Grand Ball Planned To Grace Birthday Of President Here

Medford is going to have a grand ball—that's the word being passed around the valley, which threatens to arouse the social spirit from that traditional January lethargy with such a start that the "when, where, why and how" will be on all lips before the committees are named and arrangements made for the affair.

President Roosevelt's birthday, January 30, will be the date. And the ball will be just a unit in the nationwide affair planned to benefit the Warm Springs, Georgia, health resort. Little else is known, but announcements are eagerly awaited for it has been a long time since that certain sort of grandeur has been brought to local society.

More news of the ball is anticipated during the coming week.
