

BOB MEYERS WINS MAIN EVENT WHEN TAR KAYOES SELF

Bob Meyers, veteran grappler, once world's champion middleweight, won his main event match with Sailor Franks at the Armory last night by neatly sidestepping a Sonnenberg and allowing the tattooed tar to hurtle through the ropes and into the chair-legs of the ring-side fans, to lay unconscious while Referee Ray Fribble tolled the count for the third and deciding fall.

In one of the greatest exhibitions of skill, strength and bulldog tenacity seen here in many a moon, Franks took the first fall in 21 minutes with a punishing Boston crab, after the men had been going at top speed from the opening gong. Meyers came back strong and used everything in the book on his opponent, gaining a tumble in 10 minutes by means of an airplane spin, to even the score.

In an effort to take the odd fall, the men battled all over the ring, with first one and then the other on the offensive. Meyers was apparently getting the worst of the deal when the sailor launched the unlucky charge which stretched him cold among the cash customers, after about eight minutes of grappling.

Meyers received a blow on the left ear during the match which left that appendage the size of a boxing glove. Dr. Devore, French exponent of the muscle tugging art, substituted for Roland Warren, Klamath Falls cop, in the semi-final, and took the only fall of the match from Bunny Martin, Oklahoma Cherokee Indian, by means of a body press, after softening the Oklahoman up by bouncing him off the ropes several times. Martin spotted the Klamath chiropractor 14 pounds and flashed a korid of speed and science.

Francis would like to see more of his brand of wrestling, and Promoter Mack Lillard expects to give him a spot on another card here in the near future. Cecil Barrick of Grants Pass found his comeback trail blocked by a stocky lad from Seattle by the name of George Bennett, and lasted only seven minutes in the curtain-raiser. Bennett clamped on a toe hold and Barrick patted the mat without delay, hurrying from the ring to relieve his overwrought stomach.

The card, which opened the winter mat schedule here, drew a fair house. Promoter Lillard announced today that he will have Les Wolfe, rolling scissors expert from Texas, on a local card in the near future.

TILDEN TAKES VINES' MEASURE IN PRO NET TILT

CORBIN EDGELLS ARE WINNERS IN U. CLUB TOURNEY

The first of a series of bridge tournaments at the University club, held last night, was won by Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgells, with Mrs. Donald Clark and R. W. Ruhl, as runners-up. The consolation, played individually, was won by Alfred Carpenter, with Mrs. Carpenter the runner-up. Due to the hard fought character of the matches, the winners were not decided until one of the leading contenders, E. W. Carlton, had left to tend to his early morning milking at the Red Skin ranch. In future tournaments it is believed a time limit will be placed on all contests except the final ones.

The Columbia system favored by H. Van Hovenberg, and opposed by the Harvard system, as exemplified by Mr. and Mrs. Edgells, did not fare very well in this initial engagement, but after a few weeks' intensive club practice, the former Columbia All-American star maintains, that his famous "delayed pass" will be clicking properly, and there will be a different story to tell. The triumph of the Edgell team was due largely to perfect co-ordination, augmented by complete psychic harmony, added to a high development of the "holding" technique at critical times.

Grid Rules Committee Answers Advocates of Thrill Producing Play

(Note: In connection with widespread agitation for college football rule changes, an official rebuttal is presented herewith on behalf of the national rules committee, answering in particular those who advocate a return to regulations now in vogue in professional football.)

By WILLIAM S. LANGFORD Secretary, National Football Rules Committee. NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Now is the "open season for shooting" the football rules and the firing is quite general and from all directions.

With so many shots being taken it is altogether likely that some may find their way into the hands of the rules committee, but the indications are that that body will adopt no radical changes and will confine itself to simplifying the code as much as possible.

Would Return Hazards. Suggestions to "make the game more interesting from the standpoint of the spectators" almost invariably would bring back the hazards to players which have already been eliminated from the game, and it is predicted that the committee will accord these but scanty consideration.

