Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Christmas Season Brings Interest in Entertaining

Tomorrow is Christmas. And today the celebration of the holiday, which brought man eternal hope in the form of a new-born babe, will begin as carols echo from the churches; and radios of the land repeat the songs dear to the hearts of all Christian peoples. Children will lead many people back to a greater appreciation of the day as families gather before altar, Christmas tree, and festive table, to give and to receive. Joy will also be expressed here in a great round of entertaining, which will continue through the week.

The largest events will be held on New Year's eve and New Year's. The Saturday before the arrival of 1934, Mrs. Gilbert Stuart, Mrs. Porter J. Neff and Mrs. C. Reese Braly will be hostesses at open house at the Stuart home. Invitations have been issued to 80 guests.

New Year's eve the University club and the Elks' club will entertain with large events.

The preceding Friday the Colony club will have a party for members. The Gordon Vortines will entertain this evening at dinner, where covers will be arranged for members of the family and Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Hovenberg and Miss Margaret Hubbard.

The Robt. W. Ruhnle will have as Christmas guests Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly and family, Mrs. A. L. Whittington, Mrs. Alex Sparrow and Misses Frances and Harriet Sparrow. Miss Frances is expected home today from Portland, where she has been guest of friends for several weeks.

The Leonard Carpenters will be guests Christmas at the Alfred S. V. Carpenter home, where a number of other guests will dine with additional friends dropping in for the evening.

O. E. S. Will Hold Annual Homecoming

The annual homecoming of Reames Chapter, O. E. S., will be held Wednesday evening, December 27. Covered dish dinner will be served at 6 o'clock, and will be followed by the regular lodge session. Past masters and past patrons of Reames chapter will be honor guests.

A pleasing program has been arranged by Mrs. Addie Wilson, the worthy matron. All members and visiting members are cordially invited and requested to bring covered dishes salad, a hot vegetable or dessert.

Teachers Leave For Holiday

Mrs. Gladys Conder is among Medford teachers spending the holidays with relatives. She left Friday for Heppner. Mrs. Reid and Miss Marian Briggs also left to spend the holidays in the north. Miss Helen Winter left for Portland. Mrs. Ethel Scott and daughter, Glennie, for Cottage Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nitzel, to Junction City.

Mrs. Purdin Entertains Menonah Club Members

Mrs. Nellie Purdin entertained members of the Menonah club and their friends Thursday afternoon. Bridge and five hundred were enjoyed by the group. The Christmas idea was carried out with a lovely tree and gifts for each person present. Bernice Brown of Ashland received prize for high score at bridge, and Hulda Thurman, second prize. Prize for high score at five hundred went to Gladys Dooms.

The hostess was assisted at serving refreshments by Esther Dooms and Mabel Quisenberry.

Christmas Tree and Program

At L. O. F. Hall

A large enthusiastic crowd of young folks and young ones attended the Christmas program and tree at the Odd Fellows hall Friday night. About 225 children, accompanied by the older folks were on hand to welcome Santa Claus and listen to the program put on by the juveniles. A joint committee from the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs worked most of the week in preparation for the event, and the affair was voted a success by the younger members.

The program was in charge of Mr. Keese, and was as follows:

Violin selections—Edith Pearson and Clarence Hansen.

Reading—Beverly Pearson and Annis Scripser.

Heading—Beverly Pearson.

Talking skit—Louise Keese and Jean Peas.

Vocal selections, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Holy Night"—Joe Parker.

Reading—Lucile Pearson.

Reading—Floyd Whitlock.

Duane Metcalf, George Barker, James Eddy and Paul Sparks, a quartet from the Jackson school, under the direction of Miss Abstram, entertained with several vocal selections in most creditable manner.

Following the program, Santa Claus made his appearance, and gladdened the young folks by distribution of Christmas treats.

Rebekahs Enjoy Homecoming Party

The annual homecoming of Olive Rebekah lodge, No. 21, was held in the L. O. F. hall Monday evening. Opening with a supper at 6:30 o'clock. The regular lodge session was then held and a program presented. Miss Geogianna Husong played a group of Christ, as carols and a history of homecoming was given by Mrs. Ethel Weed. Two musical readings were given by Christian Pearson and Gevena Milk.

The P. L. girls put on a play, entitled the Christmas Spirit. In the cast were Edna Hilderbrand, Lucille Cave, Beulah Thompson, Ethel Humphreys and Viola Aldridge.

Homecoming has been observed by the lodge since 1917, when Mrs. Nellie Peril was acting noble Grand and Carrie Headlee Hickett, vice-president. There were 60 members present and 10 visitors.

Post Delphians Have Interesting Meeting

The Post-Delphians met at the library December 14 and heard a very interesting program. "What Constitutes a Biography" was given by Mrs. Mulholland. A model biography (Clemens) by Mrs. Hanby.

The book review, "House in Exile" by Edna Wain was given by Mrs. Laura West.

The group meetings this week will be held at the home of Mrs. Rose Schieffelin on December 28, with Mrs. Frederick Johnson, leader.

