MERRY CHRISTMAS

WE have far more to be thankful for this Christmas than last! All of us have people dear to us who have found reemployment, and who have been given a chance to live up to higher standards of happiness, thanks to the great administrator the nation selected and electd. The merchants of this page are cooperating in forwarding the interests of the New Deal. The greetings they offer you on this page are their indication of good will. Patronize them, and you will be patronizing your own community. Then indeed will this be a merry Christmas all 'round!

We wish you all the bountiful health and prosperity you wish for yourself. Merry Christmas everybody!
