

WOMEN BATTLE OCEAN STORM

Three women, who, with eight men were aboard the yacht Sinaloa, on a co-operative sea cruise when it lost its rudder en route from Honolulu to San Francisco, helped man the pumps to keep the vessel afloat until it was picked up by a coast guard cutter off San Francisco. They were (left to right) Dorothy Chilen, Long Beach, Cal.; Mrs. Ada Wynn, Honolulu, and Hazel Pardue of Long Beach. (Associated Press Photo)

CROWD VIEWS LYNCH VICTIM'S CHARRED BODY; GUARDS MAN TANKS

Tanks manned by Missouri national guardsmen, ordered out by Gov. Guy B. Park, failed to stop a mob of 7000 at St. Joseph, Mo., which pulled the doors from the county jail and seized and hanged Lloyed Warner, 19-year-old negro accused of criminally attacking a white girl. Left: one of the tanks alongside the jail entrance. Right: part of the crowd of 7000 persons in the mob after Warner's body was drenched in gasoline and burned. He was hanged from the tree shown in the center. (Associated Press Photos)

WYNEKOOP AS LOTHARIO AT FAIR

Earle Wynkoop, widower of Mrs. Rheta Wynkoop victim in the Chicago operating room slaying, is pictured when he was known as "Skyride Mike" at the world's fair last summer. With him is Mary Gerken, who explained she was not a sweetheart of Wynkoop, whose "datebook" included names of 50 young women. (Associated Press Photo)

SNOW AND ICE BRING NEW BEAUTIES TO NIAGARA

The scenes have changed at Niagara, famous honeymoon resort. Old man winter came down from the north to decorate the cataract with fantastic shapes in snow and ice. Here's a view of frosty beauty from "suicide point." (Associated Press Photo)

DIRECTOR PICKS BEAUTIES FOR "SCANDALS" FILM

Here's George White, musical comedy impresario, and a piano-ful of beauties he selected to decorate the first of five annual editions of "Scandals" for a Hollywood motion picture studio. His first day's work involved picking 75 girls for the film edition of his Broadway show, but it appears he likes his work. (Associated Press Photo)

HOW SENATOR AVOIDED A CROWD

Senator Tom Connally of Texas, chairman of the committee investigating the election of Senator John H. Overton in Louisiana, is shown crawling through a window from the fire escapes into the women's washroom in order to get in to the committee hearing room in New Orleans. A huge crowd had blocked the front entrance to the building. (Associated Press Photo)

A REAL LONG DISTANCE WEDDING

This may not look like it, but it's a wedding ceremony—at least one-half of one. Bertil Glason, in Detroit, Mich., wed Sigrid Carlson in Stockholm, Sweden, by transatlantic telephone with all principals in the ceremony connected on the line by ear phones. The bridegroom, an engineer, is seated at the mouthpiece. Standing in his brother, Ragnar Glason, and at right is John D. Watts, who officiated. (Associated Press Photo)

Rejects NRA Code

Walter S. Gifford (above), president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, in a letter to Hugh S. Johnson, said his concern did not want to come under the NRA code because it is non-competitive in character. Johnson said he would impose a code containing labor provisions if necessary. A HALE WINE TRAIN WELL MET

The first trainload of wine to cross the country in 14 years rolled out of the west and these beauties were on hand to meet it when it reached New York. They were rewarded with tasty sample from the train's cargo. (Associated Press Photo)

WOULD VOID DAUGHTER'S ADOPTION

Victor Kosow (left), salesman-father of Sylvia Sidney, has brought suit in New York to determine the legal status of the diminutive film star. Kosow, shown with his attorney, Jacob Gelfand, seeks to have Miss Sidney's adoption by Dr. Sigmund Sidney set aside on the grounds he was not notified. Dr. Sidney married the former Mrs. Kosow several years after her divorce and adopted Sylvia. (Associated Press Photo)

INDIANS HONOR SAINT IN PAGEANT

WORLD'S SMALLEST BARBER SHOP

Ferd Werner's barber shop at the Grand Coulee dam site in eastern Washington is so tiny he has to step outside to strop the razor. It's a "close shave" no matter how you figure it. He was one of the first settlers in the new town where the huge Grand Coulee dam will be constructed. (Associated Press Photo)