The following list of books was submitted for reading:

"The Old Man Dies," Elizabeth Sprague.

"Family Reunion," Janet Owen.

"Whitman's Burden," Margaret Livingston Whitman.

Biography

"The People's Choice," Herbert Agor Travel

"An Indiscreet Itinerary," Hendrick Van Loan.

Look Out, Marion! You'll Hit Someone

Want to get in a snowball fight? You might, with Marion Talley, for here she is all set to start one. Miss Talley, who recently decided to return to opera, liked the first snow that fell in New York, where she's shown. (Associated Press Photo)

Valley School Has Commendable Play in Annual Program

The Christmas play given by the pupils of the Valley School Tuesday afternoon at five, was generally voted the best performance of the kind ever seen at an institution already famous for the excellence of its amateur theatricals.

The simplicity of the production proved one of its strongest virtues, the entertainment consisting entirely of the singing of the best known Christmas carols by a splendid choir, while on the stage the carols were illustrated in impressive and colorful pantomime.

Miss Barbara Jean Schuler, as narrator of the Bible Christmas story and Miss Jean Salade who sang Holy Night with a sweetness and beauty seldom reached by a soloist of her tender years, were the outstanding performers.

In the choir were: Jean Wing, Bob Bromley, Bob Tuttle, Nancy Day, Deborah Tunny, Julie Carpenter, Billy Salade and Spencer Bromley. The angels were Harriet Hart, Charlotte Wing, Patsy Gebauer, the shepherds, Billy Patton, Donnie Brown and John Spalding; the Wise Men, Gilbert Tunny, Susan Vilas and Charles Braly; Mary and Joseph, Nina Tuttle and Harlow Carpenter.

The performance reflected great credit upon Miss E. Marie Foss, principal of the school, and Miss Naomi Hohnman, her assistant, who trained the young people arranged and superintended all the details of the production.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Plan Portland Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prentice and sons are leaving Tuesday for Portland where they will spend the remainder of the holidays. On their return their son, Bob Prentice, will remain at the University of Oregon, where he is a student.

Younger Set Adds Many Events to Medford Yuletide

Members of the younger set are doing much to make the Christmas season a merry one. Considerable entertaining on their part has already dotted the calendar and more is anticipated for this week.

Friday evening the Misses Betty Vilm, Amy Elliott, Patricia Thompson, Virginia Lindley, Betty Thordike and Margaret Mary Mann will be hostesses at a dancing party at St. Mark's Guild hall. Invitations are being issued to about 40 couples.

Monday evening Miss Patricia Young will be hostess at a formal dancing party, to which 12 couples have been invited.

Thursday evening Misses Maxine and Katherine Robinson were hostesses to their weekly bridge club. Attending were Misses Ethel and Bethel Slagle, Jean Hamilton, Evelyn Miller, Louise Elrod and Leibel Miller.

Several members of the younger group have also planned a no-hostess dancing party for Tuesday evening at St. Mark's Guild hall. Music will be played by Steve Whipple's orchestra and 35 couples will enjoy dancing.

Next Saturday afternoon the Misses Doris and Helderbrand will entertain at bridge, having invited to their home the Misses Ettrude and Marguerite Boyle, Cecil Humphreys, Margaret Warner, Leibel Miller, Evelyn Herman, Molly Brown, Joan DeLoach, Anna Mae Fuson, Ruby Stone, Marjorie Phyllian, Marjorie Mulholland, Mary VanDyke and Susette Stennett.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Adra Edwards is entertaining at bridge honoring Miss Helen Edmiston and Mrs. Fred Halver of Portland, who are visiting here. There will be five tables in play.

Mrs. J. C. Boyle is holding open house on Christmas day for her daughter, Miss Gertrude Boyle. Invitations have been issued to 25 guests to call between the hours of 2 and 4.

A no-host party, attended by eight couples, was held last evening at the Colonial club by a group of the younger set.

Misses Anna Mae Fuson, Helen Edmiston, Adra Edwards and Mrs. Fred Halver are entertaining at the Hotel Medford on Thursday with a bridge luncheon.

Miss Anna Mae Fuson will be hostess on Friday to a group of her friends at bridge. Invited are the Misses Cecil Humphreys, Doris and Helen Patton, Molly Brown, Marjorie Mulholland, Gertrude and Margaret Boyle, Carvel Reames, Margaret Warner, Ruby Stone, Mary Van Dyke, Carol Dodge, Susette Stennett, Jean Hamilton and Joan DeLoach.

Miss Elaine Brophy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy, will entertain Thursday evening at the Guild hall with a dancing party to which 80 guests from the junior and senior high schools and St. Mary's academy have been invited.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moran, Mrs. Gladys Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes of Spokane, Wash.

Mr. Young Goes South for Holiday

George B. Young left Friday evening for southern California, where he will spend the holiday season with his children. He will be a guest of his son, Paul Young, at 1225 Forest Drive, Santa Paula, Cal. Christmas day. Other guests there will be Phillip Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Young and daughter, Mr. Young's oldest son, Roy A. Young and wife of Taft and their son, Albin Young and his bride, also of Taft.

