

STANFORD LOSES STAR PLAYER ON ROSE BOWL EVE

Al Norgard Ineligible Because of Two Minutes Play Four Years Ago — Ruling Is Not Retroactive

By Russell J. Newland.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The bugbear of collegiate athletics and coaches—ineligibility—has reached out to snatch away a star player from Stanford, just as the big red team was preparing to depart for Pasadena to uphold western football honors against Columbia in the annual Rose Bowl game new year's day.

Al Norgard, veteran right end and mainstay of the team, was ruled out of further competition yesterday because he had played only two minutes as a substitute four years ago.

Norgard was declared ineligible yesterday by Stanford authorities following an investigation that revealed the star pass snatcher had played for a brief time as a substitute September 28, 1929, for St. Ignatius college, now University of San Francisco.

His appearance in the game for St. Ignatius automatically made Norgard ineligible this season under the three-year variety play rule of the Pacific Coast conference.

Actually Norgard was not eligible to play this year. He did, however, and was one of the stars of the season. He caught the pass that beat California November 25 when Stanford clinched a tie for the conference championship and received the invitation to represent the west in the Rose Bowl game.

Professor William B. Owen, faculty athletic representative, who handled the case for Stanford, expressed regrets over the matter. He pointed out the ineligibility of Norgard was not retroactive to the extent it would affect the games already played this year by Stanford. Conference rules do not provide for such cases.

APPLAGATE CCC BASKET CHAMPS

By defeating CCC Camp Rand Ranger station, 47 to 45, last night at the local high school gym, Camp Applagate acquired the sectional championship, and will now take part in the finals, to be played here in January.

South Fork of Rogue River camp will also participate in the finals, but work has not been received by Medford district headquarters concerning the game last night on the coast, between Camp Port Orford and Camp Cape Sebastian.

Camp Garberry creek defeated Camp Kerby this week, 45 to 33.

SNOWMEN MEET C. OF C. TONIGHT

The Rogue River Snowmen will meet tonight at the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 o'clock to perfect plans for the skiing season, and an invitation to the gathering is extended all persons, men and women, interested in the sport.

Snow on the alpine and in the Siskiyou has reached a depth of 18 inches and there is enough snow on the track to assure good fun this week-end.

Women are reminded that they do not need to be accomplished with skis to participate in the events.

12 LETTERMEN TO LEAVE AT OREGON

EUGENE, Ore.—(UP)—Twelve Oregon lettermen, seven of them from the starting lineup, played their last games against St. Mary's at San Francisco, Thanksgiving day.

Three men from the backfield and four from the line will be gone from Coach Prince Callison's first string when he calls for practice next fall.

They will be Bernie Hughes, center; Bree Cypriotti and Dutch Clark, guards; Bud Pozzo, end; Mark Temple and Leighton Gee, halfbacks; Mike Mikulak, fullback. Valuable reserves lost will be Chuck Wishard, end; Biff Nilsson, tackle; Chuck Swanson, tackle; Howard Bobbitt and Jack Rushlow, fullbacks.

Oregon completed the most successful season in many years, ending in a tie for the Pacific Coast conference championship.

BEAVERS BEAT MAC CAGERS ONE POINT

PORTLAND, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Oregon State college basketball team defeated Multnomah club by a single point here last night, 25-24. The Orangemen were masters of the situation during the first half, leading the clubbers, 19 to 10, at the rest period.

Kingsman Bailey, Multnomah center, started a parade in the last half that fell short by only one point of tying up the game.

STRANGLER KAYOED IN ROUGH GRAPPLE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 21.—(UP)—Ray Steele, 215, technically knocked out and threw Ed (Strangler) Lewis, 255, in 36 minutes and 38 seconds here last night before a near record wrestling crowd of 12,000 fans.

Practically no holds were barred. The winning fall came after 10 minutes of the roughest wrestling, climaxed by what appeared to be a straight right smash to Lewis' jaw. He went down in a heap. Steele had little difficulty applying the final hold, a body slam and crotch hold.

TIGERS POINT FOR SATURDAY BATTLE WITH WEED QUINT

By Harold Grove.