One suggestion is to abolish the dead-ball rule, another is to move the goal posts back from the end lines to the goal lines, either or both of which, if adopted, would increase the chances of injury without any proportionate compensating benefit.

The present dead-ball rule was adopted in 1932 and provides that when any part (except hands or feet) of the player in possession of the ball touches the ground, the ball at once becomes dead and play ceases automatically.

Crawling Dangerous. This rule has almost entirely eliminated "crawling," i. e., attempts by a player to advance the ball further after he has been downed, and "piling-up" or falling upon the player with the ball after it has become dead.

"Crawling" and "piling-up" used to be prolific sources of injury and it is unthinkable that any lover of the game would wish to gamble on the welfare of hundreds of thousands of football players for the sake of providing an occasional "thrill" to comparatively few spectators.

Some critics have argued that the rules committee should give more thought to the general public who support football and by so doing make possible the whole athletic program of the colleges, by giving them more "thrills." These people ask that we adopt the rules under which the professional games are played so as to give the spectators a "real run for their money."

The main difference between the rules of the N. C. A. A. and the professional code lies in the fact that the latter failed to follow the safety measures adopted by the rules committee in 1932, including the dead-ball rule mentioned above, and the prohibition of the flying block and flying tackle.

Old Time Stunts To Give Baseball Proper Send-off

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Possibly, believes Oscar Helchow, business manager of the Los Angeles Angels, the trouble with baseball's declining gate receipts may be that some of the boys have become too high hat.

In any event, the Los Angeles club, he said today, is going back to some of the old time stuff. Helchow plans to get off to a good start by having a real old style season opener, including a parade, a downtown luncheon, with Mizsonner, the Mayor, and celebrities tossing out the first balls, et cetera.

A sensational 62, nine strokes better than par, gave the 25-year-old jayhawker, pro of the Quivera Lake Golf club, Kansas City, Kas., the right to enter the sacred portals where only a few have dared to tread.

That he won the Santa Monica amateur pro championship and $240 first prize money with aid on one hole by his almost-pure partner, Don Erickson, Los Angeles public links player, was only an attending circumstance, for it was one of the greatest 18-hole rounds ever recorded in competition. Their best-ball total was 61.

Dusty record books revealed that Maspaden had missed by one stroke equalling the greatest competitive round in history—that of Aubrey Boomer when he shot a 61 over a 6,037-yard course in the French open at St. Cloud, May 23, 1929.

TIGERS TO INVADE KLAMATH COURTS FRIDAY, SATURDAY

(By Harold Grove.) With a week of practice under their belts, the Medford High Tigers will leave tomorrow afternoon for an invasion of Klamath county where they will meet the Pelicans and Chiloquino high school. They will play Klamath Friday night and Chiloquino Saturday night.

The Klamath Falls Pelicans chalked up a 30 to 18 victory over the Tigers on the latter's last trip over the mountains, on the other hand, master of the Acme overall, maintains where he matriculated at the Sheffield Scientific School, holding was never barred, but aces were always wild. He favors having them wild until at least 3 o'clock in the morning. Others maintain Alfred Carpenter should be barred for beating his wife.

Before the next tournament session, it is expected these disputed points will be referred to the rules committee of the National Contract Bridge association, and future contests will be governed strictly by their rulings.

The Medford high second team will probably get a taste of action Saturday night as Coach Burgher has announced that the second string will more than likely start the game. Last year the second team was defeated by the sharp-shooting aces of the Indians' court. However, a new lineup is now on hand and to make things more interesting, Guy Campbell, who coached the Phoenix high quintet of last year, will be the head man at Chiloquino. There isn't anything he would like better than to defeat a Medford quintet.

The players that will make the trip have not been selected as yet. Coach Burgher announced that at least 10 will make the trip.

