

Tiger Cagers Face All-Star Alumni Quint Tonight and Saturday

GAMES WILL GIVE BURGERHITES GOOD START ON SEASON

Tonight's Preliminary Slated for 7 o'Clock — Old Favorites Among All-Star Five—Tigers Get Trout

WHO: MEDFORD HIGH VS. ALUMNI ALL-STARS.
WHERE: MEDFORD HIGH GYM ON SOUTH OAKDALE AVE.
WHEN: FRIDAY NIGHT AT 7 P. M. PRELIMS AT 9 P. M. SATURDAY NIGHT AT 9 P. M. PHIELMS AT 8 P. M.

Coach Darwin Burger's Tiger quintet will face some of the strongest opposition of the coming season when they meet an all-star aggregation at the high school gym tonight at 7 o'clock, following a preliminary game billed to start at 9 o'clock and Saturday evening at 9 o'clock after a curtain raiser set for 8.

Presence in Medford of a number of former high school basketball luminaries, some of them home from college during the holidays, gave Burger the idea of providing some real practice for his charges and he has prevailed upon enough of the alumni to form a team for the two nights of play.

Numbered among the all-stars are Oliver (Ode) Hines, Ed Lindley, Wilson White, Conway Latham, Red Scheel, Bill Knips and Lloyd Ham-mack.

The Tigers' first conference clash of the season will see the Grants Pass quintet invading the local floor with a strong bid for recognition. Burger is anxious to make a clean sweep in this season's cage conference and expects tonight's and Saturday night's games to put his boys in fine fettle.

Burger announced that the starting lineup would be Wayne Harris at center, either Tommy White, Hoke Curtis, Harold Grove or Bill Luman at forward; Russell Brown, Stan Kunzman, Don Stewart or Max Gillinsky at guards.

PENDLETON CAGEMEN ARE DEFEATED AGAIN

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 29.—(AP)—The Pendleton high Buckrooks suffered their second Portland defeat last night, Roosevelt's Teddies being the victors, 32 to 27. Commerce defeated the visitors Wednesday, 28 to 18.

Applegate

APPLEGATE, Dec. 29.—(Sp.)—Mrs. Cora Crump of Eugene spent Christmas vacation here visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crump, and other relatives at Medford.

Little Applegate Sewing club met with Mrs. Frank Cameron Wednesday to enjoy the Christmas tree decorated by the hostess and to receive their Christmas gifts presented by Mrs. Santa Claus.

Mrs. Edna Finsel and son, Marvin Wicks, of Medford, spent Sunday visiting on Yale creek.

Mrs. R. S. Burchard returned to her home on Yale creek Saturday after spending some time visiting friends at Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Straube entertained Christmas day for Mrs. Straube's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McMullen, of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Port and family spent Christmas day visiting relatives at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mee motored to Grants Pass and spent Christmas at Mr. and Mrs. Art Hooper's.

Among Applegate young folks attending school elsewhere who spent Christmas with home folks are: Lee Port Jr. and Lewis Buckley of Corvallis, Lois Straube of Glendale, Bertiea Kinross of Ashland Normal and Leah McKee, who attends high school at Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall of Jacksonville spent last Sunday visiting with friends on Applegate.

Applegate patrons of the Grants Pass creamery received word that the truck will pick up their cream only once a week (Saturday) now during the cooler months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dickey moved to the Applegate this week from Reeds Creek. They will occupy the old Burton house on Star Gulch. Mr. Dickey is the forest service construction foreman and he will continue his work here.

Class "B" Basketball Tournaments to Start in 1935

TENTATIVE LINEUPS FOR SHRINE GAME GIVEN OUT

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—(AP)—A western team with a "powerhouse" backfield and a fast-charging line, pitted against an eastern eleven with a heavy line and a speedy, versatile backfield, appeared today as the probable setup for Monday's all-star charity football contest here.

Coaches of the rival aggregations declined to be quoted definitely and stressed the possibility of last minute changes, but they admitted favoring the following lineups:

East	Position	West
Robinson, Minnesota	LE	Smith, Washington
Schammel, Iowa	LT	Schwammel, Oregon State
Coppitt, Princeton	LG	Cuppoldt, Oregon
Barnard, Michigan	C	Hughes, Oregon
Gallus, Ohio State	RG	Stevens, Southern California
Walton, Pittsburgh	RT	Feld, Oregon State
Skladany, Pittsburgh	RE	Fred Caninus, St. Mary's
Sebastian, Pittsburgh	QB	Sorboe, Washington State
Everhardus, Michigan	LH	Sauer, Nebraska
Laws, Iowa	RH	Norby, Idaho
Lukata, Notre Dame	FB	Mikulak, Oregon

ROOSEVELT VOICES STERN REBUKE TO PEACE PACT FOES

Absence of Beattie Feathers, stellar Tennessee halfback, from the eastern eleven, which held the interest in yesterday's long offensive drill at Stanford university, caused comment among observers who had expected him to be the main cog in the eastern attack.

