

Oregon State Handed First Conference Defeat by Cougars 26-24

WINNING BASKET SCORED IN FINAL HECTIC SCRAMBLE

OSC Trails, 12 to 4, at Half-Time, Take Four-Point Lead and Lose it in Washington State Rally

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 6.—(AP)—Maintaining its scoring accuracy throughout the entire game, the Washington State Cougars gave the Oregon State college basketball team its first conference defeat of the season, 26 to 24, here tonight. This evened their series with one apiece. Washington State's half-time lead of 12 to 4 was passed by the Beavers at 19 to 18, but McPhee and Johnson connected in time to reverse the advantage.

Late in the final period the Beavers moved ahead when Lenchitsky scored a goal. The Oregon State team took a four-point lead when Yenchitak dropped in another goal and a foul conversation.

Then the Cougars put on a rally of their own. Johnson, Cougar forward, tipped in the winning basket in the last minute of play.

Fresh from an even break with the defending coast conference champions, the Washington State team will meet the dark-horse University of Oregon team at Eugene Monday and Tuesday nights.

Not in the memory of the present home basketball generation has a team guarded the Beavers so successfully as did the Cougars at the first half.

Captain O'Connell broke through repeatedly for scores which spirited the Beavers rally. In the dying minutes of the game Scott let fly from far out on the floor and the score read 24 all.

For more than a minute and a half the teams battled before Johnson won a scramble under the basket by tipping in the winning goal. Washington dominated the tipoff throughout.

Another near-capacity crowd of 3,000 witnessed the game.

SCHMELING SIGNS TO BOX LEVINSKY; BAER BOUT NEXT

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—(AP)—A meeting between Max Schmeling and King Levinsky at the Chicago stadium February 16, was a virtual certainty and the stadium operating company hoped today to line up Max Baer to meet the winner.

Joe Jacobs, manager of the German heavyweight, who will return to the United States to make another drive to recover the world title, agreed to the date by telephoning yesterday. One of Levinsky's several shareholders, did likewise. Jacobs is expected in Chicago Monday to discuss details, such as the financial terms and length of the bout. The stadium has planned on ten rounds, while Schmeling prefers 15, leaving a compromise at 12, likely.

Jack Dempsey, who has a claim to Baer's services, was due in Chicago today on his way to New York, and Joseph Foley, representing the stadium, planned to open negotiations for the Californian to meet Schmeling or Levinsky, as the case may be.

WILD BIRD LIFE SALVAGE STARTED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—A "duck for every puddle" was one of the objectives set by Thomas H. Beck of Collier's Magazine, and J. N. Darling, "Ding", Des Moines cartoonist, in the first meeting today of the new game bird restoration committee, named by Secretary Wallace at the instance of the President.

It will tie in directly with the $25,000,000 project just announced for marginal land reclamation.

Beck and "Ding" agreed they were interested primarily in restoration of the wild ducks, geese, snipes, swan, and upland fowl that the old-timers remember.

"But it's not just a sensational move," said "Ding." "Of great economic import is the restoration of a water level that has been lowered by the drainage of the duck areas."

Medford Scores 37 to 14 Win in Conference Bout

Medford high school defeated Grants Pass, 37 to 14, Friday night in the first game of the Southern Oregon conference, largely through the basket heaving of Russell Brown and the defensive play of Max Gillinsky, ably assisted by the play of Wayne Harris.

Stewart, a second string substitute, showed the best form with his work, and he handled the ball and ambled over the floor like Ward Beane, a star of Dr. Durno's coaching days. The lad was cool as a cucumber.

The Burghermesters showed more form than in the Eureka game, but they still feel the effects of Christmas and steady training. Some of the stars seemed out of breath in the second half.

Brown cast eight baskets, and Harris and Gillinsky six each. Brown went on a scoring spree in the second half. Personal fouls eliminated him before the end of the game.

Sam Van Dyke, a guard, who has been having trouble with his feet, is expected to return to practice this week.

In the preliminary the Lightweights defeated the Heavyweights, 32 to 25.

Picking up where he left off last night in which he scored eight points during Washington's first win of the series, 35 to 29, Bob Galer, a guard, shifted to a forward position tonight and played sensational basketball. He looped in six field goals and five free throws to account for 17 points, more than half his team's total.

The Huskies took the lead at the start, 4 to 0, but Idaho shortly tied it up and then went ahead, 6 to 4. Galer then sent the Huskies into the lead with a free throw and a field

Along about this time of the year, towels also have their plan of moving from bargain counters to thrifty closets. Linens, handkerchiefs and blankets also beckon the eye and prices soothe the pocketbook. January is a glorious month for bargains!
