

SMART FOR THE COLLEGE GIRL

For the college girl who wants to be smartly dressed in lounging attire, here are the proper togs. The ensemble at right consists of clever pajamas and robe in white satin striped with wide bands of navy blue. Gail Patrick, film actress, wears the outfit. Dorothea Wieck at left wears a blouse of white satin with high-waisted trousers of black satin. (Associated Press Photos)

SEES HER BABIES FOR FIRST TIME

Blind for 21 years, the sight of Mrs. Thomas Naylor of Green Bay, Wis., was restored after a delicate operation and she saw her two children, Laverne, 3 (left), and Mildred, 4, for the first time. Mrs. Naylor, who has been blind since she was seven years old, remembered her husband (pictured with the group) as a childhood playmate. (Associated Press Photo)

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE TOWER RISES

The Marin county tower of the Golden Gate bridge connecting San Francisco with the north is shown as it nears completion. The tower has reached a height which approximates the floor of the bridge. A creeper truss is shown at the top while the huge cross truck below will serve as a permanent tie between the two tower legs. (Associated Press Photo)

FIRST SOVIET PASSPORT ON COAST

Mrs. Alexandra Anastozova Semenova showing her passport to Immigration Inspector Lester Young as she arrived in San Francisco from Vladivostok. She was believed to have been the first person to enter the United States on a Soviet Union passport issued by an American consul since this government recognized Russia. (Associated Press Photo)

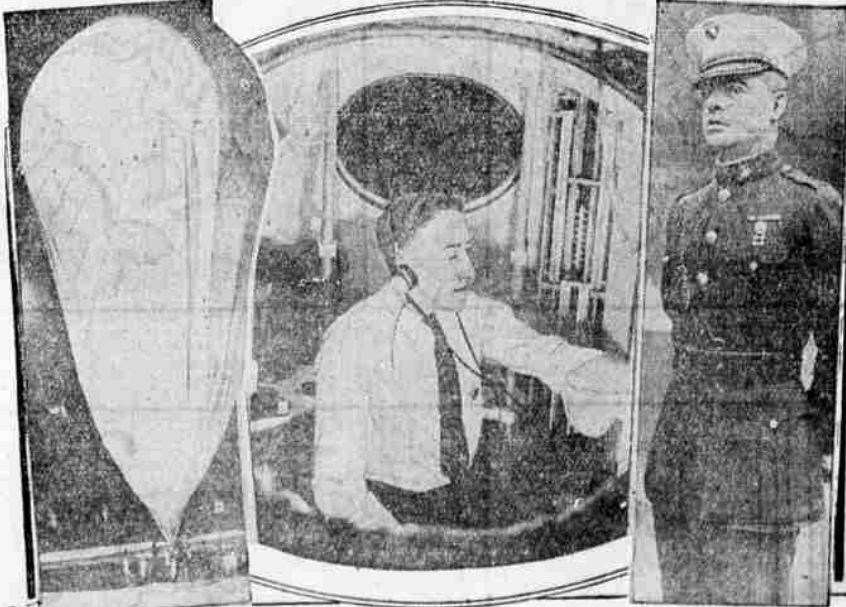

Hollywood thought she was single until Miriam Jordan, film player, filed suit for divorce accusing her husband, Joseph Davis of New York, of "laziness and profligacy." (Associated Press Photo)

CAMP TERA GIRLS DON'T MIND THE SNOW

The snow storm that swirled over the east may have meant suffering for some, but not the unemployed girls and women at Camp Tera, Bear Mountain, New York. They took to their skis, and had a big time. Here a group waves gaily at a photographer. Camp Tera, organized for the care of jobless women, is sponsored by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. (Associated Press Photo)

SERVICE MEN SUCCEED IN STRATOSPHERE FLIGHT

Ascending more than 58,000 feet Lt. Comm. T. G. W. Settle, navy pilot, made a successful flight into the stratosphere. He is shown (center) inside the tiny globular gondola which was loaded with supplies ranging from bananas to cosmic ray meters and female fruit flies. His companion was Major Chester Fordney (right) of the marine corps, who had never gone up in a balloon. At left is the inflated bag of the stratosphere balloon. The ascent started at Akron, Ohio. (Associated Press Photos)

SIX BENEDICTS ON GRID TEAM AT MURRAY COLLEGE

The football team of Murray State Teachers college in Kentucky, one of the nation's few unbeaten and untied squads, boasts six married men among its players. Left to right: Preston Laster and wife, Howard Allen and wife, Norman McKenzie, wife and son; Howard Moss and wife, and Darsey Wesley and Bradley Thurman, whose wives were not present when the picture was taken. (Associated Press Photo)

RUSH BABY TO HOSPITAL IN PERILOUS AIR DASH

After a hazardous air dash from Houston, Tex., Sue Trammell, five-months-old baby, was taken to Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore, Md., for a brain operation to save her life. The baby is shown being carried from the plane by a nurse assisted by an airport attendant. At right is the child's uncle and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Trammell. (Associated Press Photos)

James R. Wedell, speed flier who piloted the airplane on the wind-tossed trip, is shown as he left the ship at Baltimore. Braving strong icy winds, Wedell drove his plane over the 1,400-mile trip in slightly more than 11 hours.

'VIKING ROMEO,' WITH FOUR WIVES, LANDS IN JAIL!

Bror Peterson's quest for the "ideal bride" to take back to Sweden to claim an ancestral estate—according to his story—led him to marry four Chicago girls before he found the "right one." He landed in jail following his failure to pay a wedding celebration bill for wife No. 4 (right), Mrs. Lydia Fagas Peterson. The third wife of the bald-headed Romeo was Mrs. Mabel Pagnio Peterson (left). The 44-year-old husband's brides ranged from 22 to 26 years of age. (Associated Press Photos)

SHANK DOZES AT TRIAL FOR FOUR 'POISON SLAYINGS'

Mark H. Shank, Akron attorney, is shown as he dozed at his trial in Benton, Ark., for the slaying by poison of four persons, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Colley and their two young sons. Shown with Shank are his wife (center) and his mother. Four-year-old Clyde Colley (right), whose parents and two brothers died from poisoning, is shown as he appeared at the trial. (Associated Press Photos)

Seriously Ill

Notified of the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Edward S. Cowles, Senator William Gibbs McAdoo of California left Los Angeles by airplane to race to her bedside. Mrs. Cowles, ill with pneumonia, is in a New York hospital. (Associated Press Photo)

HUEY LONG'S EFFIGY IS BURNED

Political fever rose to high pitch in Hammond, La., during the election to select a successor to the late Congressman Bolivar Kemp. This effigy of Huey Long was burned on a Hammond street. (Associated Press Photo)