Yeoman Students

The Baldwin recital hall was filled to capacity last night, when the first class demonstration to be held there opened the recital of students of Effie Herbert Yeoman. The audience was unusually attentive throughout the interesting melodies, played by students of the Yeoman system, then related for thorough enjoyment of the group of solos, sung by Miss Genevieve Brown, vocal student of Mrs. Yeoman. The group included "Staccato Polka" by Mulder, "Night and the Curtain Drawn" by Ferrata, "A Birthday" by Woodman.

Then back to the piano appreciation was drawn, with interest reaching high pitch during the finished playing of two two-piano numbers. Haydn's "Gypsy Rondo," arranged for two pianos, was played by Lavon Davis and Mrs. Yeoman, and "Solifegotto" by Bach was played by Lena Nee and Mrs. Yeoman.

- Other piano numbers were:
- (a) Lv ..... Concone
  - (b) Water Sprites ..... Benk
  - Minuet in G ..... Beethoven
  - Lavon Davis
  - Vogelin ..... Grieg
  - Martha Ruth DeVore
  - Robin Red Breast ..... Concone
  - Katherine Gentner

Pupils playing in the piano ensemble were:

Vera Frances Smith, Morris Pierce, Norrene Bohner, Stephen Isaac, Robert Pittenger, Clara Daniels, Kenneth Corliss, Anne Van Valzah, Patricia Dippel, Maxine Pierce and Gertrude Buchanan.

The entire program was marked by repeated applause significant of hearty appreciation of the interesting work displayed and the ease with which the program progressed.

Miss Wallace and Pupil Praised in Magazine.

Under "Oregon Notes" in the December issue of Music and Musicians, publication of the northwest, appears an interesting mention of two well known local folk, Miss Imogene Wallace, piano instructor, and her pupil, Mary Louise McElhose, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McElhose. It reads:

"Imogene Wallace, pianist and teacher of Medford, enjoyed recently that too rare commendation, which comes to a teacher who trains a gifted pupil from the beginning and then is able to present her in a recital which has merit and promise. Mary Louise McElhose, young 13-year-old pianist, who comes from a musical family, was presented by Miss Wallace in recital, and in the important matters of clarity and facility," as one reviewer said, her playing indicated splendid rhythmic sense and intuitive taste of expression; her program included the Mozart Minuet in E flat major, Beethoven Country Dances, No. I, II and III, Mendelssohn Andante in D major, Schuetz's "In the Country" and "Minuet of the Little Marquis," "Two Fairy Tales" by McDowell (from Dwarfland and of a Tailor and a Bear), Scotts "At the Donnybrook Fair" and the Morely's Waltz in D flat. James Stevens, barton, assisted on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth To Make Home Here.

Of interest to many local folk was the recent announcement in the Portland press of the wedding of Miss Helen Burke, daughter of Mrs. Helen Burke of that city to Farwell Booth of Medford, son of Mrs. Eva Booth of Portland, which was an event of December 28 at the Church of the Madeleine, Father Thompson reading the service at 10 o'clock.

The bride was attended by Miss Betty Eastman of Seattle as bridesmaid, and Norbert Leopold of Portland was best man for the groom. Bert Greene and Lawrence Schwartz were ushers. The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth are now in Medford, at home at 222 1/2 East Main street, and will be welcomed into the young married set. He is representative in this city for Conrad, Bruce and company of Portland, with offices in the Medford Investment company.

Do You Really Want To Stop That Cough?

You can do it with a couple of doses of Bronchocin Emulsion—with half a bottle anyway. It's no pleasant tasting sweet or sugary cough syrup but it's one with a real kick. As a matter of fact, it feels good going down. Gives INSTANT RELIEF. Soothes a hacking, sore throat almost when you are swallowing it. Money back if it doesn't give you relief. Jarmine's Drug Store and all other good druggists guarantee it.

Miss Paley Leaves Tonight For San Francisco

Miss Dorothy Paley, granddaughter of Mrs. John F. White, is leaving this evening for San Francisco, where she will make her home with her father, Ivor P. Paley, and attend school. Miss Paley, a popular member of the local younger set and a musician of considerable talent, attended the University of Oregon last year and the past fall. She was a member of the past fall. She was on the campus.

Rent Doesn't Pay Taxes

Atta boy, Editor, for your last night's editorial. Since Mr. Barton wrote his epistle I have wanted to answer this argument that tenants pay the taxes when they rent.

I want to state emphatically that they are all wet; they have heard the statement and it sounds good to them.

Now here is how you can know whether you are or not: Household budgets all agree that a family should live in a house that is valued (real value, not depression value) at twice a man's annual income and shall pay a week's salary as a monthly rent. (This is for the unfurnished house.)

As an example, let us say your salary is $1200, which is $100 per month or near $90 per week. By the above rule you should live in a $2400 house and pay $30 per month rent. (My own private opinion as a landlord is that this is too low as it makes only 12 per cent per year, but let it go at that. Remember that all the overhead cost comes out of that 12 per cent, of which the tax alone is 3 per cent.)

If you are renting according to the above rule then you are paying your share of the taxes and can call yourself a real man.

The truth of the matter is that present rentals are only about one-half of what they should be and consequently cover only half of the cost of maintaining that property, and when you realize that interest on borrowed capital comes first and fixed overhead costs come next there CANNOT be anything left for taxes.

The only way for any self supporting person to do is to vote for the sales tax and thus carry his end of the load.

I have sixteen places of my own, all rented. GEO. IVERSON, Medford, Jan. 11.

