

JUDGE NORTON TO SEEK RE-ELECTION IS ANNOUNCEMENT

Recovery of Health Aids Decision - Sheriff Walter Ollmscheid Also Expected to Seek Post Again

Circuit Judge H. D. Norton said today he would probably seek re-election at the spring primary and file declaration of intention at the proper time.

Regaining of normal health and cessation of vicious and wanton attacks inspired by agitators Banks and Fehl are believed by friends to have influenced the decision.

Judge Norton has occupied the bench for the past six years and, his many friends maintain, is admirably fitted for the position by temperament, education and experience. Unlike most of the judges of the state, he takes no summer vacation, and attorneys and friends from time to time have protested: "You work too hard." The court, in response, has insisted his labors were necessary to keep the docket from becoming clogged and "besides I enjoy the work."

Hough Mentioned Attorney A. C. Hough of Grants Pass has been mentioned as candidate for the judgeship. Hough is a long-time attorney of Josephine county. He was chief counsel for E. H. Fehl during his trial and conviction of ballot theft, in Klamath county, and represented other ballot theft defendants in the preliminary legal skirmishes.

Under Oregon law judiciary elections are non-partisan. Both Judge Norton and Attorney Hough are Democrats. Judge Norton was a resident of Josephine county at the time of his election, but built a residence in this city five years ago, and makes his permanent home here. Ollmscheid May Run Sheriff Walter J. Ollmscheid is expected to seek election at the regular primary. Sheriff Ollmscheid was appointed to the post when Gordon L. Schermerhorn was ousted by the governor last March for malfeasance. Schermerhorn was later convicted of ballot theft conspiracy and his case is now awaiting an appeal to the supreme court. He has been granted until February 3 to perfect the preliminary details of the step.

Sheriff Ollmscheid's appointment runs until the next election. He conducted the office during the final stages of the turmoil, and restored efficiency to one of the most important county offices. Phil Lowd, a deputy under Schermerhorn and runner-up for the Republican nomination in 1932, is also mentioned as a probable candidate.

Fewer Candidates Political prophets figure that there will not be as many candidates for sheriff as in 1932, when there were 11 aspirants, but guess there will be half a dozen or the entry list is closed April 18-30 days before the primary.

Henry Conger of Jacksonville is mentioned as a candidate for county commissioner. Commissioner R. E. Nealon, who holds the post by appointment, "has not made up his mind yet."

Election of two members of the legislature and a county judge are also scheduled. Representatives Glenn O. Taylor and A. E. Brockway were appointed last November. They will probably be candidates for primary nomination.

Though no definite announcement has been forthcoming, it is expected County Judge E. B. Day will be a candidate. Judge Day's administration of the office since last August has won enthusiastic approval throughout the county.

GRAND JURY CALL POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY, JAN. 15

The session of the grand jury, Thomas N. Bell, Jr., of Talent foreman, scheduled to convene next Monday, was postponed by the court today, until Monday, January 15. The week's postponement was necessary, owing to Circuit Judge H. D. Norton holding court next week in Grants Pass.

A dozen or so matters, some of which have been pending for several months, are slated to be brought to the attention of the grand jury, including two indictments returned to the grand jury by the court, because of technical grounds. One of these was the indictment against C. H. Brown, secretary of the late "Good Government Congress," charged with slandering a bank, and the other against Joe Cave, city policeman, charged with involuntary manslaughter, as the result of the death of Everett Dahack, Eagle Point district resident, during a raid on a Reese Creek still three years ago.

"The Dahack case" became almost a household word during the height of the Banks-Fehl turmoil, and was used as a sure-fire means of agitation by the pair, and much of the civic distress that showered on the county had its birth in the wild allegations and legal actions that followed in its wake.

Other matters include that of Al. Poston of Pinchur, charged with assault with a deadly weapon upon a state trooper. Poston is at liberty on $1500 bond. Two charges involving alleged violation of the state medical laws, and the state mining laws, are also slated for investigation.

Transient Camp at Talent Will House Hundred. Offices have been set up by the transient division of the State Emergency Relief administration to provide necessary care for non-residents within the state, with headquarters at Portland, 209 S. W. Third avenue, and at Klamath Falls, 837 Walnut street. Substations will be at Pendleton, Astoria, Salem, Eugene and Medford.

This program will stabilize transient relief organizations under one head and will greatly facilitate their work.

The relief camp at Talent is being constructed to accommodate 100 men. The men will be given food, clothing and shelter in return for forest work, to be directed by the state board of forestry. The men will build fire trails, forest roads and telephone lines. The first contingent of men is expected from Klamath Falls this week.

G. B. Durham of this city, was named some time ago as manager of the Medford transient depot.

Wild life and game refuges under jurisdiction of the United States Biological Survey now number 102.

Convictions totaling 279 out of 374 cases of violations of the migratory bird treaty act were secured by the government during the last year.
