

Local and Personal

Mr. Houston Ill—C. M. Houston, superintendent of mails at the Medford postoffice, went home ill this morning.

To Medford—Mrs. G. Bailey and Miss Marie Ditto were in Medford Tuesday attending to business matters.—Grants Pass Courier.

Side Camp Established—A side camp is being established at the Elk Creek CCC camp at Trail, for telephone reconstruction work, the forest service reported today.

In Grants Pass Monday—M. T. Bradley and Glen L. Jackson of the Copco offices in Medford were business visitors in Grants Pass Monday.—Grants Pass Courier.

Bicycles Stolen—John Dickinson of 1010 Court street and Dwight Albright of route two were minus their bicycles this morning, according to reports of theft filed with city police.

Medicine Cases Stolen—Dr. Chas. T. Sweeney announced to city police today the theft of two leather medicine cases from his car last night. The car was parked on West Main street.

Lutherans to Meet—The Zion Lutheran church will hold its annual congregational meeting on Thursday evening at 7:45. This will be followed by a social fellowship program and refreshments.

Little Rain Here—Medford was visited by a little rain yesterday, the weather report showing a precipitation of .03 inch before 5 p. m. There was also a trace of rain between that hour and 5 a. m. today.

Building Permit—The first building permit for 1934 was issued by the city today and it was for a small sum. It went to W. E. Thomas of 225 West Main street for replacement of a floor at the cost of $12.

Goold Goes North—Harry Goold has accepted a position with the Stuart Construction company near Roseburg. He is accompanied by friends here today. He is in charge of gravel production at Bradford camp.

Dog Straying—Mrs. Mary Wilson reported to city police this morning that her dog had been stolen or had strayed from its home. It is small, brown, and short-haired, and has a collar bearing a 1934 license.

State Officer Here—Roy Lassen of the state cattle inspection service is in Medford today from the north, and will remain in this territory for several weeks, making the state police offices in the city his headquarters.

Boxers to Meet—Saturday evening the annual boxing contest will be staged by the postoffice and the park service teams. The laurels in the last combat went to the park service crew and the postoffice workers are preparing to regain their title this year, according to talk in the corridors.

Reserve Officers—There will be a meeting of Reserve Officers at the Armory tonight at 7:30 o'clock with Army Extension school sessions as the subject. Major James H. Tierney will be the instructor for the evening. All officers are asked to bring their lessons or questions to the class for discussion.

Leave for Army—Max Rae, son of Mrs. Golda Huggins, is leaving tonight by train for San Francisco, from which city he will sail February 6 for Honolulu to spend three years in the motor artillery of the United States army. Other local youths leaving to sail with the army on the same date are Seely Johnson, Robert Eison and Carl Slough.

Licensed to Wed—Two couples, one from Roseburg and the other from Talent, were issued marriage permits at the county clerk's office here Monday. The couples were Alex Wilkerson, 23, and Mildred Earlene Pargason, 18, both of Roseburg, and Edward Lawrence Joanta, 23, and Alice Virginia Gleim, 18, of Talent.—Grants Pass Courier.

Camera Club to Meet—Members of the Medford Camera club, in the January meeting to be held in the Y. W. C. A. building tomorrow evening, will discuss composition and lighting as related to landscape pictures. Portraiture in the home, with the hand camera, using the newer lights, is the second topic of interest to camera users. This is an open meeting and all interested in photography are welcome.

Mrs. Young Ill—Friends of Mrs. George B. Young will be sorry to learn that she has been seriously ill this week at her home. Mr. Young, who has been visiting his sons in the south, will arrive here very soon and Mrs. Young's son, Dick J. Short, was called from San Francisco the first of the week. He made the trip here in 10 hours and 35 minutes, traveling 430 miles in that time. Mr. Young's return was delayed by flood conditions in the south.

Home Destroyed—Mrs. F. H. Conner, sister of Mrs. Grace Andrews of this city, was among those whose homes were ruined in the flood conditions in La Graciosa and other southern California cities. Mrs. Conner, who will be remembered by many Ashland people, was not living in the house at the time, but had it rented. The renters escaped, though four feet of water and mud went through the house and nine near neighbors lost their lives. Mr. and Mrs. Conner are living temporarily at Pasadena.—Ashland Tidings.

Palmer at Lake—Martin Palmer, master mechanic of the Crater Lake national park service, left this morning for Crater Lake, where he planned to spend several days.

Miss Currier Improved—Miss Georgia Currier, teacher in the Antelope school, who has been receiving medical attention at the Sacred Heart hospital for the past week, was reported in an improved condition today.

In Double Bill

On the Craterian Theatre's double feature program opening tomorrow, Ruth Chatterton is shown as the big business executive with an unusual after-business hours complex in "Female Role."

On the other half of the program, Paul Muni returns to the screen in "The World Changes," covering a span of 75 years in the history and development of America. Beginning as Dakota pioneers, the Nordholms rise to power through the courage, the foresight and faith of Orin Nordholm, proud descendant of pioneer stock. During danger and sweeping all obstacles from his path, Orin wins success after success in the midst of business world. The younger generation of his family disappoints him. His wife becomes a social climber. His son acorns his father's business as beneath him and turns to Wall Street.

Muni plays the role of Nordholm with Aline MacMahon, Mary Astor, Donald Cook, Guy Kibbee, Patricia Ellis, Margaret Lindsay and a score of others in featured roles.

Spencer Tracy in Strong Rialto Hit

"The Mad Game" one of the most sensational revelations that has ever come to the screen is now appearing at the Rialto. Spencer Tracy has the featured role and he is supported by a splendid cast that is headed by Claire Trevor and Ralph Morgan. It is a story of heartaches torn from screaming front-page headlines, and seared into the consciousness of a nation. It is the showdown on the latest menace—the racket of kidnaping.

In addition to Spencer Tracy, Claire Trevor and Ralph Morgan, the cast includes: Melville Blower in our lobby.

Craterian To Show Eddie Cantor Show

Eddie Cantor sings three lively new songs hits in his inimitable fashion in "Roman Scandals," the comedian's fourth annual screen musical extravaganza coming Sunday to the Craterian theater.

The numbers are "Keep Young and Beautiful," "Build a Little Home" and "Tax On Love." The first two were written by Al Dubin and Harry Warren, while on the last Warren collaborated with L. Wolfe Gilbert.

"No More Love," the plaintive ballad crowned by Ruth Etting of radio and Ziegfeld Follies fame in the spectacular Slave Market sequence was also written by the Dubin and Warren team.

Gloria Stuart, David Manners, Edward Arnold and Verne Teasdale are featured with Ruth in Eddie's support. Busby Berkeley created and directed the dance and production numbers.

Elaborate Revue On Holly Screen

Settings that cover a range of some 75 different scenes of action represent a sweeping panoramic background in "Dancing Lady," the new musical production, which is now at the Holly theater with Joan Crawford and Clark Gable co-stars.

Included in the settings are a burlesque theater, streets, follies stage, penthouse, Bavarian beer garden, Colonial summer home, boarding house, toy shops, speakeasies, ballrooms, dressing rooms, railroad station, boulevards, merry-go-round of gigantic proportions, skyscrapers, bicycle tracks, swimming pool and a night court.

STUDIO SHOWING DOUBLE FEATURES

Richard Dix is a ladies' heart-breaker and business men's back-breaker in "No Marriage Ties," now at the Studio theater. The pushing westward of America's frontiers by means of the telegraph, whose "slugging wires" the Indians regard with fear and hatred as a new "medicine" of the whites, forms the theme of "The Telegraph Trail," starring John Wayne, the second feature on the studio program.