Miss Getchell Is Home for Holidays

Among charming members of the school set home for the holidays is Miss Gloria Getchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell, who arrived last night from the University of Washington, her trip considerably delayed by the storm in the north.

A lovely photograph of Miss Getchell recently appeared in the rotogravure section of the Seattle Times, announcing that she had been much feted in northern society. Mrs. LeRoy Backus entertained with a formal luncheon in her honor at her home at Highlands, and she was also honored at a tea given by Miss Milnor Roberts, sister of Dean Roberts.

Misses Ferry Return from School

Misses Frances and Elizabeth Ferry returned to Medford on the Shasta Friday from Palo Alto to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ferry at their home on Foothills. The Misses Ferry are students at Leland Stanford university.

Spends Christmas in New York State

Miss Pauline Findley, who is making her home in Medford with her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley, is spending the Christmas holidays in White Plains, N. Y., the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wolf.

Mr. Wolf is the brother of Miss Findley's fiancée, Robert Wolf, who is spending the holidays in White Plains. He is a student at the University of Pennsylvania medical school.

Gleaners Hold Annual Christmas Party

The Gleaners held their annual Christmas party at the home of Dr. Carlows on December 19. The room was beautifully decorated with red and green garlands. Supper was served at 6:30 with 65 guests present. Mrs. Neff presented three birthday cakes in memory of the birthday of the Christ child.

The following program was presented: Community singing of "Silent Night"; guitar trio, Loleto Jones and Mr. and Mrs. LeFree. A play by the P. L. Girls of the Rebekah lodge with cast of Edna Hilderbrand, Lucille Cave, Viola Aldridge, Ethel Humphreys, Beulah Thompson, Georgianna Husong, Jean Jennings. Mrs. Neff played the cello, accompanied by Mrs. H. B. Worden. Dr. Carlows gave several selections on the guitar. Mrs. George B. Young read a poem, written by her cousin, who lives in Atlanta, Georgia. Lucille Cave sang two selections and Mrs. Gertrude Neff sang two numbers with guitar accompaniment. A. B. Mead sang "The Old Country Chapel," accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Eaton.

Out of town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norman of San Francisco.

December Meeting of Mission Group Held

The December program and social meeting of the South Methodist Women's Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. M. S. Cobb Tuesday afternoon.

The lesson was on "Character Building in Hiroshima Schools for Girls." This is one of the outstanding schools in Japan. The lesson dealt chiefly with the character of its three principals. Miss Gaines, principal for 40 years and beloved by all; Rev. S. A. Stewart, a man of sterling worth who followed her and the present principal, Rev. Hirohara, a Japanese, all of whom have had a great influence in molding the character of the hundreds of girls who have received educational and religious training at their hands.

The Woman's Board of Missions feels very fortunate in having such a man as Rev. Hirohara in charge of this great school.

After the program which closed with prayers by Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Prentice the Christmas tree committee took charge and gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Cobb served refreshments assisted by Mrs. Walter Cobb and Mrs. Petty.

Carols Sung By Epworth League

One of the loveliest contributions to the observance of Christmas here was the singing of carols Friday night by members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

The members met at the church Friday afternoon to make wreaths, then enjoyed supper, and started on their caroling tour, hanging wreaths on the doors before which they sang.

Presbyterian Young People to Carol

The young people of the Phoenix Presbyterian church are planning to go caroling Christmas eve. If you wish them to sing at your home, please place a candle in the window.

Wednesday Club Has Yule Party

The Wednesday Study club celebrated the Yuletide season last week by entertaining guests at the final meeting of the year, at which a very delightful play, "Christmas Eve at the Poor House," was presented after the short business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Hording, the vice-president, in Mrs. Cochran's absence.

The play, arranged by Mrs. A. J. Hanby and Mrs. James, was filled with human interest. Mesdames West, Humphrey and Miles, who portrayed the inmates of the home, showed fine ability in playing their parts. Mrs. Hanby, as matron, and Mrs. Meeker, as visitor, also put much into their interpretation of the situation. Mrs. Morris, as the long-lost granddaughter, brought the play to its climax and Mrs. James at the piano added the delightful background of music.

Mrs. Warnock sang "God Bless This Home" and "The First Noel" as an interlude in the play, and later sang "Angels We Have Heard on High" and an old Spanish Christmas song.

gram tea was served from a delightful team served from a delightfully appointed table where crystal, silver and holly formed the centerpiece. Mrs. F. K. Deuel presided at the tea table.

Guests for the occasion were: Mrs. Glen Fabrick, Mrs. Ralph Sweetney, Mrs. G. Q. D'Almit, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Jane Smedcor, Mrs. Harry Practice, Mrs. R. R. Johnson, Mrs. Harris James, Glen Taylor, Mrs. W. E. Tunny, Mrs. Harold Grey, Mrs. A. W. Pipes and Mrs. Clyde Gilbert.
