

CANTATA PLANNED THURSDAY EVENING EAGLE PT. CHURCH

"Chimes of the Holy Night," a cantata, will be presented in the Eagle Point Presbyterian church Thursday evening, December 21, at 8 o'clock under the direction of Yetta Olson. Mrs. Lyle Schoppert of Medford will play the accompaniment.

The program is as follows:

"Christmas Bells"—Choir.

"How Beautiful Upon the Mountains"—Mrs. Mittlesteadt and choir.

"But Thou Bethlehem"—Women's chorus, Lottie Van Scoy and choir.

"Earth's Weary Waiting Done"—(Duet) Madeline Barrett and Mrs. Jess Mittlesteadt.

"In the Waches of the Night"—Beulah Tingleaf.

"Good Tidings"—Men's chorus.

"The Christmas Story, as Told by St. Luke"—Rev. Smith.

"Glory to God in the Highest"—Choir.

"On Earth Peace"—Choir.

"Let Us Go Even Unto Bethlehem"—Men's choir.

"Jesus, Our Lord"—Mrs. Barrett and women's chorus.

"Break Forth Into Joy"—Choir.

"The Star in the Eastern Sky"—Charles Sturgill and choir.

"The Lord is Born Today"—Choir.

The choir is composed of the following people:

Soprano—Lottie Van Scoy, Madeline Barrett, Eleanor Throckmorton, Minnie Putnam, Rose Smith, Gertrude Stanley.

Alto—Jess Mittlesteadt, Donna Karl, Wilda Darnelle, Harriet Short, Beulah Tingleaf, Gladys Nichols.

Tenors—Charles Sturgill, Gerald Hansen, Leland Dysinger.

Basses—Dr. D. A. Forbes, Harold Grow, Bertland Stanley, Clifford Ayres.

There will be no charge, but an offering will be taken to pay the expense of the books.

Sturdier Toys Fill Santa Claus' Pack —Gadgets for Boys, Gay Dolls for Girls

NEW YORK—(AP)—Sturdy things that can stand a good round whamming are in Santa Claus' pack this Christmas.

None of this delicate stuff for the kids. Even father can play with the 1933 toys without breaking them. And that may be an inducement.

Streamlined automobiles and wagons with electric lights should last a lifetime . . . or at least until spring.

A Hammer? Here It Is!

"Just give a kid a hammer," suggest some. So the toy folk put out a workman's bench with electric tools, an electro-plating outfit and plenty of hammers.

This Electrical Age!

And electricity. . . . In one game a light flashes when the correct answer is given. Shoot the ball in the nine hole and up flashes a red light. Small toys, such as six-inch automobiles and little boats, have lights.

For little girls there are millions of dolls. Doctor dolls with thermometer and stethoscope tend sick dolls in the arms of beautiful blond nurses.

Little wolf dolls scare pig dolls and other movie star dolls sit on pianos, ride fire trucks—and meow.

Fire-Engine Stuff.

At the touch of a finger, automobiles shoot out of a garage as a bell rings and a light suddenly flashes.

There are big toys like merry-go-round teeter-totters and bicycles with sidecars.

And (note to parents with frayed nerves) there are quiet toys such as drawing sets and doll houses.

Here are some practical dolls from Santa Claus' Christmas pack. This rush keeps an interne busy, what with nurse coming up with new victims all the time.

of a pageant entitled, "These Are My Friends."

The opening scene is laid in the home of Mr. Arnold, a wealthy uncle of Nancy's. Episodes I, II and III are laid in the homes of poor families throughout the city.

The Cast.

Mr. Arnold (a genial man in the fifties)—Ted Sims.

Nancy (his niece)—Velma Smith.

Polly Roger (age thirteen)—Helen Latham.

Betty Rogers (age eight)—Betty Latham.

Mrs. Rogers (just out of the hospital)—Mrs. Chiseman.

Tom Martin (age fifteen)—Billy Marsh.

Dick Martin (age twelve)—Delbert Troxell.

Henry Martin (age thirteen)—Clyde Troxell.

Johnnie Martin (age six)—Morris Pierce.

A Man (agent for the landlord)—Charles Smith.

Mr. Freeman (a fine old gentleman)—Adrian Fraley.

Mrs. Freeman (a lovely old lady, half blind)—Helen Coke.

Intermission Numbers.

"O, Little Town of Bethlehem."

"As With Gladness Men of Old."

"We Would See Jesus."

The program will be concluded with a white gift service and offering, which is to go to the Northwestern Christian Home for the aged.

CHRISTMAS PARTY PROTECTION GIVEN PLANNED BY D. A. V. TO RERATED VETS FOR YOUNGSTERS

Plans are nearing completion for the second annual kiddies' community tree party, to be held at the Armory Thursday, December 21, at 3 p. m. A large Christmas tree will be the center of decoration and Santa will distribute nuts, candy, popcorn and oranges for all the kiddies of 10 years and younger who live in Jackson county.

The children of the Howard school under direction of Mrs. Cora Gustine, will give the following program of Christmas music:

1. Song, "List Our Merry Carol," by choirs.
2. Quartet, "Silent Night," by four girls—Catherine Coy, Edith Shelly, Lois Smith and Lea Ella Williams.
3. "God Rest Ye, Merry Gentlemen," boys' group.
4. Song in Pantomime by Marie Dole, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear."
5. Christmas Starlight, chorus.
6. Trio and chorus, "We Three Kings of Orient Are."
7. Solo, "Jolly Old Saint Nicholas," by Gloria Hall.

There will also be two violin selections by Doris Wade and selections by the Gold Strip Junior Drum Corps of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The Christmas party is being given to the kiddies of the community by the local posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American War Veterans, and a most cordial invitation is extended to both parents and children to enjoy the program as well as see Santa Claus distribute cheer among the children.

Hines, chief of the Veterans' Administration, advises Senator Stetwer that he has approved application of the 75 per cent protection clause for the benefit of all service connected cases on the scale of compensation paid prior to the passage of the national economy act. Under this ruling, those reduced by re-ratings to less than 15 per cent of what they received under the old law and ratings will be restored to the 75 per cent level and for an indefinite time new ratings will be subject to this restriction.
