

MANY CANDIDATES IN PROSPECTS FOR SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Political bees have started to buzz in Jackson county bonnets, to date quite soft and low, but gaining volume each day. Up to now potential candidates have shown bashfulness about voicing their intentions.

It now looks like the sheriff's office would again be a magnet and lead in the production of aspirants. Amos W. Walker is reported by friends to have an eye on the job. Walker, a long-time resident of the city and valley, enacted a minor role in the late turmoil. He was named a deputy sheriff by Gordon L. Schermerhorn, when he assumed the office a year ago. Then Walker was named probation officer by Earl H. Fehl. The county court balked at paying his salary, and he quit, but he was re-appointed by Fehl, and was in and out of the berth until mid-winter. Recently, Walker has been managing the Ivy Street market. Walker said today: "I am thinking of it, but have not made up my mind for sure."

Phil Lound, who lost the Republican nomination two years ago to Everett Beeson of Talent, by six votes, and who was named a deputy by Schermerhorn, is also mentioned as a possible candidate by friends.

Sheriff Walter J. Olmshead, appointed by the governor to fill out the vacancy caused by the conviction of Gordon L. Schermerhorn for ballot theft conspiracy, is expected to seek election.

The Jackson county Democracy is laying plans to trot out candidates for all offices, and are now seeking "unbeatable" candidates for sheriff and all other offices.

Justice of the Peace H. D. (Johnny) Reed of Gold Hill is being urged to run for county judge. The justice as yet has not made up his mind. He has a fine acquaintanceship in in the north end of the county.

The only candidate who has come out with any definiteness is Attorney A. C. Hough of Grants Pass, who announced, "I will make the race" for the circuit judgeship. Judge Norton, incumbent, has announced he "probably would enter." Hough was chief counsel for Fehl in the latter's trial and conviction for ballot theft, and also represented J. Arthur LaDien and other ballot theft defendants.

HOME EXTENSION MEET SCHEDULE STARTING TODAY

The schedule for home extension unit meetings this week was announced today by Mabel C. Mack, home demonstration agent.

Wednesday, January 10, Bellevue unit will meet at the Community hall for a demonstration on garment finishes. The demonstration will be in charge of Mrs. J. E. Gowland and Mrs. H. M. Stenrud, local project leaders.

Thursday, January 11, Trail unit will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Ash, for the third demonstration on eggs, milk and cheese project on the cooking and uses of cottage and American cheese. This demonstration will be given by Mrs. Mack, county home demonstration agent.

Friday, January 12, Phoenix home extension unit will meet at the Presbyterian church for a demonstration on garment finishes. This demonstration will be in charge of Mrs. Florence Drake and Mrs. Ralph Wilcox, local project leaders. There will be a covered dish luncheon at noon. All homemakers of the community are urged to attend because this is work in preparation for the project on economy dressmaking which will be given by the county demonstration agent in February, March and April.

Friday, January 12, Rogue River extension unit will meet at the Community hall in Rogue River for a demonstration on the cooking and uses of cottage and American cheese by the home demonstration agent. The foods prepared at the demonstration will be served at luncheon.

All demonstrations are scheduled for 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Every homememaker in the community is invited to attend.

NOONDAY EASTER SERVICES TO BE CONDUCTED HERE

At the suggestion of the Medford Chamber of Commerce the Medford Ministerial association has made arrangements to conduct daily 20 minute noon Easter services the week of March 26-31, at a downtown location.

Noonday Easter services are conducted in all the major cities of the United States and the Medford Chamber of Commerce believes that they will be well attended in this city.

The Reverend Howell has been appointed chairman of the Ministerial association committee to arrange for the singing and to conduct the services. and John C. Mann will be chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee.

Mr. Howell stated this morning that the services will in all probability be by a different minister each day, with the rest of the 20 minutes being devoted to Easter songs by local artists.

Complete announcements will be given out at a later date. It was announced by the Chamber of Commerce officials.

GERMANS BEHEAD DUTCH YOUTH FOR REICHSTAG BLAZE

Van Der Lubbe's cell and told him his last hour had come.

Without saying a word, Van Der Lubbe arose and, after being shaved, was led by the prison governor into the courtyard.

Without showing the least emotion, Van Der Lubbe with bowed head listened as the death sentence again was read by Wilhelm Buenger, presiding judge during the trial.

Silent at End

He silently shook his head when asked if he wanted to make a statement.

Werner then said: "I surrender you to the executioner."

The latter, Herr Goebler of Magdeburg, dressed in evening clothes and wearing white gloves, laid his hand on Van Der Lubbe's shoulder.

Meekly the young man ascended the scaffold, where he was tied down.

As Goebler pressed a button, Van Der Lubbe's head rolled into a basket of sawdust.

In 30 seconds it was all over.

"Justice Has Been Done"

Before a clergyman had finished a prayer, the executioner called out: "Justice has been done!"

A physician stepped forward and attested the death and, while witnesses signed an official document, the body was removed in a simple black coffin.

No Dutch officials attended.

Van Der Lubbe had been given a medical examination yesterday. He was pronounced sane.

HEAVY GRIST IN JUSTICE COURT

In Justice of the Peace William R. Coleman's court yesterday, Robert T. Kelly of the Phoenix district was fined $5 and costs for improper license plates. Thomas D. Som of Sterling was fined $5 for no operator's license.

Lee E. Hogg of Phoenix was fined $5 for possessing no tail-light, and Everett C. Newbury of Ashland was assessed $5 for no operator's license. All the above were granted from two weeks to a month in which to remit.

Charles Jessiman, charged with disorderly conduct, was given 10 days in the county jail. It was alleged that Jessiman "acted up" in a rooming house.

Kenneth Passmore, 17, of this city, was given 60 days in the county jail, and paroled to Chief of Police Claitous McCredie, with orders to report weekly. Passmore was charged with the theft of a bicycle from in front of the Craterian theater. Chief McCredie informed the court that the youth had been in juvenile court on a couple of occasions and was "now too old for that court."

Samson Increases Space for Spring Merchandise Stock

To accommodate a larger quantity and variety of stock, the P. E. Samson store at 229 North Riverside avenue, is being completely remodeled this week, following Mr. Samson's trip to Portland where he arranged for spring merchandise.

Additional wall shelves will be installed at the north end of the store and the interior is being painted.

"The past year has been very satisfactory, in fact, the most successful of my five years in business in Medford," Mr. Samson said today. He predicts that conditions will continue to improve during the coming season.

Practically everything for southern Oregon farms and ranches, including high grade dairy and poultry feeds, garden and field seeds and fertilizers may now be obtained from the P. E. Samson company.

EVANS CREEK TO SEE FOREST FIRE FILMS

John Gribble of the Rogue River National forest service and Ernest Roedel of the Crater Lake Park service will motor to Evans creek Thursday night to present a group of motion pictures at the CC Camp.

Featured will be "What Price Fire?", "Winter Scenes at Crater Lake", "Pine Beetle Damage and Control", and "Ski Jumping at Crater Lake."

FARM LOAN SECRETARY OPENS LOCAL OFFICE

Leland J. Knox, secretary-treasurer of the Phoenix and Medford Farm Loan associations, has taken offices in the Medford National bank building on the third floor and will be located there before the end of the week, it was announced today.

The offices have been opened to aid applicants in contacting Mr. Knox, who formerly received them at his home.