The eastern team above listed averages 198 pounds in the line and 178 pounds in backfield. The western line packs an average of 194 pounds and the backfield 184. In the western ball-carrying quartet are three men—Sauer, Norby and Mikulak—who played fullback a good part of their college careers.

Geneva split," said a German foreign office spokesman. Germany withdrew from Geneva on the grounds that France and her supporters blocked Germany's disarmament demands which called for German equality with other nations.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's three-point program for peace, enunciated last night in Washington, provided page-wide headlines for afternoon papers here.

The Evening Standard, independent, one of the newspapers which commented most fully said, "The new peace plan enunciated by President Roosevelt provokes the reflection that his political realism, admirable as it is in its operation at home, does not extend beyond the borders of his own country."

Leaders at Fault "The danger to world peace," he said, "lies not in the world population but in the political leaders of the population."

The president outlined again his plan under which he would have every nation agree to eliminate over a period of years, by progressive steps, all offensive weapons; at the same time joining in a universal declaration that no nation would allow its armed forces to cross its own borders.

"It is clear, of course," he said, "that no such general agreement for the elimination of aggression and of the weapons of offensive warfare would be of any value to the world unless every nation, without exception, entered into the agreement by solemn obligation."

Balky Nations On Spot "If then such an agreement was signed by a great majority of the United States and throughout the world would subscribe to such a fundamental objective."

Will Be Defeated "The political leaders of many of these peoples interpose and will interpose argument, excuse, beguiling amendment—yes, and even ridicule," he added, "but I tell them that the men and women they serve are so far in advance of that type of leadership that we could get a world accord on peace immediately if the people of the world spoke for themselves."

In praising the work and ideals of Woodrow Wilson, under whom he first came into national politics as assistant secretary of the navy during the war, Mr. Roosevelt said it was but an extension of the former president's "challenge" that the present generation proposes that "war by governments shall be changed to peace by peoples."

Secretary Hull lauded the chief executive spoke briefly on this country's Latin-American policy, declaring that much credit for the "fine" success of the Montevideo conference belonged to Secretary Hull. That meeting, he said, left a better feeling among American nations than at any time within a generation.

Asserting American opposition to armed intervention, he made no mention of Cuba. Should the orderly process of any government fail, he said, it should become the concern not of any one country in particular, but of all the neighboring countries on that continent.

(By the Associated Press.) President Roosevelt's proposals for a new international peace movement were received today by France and Germany, who hold opposite views on how international peace may be maintained, as direct support of their respective attitudes.

France thanked Mr. Roosevelt officially for his stand, believing he had given his wholehearted support to her Franco-German and League of Nations policies.

In Berlin, on the other hand, German officials declared they were equally certain Mr. Roosevelt was serving the question of disarmament as a purely European affair. "Roosevelt's thoughts . . . show present day America is far from the ill-famed

Schools With 150 Students or Less Included in New State Class — Eligibility Rules Are Tightened

PORTLAND, Dec. 29.—(AP)—The smaller high schools of Oregon will no longer appear at a disadvantage in the annual state high school basketball championship by reason of being overshadowed by the larger and more powerful opponents.

Beginning in 1935, there will be held in Oregon a championship tournament for class B schools—those with a total registration of 150 students or less, as well as the class A tournament in which the larger schools will participate.

This decision was reached here Thursday at a meeting of the board of control of the High School Athletic Association. There will be no class B tournament this season, as amendments to the athletic association constitution are not entered until September 1 of the year following their adoption.

The amendment providing for two distinct high school basketball tournaments was submitted by Father P. P. Leipzig of St. Mary's high school of Eugene.

Eligibility Tightened. An amendment to the eligibility rules also was adopted at the Thursday meeting. It provides that "Students who receive compensation for their athletic or other activity under discipline in the school, or whose character or conduct is such as to reflect discredit upon the school, are not eligible. This shall not prohibit students from participating in summer sports, with individuals, any of whom are classed as professional, or wrestling or boxing matches at any time during the year if they receive no compensation."

Gary Re-elected. The board unanimously re-elected John L. Gary, secretary of the association and of the board of control. The board includes Gary, Paul T. Jackson of Klamath Falls, and Austin Landreth of Pendleton.

An advisory board of three members from class B schools will assist in developing the new tournament. It is planned to invite eight teams, division winners, to this meeting.

