OUR ANSWER TO THE FOX THEATRE CHAIN

A LETTER from the manager of one of the leading film exchanges, stating he was writing at the request of Mr. Frank Newman of the Fox Chain, says that they (Fox) have been double-billing in Medford on account of a shortage of good pictures—and are using cheap pictures from small producing companies for this purpose. He also implies that, unless we release some of our Major pictures to them for use in their Holly Theatre, they will continue to double-bill . . .

Here Is Our Answer—Starting Today

Two really "honest to gosh" features . . . each one positively strong enough to stand alone! . . .

Here she is!...Red-headed, warm-blooded dynamite..in the most colorful role of her tempestuous career!

SHE SHAKES EVERYTHING BUT HER BOY FRIEND!...
She thought she knew men like a book . . . until she met a romantic youngster who opened her eyes to genuine romance!