After six days of hard drill on fundamentals, the Medford high school will enter into the last hard practice session before the game Saturday with Weed, which will be called promptly at 8:30 with preliminaries at 7:30 at the Medford high school gym.

The fast-moving Tiger quint, outgrowth of the best in basketball players of Medford high school, has been sharpening their eyes for the past six days for a formidable thrust of the basketball into the enemy's hoop. The only weakness is getting the ball into position to score and as coaches term it "the old family feeling." One or two of the players on the first and second strings are rather green at the art of first team basketball, but are gradually gaining team work.

The "Irish" of Weed are holding a few aces of their own. There has been no contest between Weed and any of the Southern Oregon quintets but according to reports Weed has defeated some of the best cagers that the Northern California league has to offer and will be in top form when they meet Medford Saturday. Statistics of the games played by Weed have been kept under cover.

Street corner prophets are predicting a defeat for Medford. They say that the Medford team is "cooky" because of their recent winning of the mythical Oregon state football championship, that remains to be seen.

In addition to the main event the Junior High will play the Tiger Cubs in a preliminary.

ACTIVE CLUB ACTORS IN MYSTERY PLAY AT CRATERIAN ON FRIDAY

In addition to the regular show, a one-act mystery drama, entitled "The Gray Overcoat," will be presented by the Active club at the Craterian theater Friday night.

Members of the cast have been rehearsing for several weeks under direction of Ralph Bailey, public speaking and dramatic instructor in the high school. The three characters in the play will be portrayed by Dr. L. L. Sanders, William McAllister and Howard Leclere. These men were chosen from the club by competitive tryouts to fill the roles in the production.

Mystery, intrigue, suspense and genuine thrills are the chief ingredients in "The Gray Overcoat," and the locale is the home of Inspector Woodruff, an officer of the police. The plot involves the untangling of the threads of mystery surrounding a famous jewel thief and the apprehension of the criminal. The play is noted for the completeness with which the solution to the mystery is kept concealed until the very end. The role of Inspector Woodruff is taken by Dr. Sanders, the part of Currita, the detective, by McAllister, and James, the butler, by Leclere.

In addition to the weeks of diligent effort which have been spent in preparation, the success of the play is assured, due to the fact that the members of the cast are excellently suited to the roles involved.

"This Day and Age," Cecil De Mille's latest picture, is the feature, and the full program of movies will be offered as well as the stage presentation. No raise in price of admission will be made.

Money raised through the presentation of this program will be used to finance Boy Scout work and to finance other activities of a civic nature sponsored by the Active club. Tickets for the show can be purchased in advance from any member of the Active club.

COOKIES AS GIFTS

A box of Christmas cookies, wrapped with holiday papers and seals, makes a most appropriate gift for a child or a grownup. If the cookies are packed as soon as made and quantities of waxed paper used to fill the box and the box then securely wrapped and tied, the cookies will keep fresh for at least two weeks so that they can be sent distances to those away from home. A metal box, if available, is suggested to use for holding Christmas sweets when they are to be sent out of town, as then there is less chance of air getting into the products which causes them to become stale. When packing confections it is best to pack them very tightly. Use waxed papers between layers of foods.

SANTA CLAUS COMING TO ARMORY TONIGHT FOR CHILDREN'S PARTY

"Word has been received from Santa Claus," according to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, "that he will be at the armory this evening at 8 o'clock to help distribute the goodies and to help the kiddies make merry in this their annual Christmas tree party."

"Although Santa will only have gifts for those 10 years old and younger," say the veterans, "all children of 100 years and younger are invited, for on an occasion of this kind we are all children at heart, regardless of age. So all you parents and adults, bring your own children and your neighbors' children and come and make merry."

A program of Christmas music and carols will be given by 50 children of the Howard school, under direction of Mrs. Cora Gustine. There will also be violin selections by little Miss Doris Wade and the Gold Stripe Junior drum corp of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will give selections.

Following this musical program, Santa will arrive for the distribution of candy, popcorn, nuts and oranges.
