Much Entertaining Here To Welcome New Year's Arrival

Society will join Old Father Time tonight in ringing out the old, and ringing in the new. And as the bells in country and city churches announce the glad tidings of 1934's arrival, whistles and horns will join in the chorus.

Open house will be in order today and a number of dinner parties. Gay festivities, however, have been reserved for the midnight hour, due to the fact that it is the Sabbath.

The largest affair will be the Elks' annual party at the temple and a dinner party at the University club. Entertainment at the Elks' club will begin at 11 o'clock with dancing to follow at midnight.

The Hotel Medford has also arranged for a special dinner party with a musical program by Henri Warner's orchestra and theaters will offer special programs.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. David Rosenberg and Mr. Harry Rosenberg were hosts at open house. Mesdames Porter J. Neff, C. Reese Braley and Gilbert Stuart also held New Year's open house yesterday.

Mrs. Max Pierce and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge will be hostesses New Year's day to many of their friends.

Approximately 80 covers will be laid at the New Year's eve dinner at the University club and the Elks' party will be enjoyed by lodge members and their invited guests.

Miss Frazee Among Younger Hostesses

Miss Lois Frazee entertained a number of friends at luncheon and theatre party Thursday. Those enjoying the pleasant affair of the holiday season were: Misses Jean McPherson, Virginia Riana, Helene Salade, Betty Paske, Bannie Hunt, Betty Ann Thordike, and Bonnie Belle Settlement.

Mrs. Pace Feted At Many Events

Much entertaining of the past week has been inspired by the presence here of Mrs. Henry Pace, formerly of this city, now of Los Angeles.

Entertaining for her pleasure were Mrs. Morris Leonard, Mrs. Tim Dally, Mrs. Roland Smith and Mrs. Edward Leach. The two latter were hostesses Friday afternoon, inviting 13 of Mrs. Pace's intimate friends to bridge.

Mrs. Pace will leave Saturday for the south and will be accompanied by her brother, Harold Gebauer, who will enter the University of Southern California. He has been a student at Golden Gate college in San Francisco.

Geers Leave for Visit in North

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Geer, guests for the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lindley, left Saturday morning for Astoria and other points, where they will visit friends. They make their home in Wenatchee, Wash.

Colony Club Enjoys Dinner and Charades

Members of the Colony club enjoyed their annual holiday party Friday evening at the club, when dinner was followed by the presentation of a number of clever charades.

While the women were attending, a number of husbands also entertained with informal stag parties. Mr. Leonard Carpenter had as guests Shelby Tuttle, H. Van Hoebenber, C. S. Newhall, E. G. Burgess and Robt. W. Ruhl.

Oak Grove Folk Organize Club

A very interesting meeting was held by the ladies of Oak Grove district on Tuesday afternoon at which time a community club was organized. The following officers were elected: Mrs. E. Shores, president; Mrs. Ruth Clark, vice president; Mrs. Hanson, treasurer; Mrs. Elsie Warner, secretary.

The purpose of the club was to arrange for the serving of warm lunches to the school children. A "donation party" given at the same time and for two weeks previous to the holidays the children enjoyed the warm dish served at noon each day. Some measure of importance are to be brought up at the next regular meeting, January 2. All interested should attend and take active part in the discussions. Several entertainment committees are to be appointed and anyone having any suggestions to offer is asked to please be present.

Pleasurites Plan New Year's Party

The Pleasurites, a young people's social group, will meet at the Y. W. C. A. at 7:30, Monday evening, Jan. 1, for a New Year's party. The committee in charge consists of Elmo Newton, Alta Dale and Donald Darnelle.

This group has had several novelty entertainments for the past few meetings. On Monday, Dec. 4, the Pleasurites enjoyed a chicken dinner on board the "Ship of Joy" with Mrs. Della Mann as captain of the crew and toasts were given by Helen Smith, Perry Johnson, Elsie DeVries, and Ralph McGonagle and these were followed by a short talk from the captain, Mrs. Mann. The dinner was presided over by the toastmaster Mickey Pearson. The Berrydale quartet and the girls' quartet sang at this affair.

At the meeting December 18, the evening's entertainment was presented by the committee, composed of Elaine DeVries and Amy Johnson. After a few games were played a short program was enjoyed with musical readings by Mickey Pearson, musical selections by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hansen, and two piano numbers by Margaret Childers. Donald Darnelle gave a short devotional talk, followed by an inspiring talk from Rev. Howard of the Presbyterian church. Refreshments were served by the committee, of which Helen Smith was chairman.

Saying "Happy New Year"

When the above young fellow makes his appearance in local society tonight, he will be given a hearty welcome. For Medford folk will be merry-making when the clock strikes 12. The New Year, always accompanied by a revival of hope for prosperity, and wishes for more happiness for all humanity, will tonight be even more enthusiastically welcomed, for the hope will be justified—and the wishes sincere.

Waffle Supper For Mr. and Mrs. Rice Enjoyed Wednesday

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Rice on South Holly Wednesday evening, when 14 members of the Unity class entertained at waffle supper in their honor. Supper was followed by an entertainment arranged by the women. It included readings by Mrs. Zella Lygum, Mrs. George Bigler, Mrs. H. W. Caine, Mrs. Lucille B. Rowley, which were much enjoyed. Before the guests departed Mrs. J. B. Lusk, on behalf of the class, presented Mrs. Rice with a beautiful sofa pillow.

Those present were: Mrs. H. E. Robinson, Mrs. Zella Lygum, Mrs. Lucille B. Rowley, Mrs. E. P. Brooks, Miss Edythe Brooks, Clifford Foster, Mrs. Peggy Joyce France, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Wilson's Hosts At Christmas Dance

ROGUE RIVER.—One of the merriest of the Christmas affairs was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wilson at their home on Evans creek Christmas night. Dancing was enjoyed by the 86 guests present. Included in the orchestra were three of the Oregon Lumberjacks.

Coming as a surprise was the announcement that the event also commemorated the hosts' 33rd wedding anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were the recipients of hearty congratulations, following which they headed a grand march to the air of "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and "When You and I Were Young Maggie."

At midnight refreshments were served. The home was attractively decorated with Christmas greens. Red and green streamers were draped from the center of the large living room. Silver rain and tinsel completed the Yuletide effect.

Warner-Becker Wedding Will Be New Year's Day

A lovely event of New Year's day in local society will be the wedding of Miss Winifred Warner, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner, to Maxwell Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Becker of Caldwell, Idaho. The service will be read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by Father Wm. B. Hamilton of St. Mark's Episcopal church at the Warner home on South Oakdale.

Fragrant evergreens, emphasized by white tapers, will form the setting for the service, which will be attended by relatives and immediate friends of the bridal couple.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Warner, who is home from Oregon State college for the holidays, and Kenneth Overton of Nampa, Idaho, will be best man for the groom.

"I Love You Truly" will be played as violin solo by Miss Beulah Gore preceding Mendelssohn's wedding march, which will be played by Donald Colvig of Weed, who is Miss Warner's uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker and son and Mr. Overton are arriving in Medford today for the wedding, which will be followed by a small reception at the Warner home tomorrow, after which the bride and groom will leave for Caldwell to make their home. Mr. Becker is in the hardware business there with his father.

Miss Warner, who has been the inspiration of much entertaining here since announcement of her betrothal, is a former student of Oregon State college and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Becker also attended Oregon State college and is affiliated with Sigma Chi, social fraternity.