FALLING BUILDING KILLS FIRE CHIEF

AURORA, Ill., Jan. 11. (AP)—Firemen searched among the smoldering ruins of a three-story business building today for the body of one of their captains after digging out two others crushed to death by the sudden collapse of the front wall during the height of the midnight blaze.

The missing man was Captain Charles Hoffman who, other firemen said, had donned a gas mask and entered the basement of the flaming Woolworth five and ten-cent store, with Captain John Peterson a few minutes before the wall toppled over on them.

Peterson's body and that of Captain Edward Rees were recovered several hours later. Four others were injured and taken to hospitals.

FORMER RESIDENT TO SERVE LENGTHY TERM

Earl G. Morrison, a former resident of this city and county, has been sentenced in Clackamas county to serve 35 years in state prison upon his plea of guilty to statutory offenses involving a ten-year old girl. Morrison resided here in 1930 and was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail for drunken driving.

This was cited as a "miscarriage of justice." Morrison also was listed as a "victim of the gang." He was a "foater." Fingerprint records show he was an ex-convict from Montana and Washington.

Neff Will Be Chairman Medford Ball to Honor Roosevelt January 30th

Medford's participation in "the greatest birthday party in American history" took definite form today with announcement that Porter J. Neff had been appointed by Col. H. L. Doherty as chairman of the Medford ball, which will be one of at least 5,000 held on January 30, President Roosevelt's 63rd birthday. The list of patrons and patronesses and the committees to complete arrangements for the largest social event to grace the city will be announced immediately, along with the place where the ball will be held.

The purpose of this party for the President, as many people already know, is a very simple and humane one, which is expected to win the cooperation of all southern Oregonians.

It is to establish, through the direct help of the citizens of the country an endowment fund for the Georgia Warm Springs foundation, created in 1926 by President Roosevelt, so that this foundation may carry on its national crusade against infantile paralysis and devote, unselfishly, its full energy and thought to the coordination of the fight against a scourge which physically handicaps every year, thousands of American children.

The success of this country-wide party, the national committee points out, will be a growing testimonial to a man who has waged and won a hard personal fight against what might have been accepted as a lasting handicap.

Participating in the nation-wide plans are fraternal organization, service and civil clubs, given as follows: Aurora and Protective Order of Elks, Knights of Columbus, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Order of Owls, Foresters of America, Knights of Pythias, Woodmen of the World, The Independent Order of Foresters, Supreme Forest Woodmen circle, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, Supreme Council Royal Arcanum, Sovereign Camp Woodmen of the World, Loyal Order of Moose, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, Improved Order of Red Men, Civic organizations: Advertising Federation of America, American Business clubs, American Interprofessional Institute, Association of National Advertisers, Civilian International, Co-operative Club International, Lions International, Mercator Club International, National Exchange Club of America, National Monarch Club, Optimist International, Reciprocity Club of America, Rotary International, Round Table International, the National Guard Association of the United States.

A radio party has been arranged for nation-wide broadcasting on the occasion. The birthday "radio ball" will also include a short address by President Roosevelt.

The national committee is headed by Colonel H. L. Doherty and has established headquarters in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, Governor Lehman, General Pershing, Cardinal Hayes and William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, are among the more than 50 persons on the national committee. Other members are:

Vincent Astor, W. W. Atterbury, Edward M. House, Cary T. Grayson, Governor Herbert H. Lehman, Dr. William B. Rogers, Cornelius N. Bliss, Charles G. Dawes, Walter P. Chrysler, Jeremiah Milbank, Harvey S. Firestone, Matthew Wolf, Owen D. Young, Albert D. Laaker, Edward A. Flene, Bernard M. Baruch, Karl A. Bickel, Gordon Auchincloss, John P. Frey, J. V. Connolly, Joseph T. Fanning, Merlin H. Aylesworth, James M.

STILL SUSPECT WAIVES HEARING

LeRoy Wright, Old Stage road district rancher, arrested yesterday with a still, waived a preliminary hearing in justice court late yesterday, after he was found over to await the action of the grand jury.

Hall, a CWA worker, requested a preliminary hearing, which has been set for Friday morning.

Neighbors of Wright speak highly of him, and one came to court offering to go his bonds. They told the court Wright was industrious, and the father of a large family. He has been engaged in trapping on a small scale this winter, as a means of livelihood.

Friends allege that Hall brought the still and supplies to the Wright place, and that Wright unwittingly allowed it to remain, while having nothing to do with its operation.

The Colusa county, California, rice crop for 1933 was valued at $1,141,000, which was an increase of $360,000 over 1932.

HOME LOAN HEAD FIRES ASSISTANT FOR DISOBEYING

PORTLAND, Jan. 11.—(AP)—J. P. Lipscomb, state manager of the Federal Home Owners' Loan corporation of Oregon, today revealed that he had requested the resignation of H. E. Walter, assistant manager, and that this action resulted in Walter's precipitate resignation yesterday and his flight to Washington, D. C. last night to confer with the national chairman of the organization.

Lipscomb said today he made no move toward appointment of a new assistant. He said he had not appointed Walter, and that as far as he knew, he would not appoint Walter's successor.

The state manager asked Walter to withdraw, he said, after John H. Fahey, national chairman, had telegraphed Lipscomb that "Mr. Walter is solely under your direction, and if he cannot or will not obey instructions and occupy his entire time with his job, dismiss him at once."

Fahey had mentioned that "while the board approves of all reasonable attempts to acquit the public through interviews and speeches with the purpose and progress of the Home Owners' Loan corporation, all such activities should be subordinated to the main effort, which is the transaction of regular business, and particularly the closing of loans."

There are more automobiles in Los Angeles county than in all of Germany, according to the California Automobile association.
