedly give considerable publicity to winter sports in this section and should be able to attract many from outside states here.

According to President Patrick, it is planned to start the season with a party some time around New Year's at Russell's Camp and a committee composed of Dr. D. H. Findley, Mrs. J. C. Boyle, Ralph Green and Mrs. D. D. Kay was appointed to take care of this matter.

Garrettsville, Ohio, Dec. 16.—(AP)—They attacked the pancakes high. They poured the famed maple syrup of Portage county with a liberal hand. Sausage sizzled in the skillet.

And when the pancake eating championship of Northeastern Ohio was over, Charles Barholt, a 22-year-old truck driver of Hiram, was the victor.

The score: 42 five-inch buckwheat cakes.

Seventeen men sat down at a lodge hall table last night at 7:30 p. m. Barholt, an "unknown" so far as advance notices were concerned, had not eaten anything since breakfast.

At 10 p. m. the remaining contestants moved to a side room to make way for a dance in the hall.

A short while later Edward Ziaka, a 28-year-old farmer of Freedom, Ohio, who is Portage county champion, had to stop at 41 for a second place.

Ziaka stayed for the dance. For Barholt, it was "and so to bed."

ROXY ANN GRANGE HOLDS SHOOT FOR YULE FUND TODAY

The birds are picked and ready for the Charity Shoot! Members of the Roxy Ann Grange announced last night after spending the day among their feathered friends, relieving 100 of them of life and feathers.

They will be given as prizes today at the big event at the Gun club grounds, proceeds from which will make Santa Claus a reality for families of the Roxy Ann district, now in need.

The shoot will be conducted under auspices of the Grange, the Medford Gun club and the Medford Rifle club. There will be prizes for all, as competition is expected from the poorest to the best shots, and shooting will begin at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

All money realized will be dispersed by the Roxy Ann Grange. There will be rifle shooting, pistol and shotgun competition.

Many novelty stunts are also expected to add interest to the day and the ducks and turkeys offered will provide fine feasting for the holidays. There will also be sausage, bacon and ham, for those who lack a fondness for fowl; and wood for the fire in the prize list.

All persons who enjoy a little shooting (or a lot of it) are urged to take this opportunity to aid a worthy cause, while having a "grand time" at the gun club grounds.

COLORADO BALKS AT GRID SPLIT

BOULDER, Colo., Dec. 16.—(AP)—Following a closed meeting of the athletic councils of Colorado university and Colorado Agricultural college here today, it was once more authoritatively reported Colorado university will not give its sanction to the proposed split of the Rocky Mountain conference into a "Big Eight" and "Little Four."

Reports also were heard that the agricultural school will adopt the same attitude toward the move, which was approved by faculty athletic representatives at a stormy session in Denver a week ago.

This approval, however, was conditioned on the endorsement by the governing bodies of each school involved.

GUM CHEWING IS DEATH TO A JOB

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 16.—(AP)—If you're looking for work, "don't chew gum when applying for a job," members of the employment staff of Oregon State college suggest.

Helen Holgate, head of the clerical exchange, said gum-chewing applicants are almost certain to be turned down by most employers.

Mrs. Lulu Howard, employment secretary for the Y. W. C. A., advises applicants to dress appropriately for the type of work they are seeking. Also, she suggests no applicant should ask, "do you need help here?" because the psychological answer usually is "no."

COLUMBIA DRILLS FOR BOWL BATTLE, ACE BACK INJURED

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—(AP)—The injury jinx struck at Columbia's football squad, preparing for the Rose Bowl game with Stanford, today and temporarily incapacitated Bill Nevel, varsity fullback, and Al Ciampi, second-string center.

Nevel suffered a deep gash in his forehead when he collided with Joe Stanczyk, an assistant coach, during scrimmaging. Three stitches were required to close the wound, but Nevel will be in shape for the New Year's day classic.

Ciampi banged up his shoulder and neck again and had to be taped up tightly. He probably will be used only sparingly against Stanford.

Lou Little sent the squad through an intensive two-hour drill, devoting most of his time to an offensive drill for the first and second team against the dummy Stanford squad. It was the first real drill on offense the Lions have had so far and Little was encouraged by their performance.

Hello, Jeanie. I hope you had as well a Christmas as I did. I got ice skates, and a big paint set . . . and guess what Daddy gave me! A real bank book and $10 to start my account. Wonderful, isn't it? Just watch me save at least half of my allowance every week, so I can help Dad and Mom send me to college. I'll be over after Sunday school and tell your folks to open your savings account right now!
