N. S. Bennett, well-known local nurseryman, was today passing around apples to his many friends, in celebration of his 44th aniversary in southern Oregon. The Bennetts came here 44 years ago yesterday, January 7, and resided west of Phoenix until 1908, when they moved to Medford.

"The streets were full of mud, slush and snow," Mr. Bennett said this morning, "and believe it o rnot, there weren't any automobiles in the street."
