

HELEN JACOBS IS FEMINE SPORTS STAR FOR SEASON

Twin Achievements in Tennis Win Acclaim of Nation's Sports Observers—Virginia Van Wie Second

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—(AP)—For twin tennis achievements in saving the Wightman cup for the United States, with a decided singles victory, and then dethroning her famous rival, Helen Wills Moody, for the American championship, Helen Hull Jacobs wins the acclaim of the nation's sports observers as the outstanding woman performer of 1933.

Van Wie second
The results of voting in the third annual Associated Press poll, among sports editors and writers, show Miss Jacobs a decisive winner in a three-cornered race for the feminine honors of the year in all sports. She polled more than one-third of the vote, 64 out of a total of 180. Her nearest rivals were Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, who finished second with 48 votes, and Lenore Knight of Homestead, Pa., new swimming queen, who was third with 31.

Due to the relatively limited sphere of noteworthy feminine competition, the voting was confined almost entirely to those engaging in tennis, golf or swimming. Outside of these sports, the only names mentioned were Anne Townsend of Philadelphia, captain of the American international field hockey team, and Mildred (Habe) Didrickson, all-around Texas athlete.

Babe Gets Two Votes

Miss Didrickson, now a professional, due to her record-breaking track and field accomplishments in the Olympic games. She received two votes this year.

Mrs. Moody, who won the Wimbledon tennis crown for the sixth time before her dramatic default to Miss Jacobs in the American final at Forest Hills, received only three votes.

The victory for Miss Jacobs marked her second straight winning of the national title. Although being under a doctor's care herself, "Helen the Second" also had stepped up the No. 1 singles on the American Wightman cup team, due to the withdrawal of Mrs. Moody, and scored two victories.

Miss Van Wie likewise stamped herself as an outright title holder by capturing the national women's golf crown for the second successive season. She defeated Helen Hicks in the final round after beating Enid Wilson, British champion, in the semifinals.

Miss Knight succeeded to the freestyle swimming championships formerly held by Helene Madison of Seattle. The Pennsylvania girl annexed four titles from 100 meters to one mile.

COACH WORSHIPS AS TEAM PLAYS

LONG BEACH, Cal., Dec. 19.—(AP)—A change of religious faith by Oak Smith, head coach, may change the destinies of the Long Beach Junior college football team next fall.

Smith, former Drake university star, recently transferred his allegiance from an old, conservative Christian faith to that of a church which holds Sabbath worship on Saturday.

So he issued an ultimatum to the school officials saying, "I will not be with the team Saturday."

Since Smith also coaches the track team, he will work with the squad this spring, but will not see them compete—for all the meets are on Saturday. An assistant will take charge of the athletes on Saturday.

KALLO PINIONS HARRY ELLIOTT

PORTLAND, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Taking two falls out of three, Gus Kallio, 160, of Columbus, Ohio, won the main event on last night's wrestling program here from Harry Elliott, 158, of Eugene.

Kallio used a self-strangle hold each time to take the first fall in 19 minutes and the third in 18 minutes. Elliott won the second fall with a flying body scissor in five minutes.

Herb Parks, 160, Vancouver, B. C., defeated Legger Heibert, 161, St. Helens, on a foul in the semi-windup. Each had earned a fall.

Mickey McGuire, 157, Salem, won from Klem Kusek, 159, Tacoma, two falls out of three.

Don Sugal, 149, Salem, defeated Jack Stewart, 151, Seattle, getting one fall in the preliminary.

VANCOUVER PUCKERS TRIM PORTLAND 5-3

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Turning back the Portland Buckaroos last night, 5 to 3, at the start of their two weeks' road trip, the Vancouver Lions moved into undisputed third place in the northwest hockey league. The Lions tallied three times in the second period to take a commanding lead.

AARON SCHOLLARS A CONVALESCENT

Aaron Schollars, 89, who drove a team at the Battle of Gettysburg, and chased Indians in Utah, in the days when he needed chasing, is able to be "up and about the house," according to his physician, Dr. W. B. Dodson. He has been ill for several months but is now convalescing. Schollars' many friends here will be glad to learn of his improvement. He resides in southwest Medford.

Mr. Schollars, before sickness came, spent his time debating issues of the day with Judge William M. Colvig. He was a steadfast reader of the Congressional Record, and for many months was a daily caller at The Mail Tribune, to get this dry document. His favorite haunts were the city park and The Mail Tribune office.

"When you get too old to pitch horseshoes, you have to read the Congressional Record," is his philosophy.

GAMBLE FACING SERIOUS CHARGE

A formal complaint will be filed today by the district attorney's office against Fred Gamble of the Rogue River district, charging "assault with intent to kill." Gamble is alleged to have set a trap-gun in the trail near his cabin, five miles from the town of Rogue River, as protection for his still operation.

Authorities say that the still angle of the case will be turned over to the federal authorities, for operation of an unlicensed still.

State police arrested Gamble last week. They claim the trap gun trigger was connected with a green-colored string across the trail in such a manner that any person traveling the trail might have discharged the weapon, with danger of bodily injury or death.

Seth Parker To Broadcast From Boat Tuesdays

On December 5, with old friends and New England dignitaries on board the Seth Parker to bid him bon voyage, Captain Phillips Lord started down the coast on the first leg of his cruise in quest of high adventure.

After making stops in ten more ports down the U. S. coast, from which cities broadcasts will be made for Frigidair on Tuesday nights at 7 p. m. Pacific Coast time, Captain Lord will continue his trip around the world.

When leaving Portland, Me., more than two weeks ago, Captain Lord carried with him the good wishes of Governor Louis A. Brann, chief executive of Maine, and his staff and members of the Maine legislature, and other prominent New Englanders who were on the dock to pay him tribute as one of the state's first citizens.

Also present at the farewell party were friends from Jonesport, made famous by Lord's Seth Parker series.

and representatives of Bowdoin college, where he went to school. The Tuesday night broadcasts are coming from various Atlantic seacoast towns, as Lord pilots his schooner southward toward Miami, Fla., and will be presented over WEAP coast-to-coast network of 57 stations by NBC. These most unusual and interesting programs will originate in the cabin of the Seth Parker as she lays in the east coast ports.

The round-the-world journey is to be the realization of a small, barefoot boy's most cherished dream—a dream in which he saw himself commanding his own sailing vessel and navigating into little-known nooks of the world where romance and adventure await only a seeker.

The rates become effective on December 21 and expire on January 8.