Roy S. Keene, coach at Willamette university, which has been host to the annual basketball tournament since its inception, again extended an invitation for this year's tournament. The board made no announcement of its decision on the invitation.

Insurance Planned. The board of control adopted four suggestions advanced by Gary. These included: "Work out a plan for athletic insurance by taking the matter up with some reliable insurance company to insure the athletes from injury."

"Have all coaches look over the National Federation rule book and decide whether they would care to use them."

"Organize a plan for the training of officials and register them with the state association."

"Try out a class B championship tournament, limiting the number of entries until it is found to pay expenses of operation."

Eagles To Give New Years Ball To Benefit Poor

The big double-header dance to be given in the Oriental Gardens New Year's night by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, marks another step in the program the order is making in putting on benefit work for the needy of Medford and Jackson county.

There will be jazz music furnished by Dynges's Red Coats, and also old-time music furnished in another hall for the benefit of those who desire to jig to the tunes of yore.

According to J. A. Hyde, chairman of the dance committee, the advance sale of tickets indicates there will be one of the largest crowd attendances the hall has ever held.

This dance is being given strictly for the benefit of the needy, one ticket being good for both the dances, with no tax charged.

Dance at Lake Creek Grange hall Saturday night. Butte Falls orchestra.

WRESTLING CARD PROMISED HERE FOR JANUARY 10

Return of wrestling is promised Medford fans with announcement yesterday by Promoter Mack Lillard that he is now negotiating with a number of high-class exponents of the grunt and grimace art for a show here on January 10.

The popular promoter plans to open the new year's grappling schedule with a bang-up card which will leave the cash customers anxious for more. While not yet ready to announce a definite lineup, Lillard says he expects to bring in some of the best men now on the coast. Incidentally, there is now available a much wider selection of talent in the muscle manning ranks, due to the return to the northwest of several of the top-notchers who have been on barnstorming junkets in the east, middle-west and south.

Lillard has been enjoying great success with his shows in Klamath Falls, being forced to turn customers away nearly every week. If the proposed new armory is built in Klamath, the promoter expects to entertain crowds nearly as large as now turn out in Portland.

NINE COUNTIES TARDY IN PAYMENT OF TAXES

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 29.—(AP)—Nine counties have yet to complete payment of second half 1935 state taxes, Treasurer Rufus C. Holman announced today.

Benton county completed its payment with a $21,855.80 remittance. Crook, Curry, Deschutes, Grant, Jefferson, Polk, Sherman, Umatilla and Wheeler counties still owe $38179.

Webfoot Quintet Bows To Oil Men

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 29.—(AP)—After leading at half time, the University of Oregon Webfoots went down to a 30-to-27 defeat at the hands of the Union Oil quintet of Portland in their basketball game here last night.

The score was tied twice in each half and the lead switched back and forth eight times.

GRIDIRON COACHES WILL FIGHT BACK IF JOBS MENACED

Association Adopts Plans for Making Positions More Secure — Unfair Firing Will Be Probed, Printed

By WILLIAM WEEKES. (Associated Press Sports Writer) CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Armed with plans and advice for protecting their jobs, members of the American Football Coaches' association headed for the scenes of all-star games or winter quarters today.

The plan for fighting back at criticism characterized as unfair, which has cost many coaches their jobs, was suggested by D. O. (Tuce) McLaughry of Brown university, chairman of the committee on ways and means of making the association more beneficial to the members. The advice on how to make the coach's position more secure, was dispensed by H. J. Stegeman, athletic director at the University of Georgia.

Probe Unfair Firing. McLaughry suggested that a committee be appointed by the president of the association to investigate any charges of unfair dismissal and to give the cases nation wide publicity. The committee will be named by Dana X. Bible of the University of Nebraska, who succeeds Daniel E. McGugin of Vanderbilt as president.

Stegeman gave six reasons why capable coaches fail to hang on to their jobs. He pointed out that 91 coaches have moved in and out of two southern conferences with a total membership of 23 colleges and universities since 1922.

Hugo Bezdek, director of physical education and athletics at Pennsylvania State college, declared that simplicity is needed to keep football in its present position in the colleges and universities.

Must Be Kept Simple. He pointed out that many other extra curricular activities are growing in importance, and that football must not be made more complicated. If the student, with less time, is to continue to be interested in the game.

Bible also appointed a committee composed of Noble Kizer of Purdue, Lou Little of Columbia, O. E. Hollingsworth of Washington State college and W. A. Alexander of Georgia Tech, to sit with the rules committee at New York in February. The coaches will present suggestions for changes in the rules, to the committee.
