Clever Music In Jack Oakie Comedy On Holly's Screen

Music written by Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, two of America's best song writers combined with comedy furnished by an all-star comedy cast headed by Jack Oakie, Jack Haley, Ginger Rogers, Thelma Todd and Gregory Ratoff are the main ingredients of the fast and furious screen musical-comedy "Sitting Pretty," now playing at the Holly. Produced for Paramount by Charles R. Rogers and directed by Harry Joe Brown from an original story suggested by Nina Wilcox Putnam, "Sitting Pretty" boasts a good supporting cast including Lew Cody, Jerry Tucker, Walter Walker and two well-known radio features, the Pickens Sisters and the Beverly Hill Billies.

Gordon and Revel, authors of "Underneath a Harlem Moon," "An Orchid to You" and other popular tunes have written several numbers for this picture including "Good Morning Glory," "You're such a comar to me," and "And There's a Bluebird at My Window, and a Sheriff at My Door." Two smacking good production numbers are backed up by eye-filling sets and one hundred of Hollywood's most talented and ravishing girls.

Jack Oakie and Jack Haley are a couple of likeable mugs from New York's Tin-Pan alley who finally get a song and go to Hollywood.

A melodrama of roaring rails, "The Manager of Casey Jones" completes Manager Marsh's double bill.

Clark Gable and Jean Harlow Now On Rialto's Bill

Clark Gable and Jean Harlow are re-united as co-stars by popular demand in "Hold Your Man" in the Rialto Theatre's new double feature program tomorrow. "After the Ball" is the other feature.

The smashing success of "Red Dust," in which the two stars were first teamed, brought such a response from public and exhibitors that the producers started scouting for another story suitable to their talents.

"Hold Your Man" has an under-world flavor and is a rapidly-moving, rowdy, worldly story of timely tempo. In it the platinum-haired Miss Harlow plays the role of a gaudy creature who is willing to allow herself to become the "lure" in a love racket for the sake of her man. Gable, as the man in the case, is a light-moraled chap who finds his real worth when the girl is sent to jail because of the trouble his racket gets her into.

"After the Ball" has Esther Blalock in a gay, light-hearted comedy. Basil Rathbone, who was with Norma Shearer in a couple of pictures, is the leading man.

"Doctor Bull," which has Will Rogers in a typical Rogers role, and "The Death Kiss," play for the last times tonight at the Rialto.

Kay Francis and Clara Bow Stars Craterian's Bill

The double feature program now at the Craterian theatre until tomorrow night has two of the screen's favorite stars in their best roles to date. One one half of the program, Kay Francis plays the part of "Mary Stevens, M.D." and on the other Clara Bow is the flaming carnival dancer of "Hoopla". "Mary Stevens, M.D." is not only a drama of the life of a woman doctor but also a glowing romance, in which the delectable Kay Francis is teamed with Lyle Talbot. Thelma Todd is the "other woman" in the case.
