

Columbia Coach Promises Stanford Squad "Battle of It's Life"

CARDINAL BRAWN COMPLETES DRILL FOR BOWL BATTLE

Flashy Broadway Squad Confident — Ticket Sale 'Slow But Sure' With 50,000 Crowd Predicted

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Columbia's football team left Arizona today and headed determinedly toward Pasadena where New Year's day matches its speed and brains against Stanford brains and brawn in the annual Rose Bowl classic.

"We're ready" Coach Lou Little said, "and we'll give Tiny Thornhill's team the battle of its life."

This sharp change from the usual little pessimism was a true reflection of the spirit of the squad as it dashed through a last short workout and then took itself away from the old pueblo where a week of serious work had put it into perfect condition to the last man.

"I'll bet Stanford hasn't seen a smarter ball club than this" said Coach Cliff Jones of Louisiana State, after a brief stop here, en route to Pasadena.

NORMAL LOSES TO STATERS, 40-30 IN HECTIC CONTEST

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Oregon State college defeated Southern Oregon Normal school, 40 to 30, in their basketball game here tonight, flashing a speedy offensive after the Teachers had staged a second half rally that brought them within three points of tying the score.

The Staters stepped away to an early lead and were in front, 30 to 7, at half time. Led by Len Yandle, sharpshooting guard, the Teachers came back in the second half to score 12 points in quick succession while the Orange offensive was bogged down.

The Staters began clicking and four quick field goals gave them a margin the Teachers couldn't cut down again.

EASTERN ACES IN RIGOROUS TESTS FOR SHRINE GAME

Soleau to Start at Quarter Against West — Coast Stalwarts Hold Light Practice for New Year's Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Apparently not yet satisfied with their squad's performance, coaches of the East team that will meet the West in the annual charity football game here New Year's day changed plans and instead of a light practice, sent their charges through a rigorous workout today.

The eastern mentors, Dick Hanley of Northwestern and Andy Kerr of Colgate, had indicated the day would be confined to a drill considerably lighter than for the last week. Instead, they toiled with their 22 stars in a session that opened in the morning and lasted well into the afternoon.

The fifteen or so plays that will be run off in the Warner style of gridiron strategy, were given a final check-up while blocking tactics and defensive work came in for considerable attention.

Good resolutions were made to be broken in the contention of Suzanne Kaaren, film player, as she celebrates the arrival of brand new 1934. (Associated Press Photo)
