

WEBFOOT CAGERS TRIM WSC 30-27 IN OPENING TILT

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 9.—(AP)—University of Oregon's basketball team proved a horse of the right color in winning its opening conference game, 30 to 27, from Washington State college here last night.

If it should repeat when the two teams meet here tonight, Oregon could boast as many conference victories as it won all last season.

The Oregon five, which included sophomore Bill and Willie Jones from Ashland Normal, had a five-point lead before the dazed Cougars countered.

An eight-point rally requiring less than two minutes, brought Washington State a 19 to 18 lead in the second half. Robertson's goal put Oregon ahead again, but McPhee returned the lead to the northern five.

Oregon maintained the lead after Bud Jones took the ball from Scott in mid-floor, dodged guardwork on a dizzy dribble, and scored. With smooth, deft passes the Webfoots monopolized possession of the ball and prevented any further Cougar rallies.

McPhee of Washington State and Robertson of Oregon divided scoring honors with 10 points each.

MCDONALD SMITH WINS LOS ANGELES OPEN GOLF CROWN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—(AP)—MacDonald Smith, a great golfer before some of his present day competitors were born, had the 1934 Los Angeles open championship added to his credit today as evidence that at nearly forty-four years he still stands high among the game's leaders.

The son of Old Carnoustie kept pace with par and outdistanced youth yesterday by shooting a 280 on the rugged Los Angeles Country club course to defeat an impressive field by a convincing margin.

It was Smith's fourth Los Angeles open title in the nine years history of the tournament. Coming twenty-four years after he tied for the national open championship, victory brought him $1450 in prize money.

His victory margin remained to be learned today for two rivals, George Von Elm and Willie Hunter, were halted by darkness at the seventeenth hole yesterday. Von Elm, should he shoot par on the last two holes this morning, could lift himself into second place with a 287, seven strokes over par. Hunter had a potential 288 and a tie for third coming up.

Smith came through with two sparkling sub-par rounds yesterday as young and old alike cracked and went to pieces around him.

FAST TIME MADE BY FAIR AUTOIST

Mrs. Francis Warrington, niece of C. A. Marshall of Front street, lays claim to a record for feminine autoists. She left Pasadena, Calif., December 21 and arrived in Medford at 9:30 p. m., December 22. She left for Portland December 23 at 9 a. m., arriving there at 7:00 p. m., visited Portland and vicinity until 9 a. m., December 29 and arrived in Medford at 6 p. m. Leaving here December 30 at 8:30 a. m., she arrived in Pasadena at 1:30 and went to work at 7 a. m. January 1.

Mrs. Warrington, who was alone in her Chevrolet coupe, encountered heavy snow in the Sierras, rain and floods in Portland, rain in California, traveled over roads that were washed out and closed in two hours after she had passed.

DOWNTOWN COACHES ARE HELP FOR OHIO

ATHENS, O.—(UP)—"The downtown coach," demise of many an athletic tutor, is not a bugaboo to the Ohio university coaching staff here.

Head Coach Don Peden told Athens Kivansians recently that all local downtown coaches are "unselfish and helpful." Grouping downtown coaches, generally into the three classes, enthusiastic ones with unbounded emotions, the "anti" group and the hard-losing gamblers, he declared that none of the last division existed in Athens.

Warner Gets Nod.

PENDLETON, Ore., Jan. 9.—(AP)—K. O. Warner, 156 pounds, Pendleton, won a six-round decision over Tommy Rock, 158, Walla Walla, in the main event of a Veterans of Foreign Wars boxing card here last night.

KIPKE GOING TO YALE IS RUMOR

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Reports increased on all sides that Harry Kipke and his men of Michigan will be brought in to take over the task of leading Yale university's football forces.

"Kipke," the Journal-Courier said today, "will come to Yale along with his chief aides, Jack Blott, Franklin Cappon and Wally Weber."

LUCINDA PECK, 72, TO LAST REWARD

Lucinda Peck passed away at a local hospital Monday afternoon after a brief illness from bronchial pneumonia. She was born in Colorado, January 16, 1861. Her husband, Horace Peck, passed away in July, 1931. Mrs. Peck had been a resident of Medford for the past 27 years. She was a member of the South Methodist church.

She leaves three sons and one daughter, William Peck, Leroy Peck, Horace P. Peck and Mrs. Della Burns, all of Medford; seven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and two brothers, Willis Watson of Medford and Jake Watson, Chico, Cal.

Funeral services will be held at the Perl Funeral Home, Wednesday at 2 p. m. Rev. N. D. Wood officiating. Interment in Medford I. O. O. F. cemetery.

out the charges. I hope I do not have to do this, but if I do, we will let Mrs. Vallee's own voice speak for itself and her letters also."

The dark-haired actress, who returned to her home in suburban Santa Monica some weeks ago in an effort to regain her health, accused Vallee of indiscretions with three women, but named only one, Alice Faye, actress and member of his troupe. The others were designated as Jane Does.

Mrs. Vallee alleged that the singer's association with Miss Faye dated from January, 1933, and became so prominent that the New York press referred to it. She said she confronted her husband and he and his New York attorney both told her the charges were untrue. She said she believed them.

Shortly afterward, she came to California and Vallee, taking his orchestra and Miss Faye, went to Miami, Fla., where she claimed he engaged in "open and notorious" association with the blonde film player.

Miss Faye, whom the singer's wife says he intends to marry, labelled the charges mentioning her as "ridiculous." She came here to appear in the Vallee picture.

Joan Crawford Star Brilliant Holly Hit

"Dancing Lady," now at the Holly, is bound to skyrocket Joan Crawford and Clark Gable to new heights. Their success together in "Possessed" will seem insignificant compared to their triumph in their latest effort.

Here is a picture with genuine spectacle and splendor. "Dancing Lady" is not just another picture. It is one of the screen's crowning achievements in the production of elaborate musical extravaganzas.

First you have one of the finest casts ever assembled—Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Franchot Tone, May Robson, Winnie Lightner, Fred Astaire, Robert Benchley, Ted Healy and his stooges.

Get Up Nights?

Drink lots of water and milk. Not much tea or coffee. Eat plenty of fruit and non-starchy vegetables. Not much meat or starches. Use a laxative to drive out the impurities and excess acids which cause the irritation that wakes you up. Take Juniper oil, buchu leaves, etc., called BU-KETS (5 gr. tablets) the bladder laxative. 25c at all druggists. Works on bladder similar to castor oil on bowels. After four days is not satisfied, get back and get your money. If you are bothered, frequent dears, burning, getting up nights, you are bound to feel better after this cleaning. Heath's Drug Store and Jarmin Drug Store say BU-KETS is a best seller.