FORSGREN DUMPS TOUGH OPPONENT

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Portland wrestling fans found a new hero in Jack Forsgren, who matched the regular rough assault of Ted Cox and dumped him, bruised and bleeding, for the deciding fall of last night's main event here.

Forsgren appeared almost out but rallied, brandished elbows and fists and, with a final lunge and body press, gave Cox his first Portland defeat.

Although good, rough opposition, Bob Stone, 210, Chicago became link six in the unbroken chain of victories for Don Wagner, 220, ex-Oregon State gridder, since he entered professional wrestling. Whip wristlocks, headlocks and a body press flattened Stone's shoulders in 6:30.

A no-fall draw resulted in the three 10-minute rounds between Leo Jensen, 161, Vancouver, B. C., and Joe Reno, 160, Dallas Texas. With a body press in the final round Al Snell 212, Billings, Mont., defeated Bobby Evans, 212, Long Island, N. Y.

Kv-Bike Champ Dies. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 18.—(AP)—John S. "Johnny" Johnson, former world's champion bicycle racer and speed skating title holder of more than a quarter of a century ago, many of whose records still stand, died from a heart attack at his home last night. He was 60 years old.

Central Point town team defeated Mary's All-Stars Wednesday night at the Central-Point gym, 44 to 33.

During the first half the game was hard fought and the score remained even, but during the second half the fast pace set by the Central Point cagers began to tell on the All-Stars. Any basketball team wanting a game with Central Point is invited to call Charles Taylor, Central Point, Oregon.

PLENTY OF SNOW FOR SKI JUMPERS

MOUNT SHASTA, Cal., Jan. 18.—(Sp.)—In spite of the fact that almost everywhere in California the past winter has been like spring, there is plenty of snow at Snowman hill, Mount Shasta, where the third annual professional ski jump will be held next Sunday, starting at 2 o'clock.

Lars Haugen, seven times national champion, arrived in Mount Shasta last Sunday, and after inspecting the hill, announced that conditions were extremely favorable for good jumps and that he expected to see jumps of more than 200 feet made at Sunday's show. The hill has been reconstructed by the Mount Shasta Snowmen, and is believed by many to be one of the most spectacular in the nation.

Since the Shasta-Lassen highway has been taken into the state highway system, parking conditions have been improved and there will be no chance for a tie-up.

Besides the professional jumps, there will be amateur jumps in all classes.

CCC BASKETBALL SQUAD HONORED

Honoring the basketball squad from Camp South Fork of Rogue River, camp officers are entertaining with a 5:30 o'clock dinner here this evening at the Colonial club. Officers at the camp are Captain W. R. Church, Lt. J. C. McCormin and Lt. E. K. Bear.

Members of the basketball squad are K. A. Pinchard, C. A. Gebhardt, F. Lane, R. Goddard, V. Donaldson, H. C. Norris, L. A. Lee, F. R. Poole, S. Groochus, J. F. Bilsa, G. E. Shell, C. Smith, E. Tracy, R. Oviatt and M. F. Gardevine.

R. H. Southwick of the forest service, has been coaching the team, and with R. G. Jennings, forestry service camp superintendent, will be guest at the dinner tonight.

Charlie Hanson Pins Cantonwine SEATTLE, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Charlie Hanson, 205, Seattle, won two out of three falls last night to defeat Howard Cantonwine, 210, Iowa, in a wrestling match, taking the deciding fall in the fourth round with a roll-over body slam.

Marvin Westenberg, 220, Tacoma, won from Jack Kogut, 210, Montreal, also in two out of three falls. The deciding fall was in the fourth, with an airplane scissors.

BEARCATS EVEN COUNT WITH OREGON NORMAL MONMOUTH, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Oregon Normal school failed to gain more than an even break in its two-game basketball series with Willamette university, dropping the second encounter to the Bearcats here last night in a fast overtime game, 23 to 28. The teachers won at Salem last week, 32 to 24.
