Gary Cooper and Fredric March in Coming Holly Hit

When seven accomplished artists collaborate on a motion picture the result ought to be gratifying, and it is, as revealed in Paramount's "Design for Living," which opens Sunday at the Holly.

The seven who contributed their great skill, enthusiasm and sophistication to the comedy drama are Fredric March, Gary Cooper, Miriam Hopkins, Edward Everett Horton, Director Ernst Lubitsch, Noel Coward, the playwright, and Ben Hecht, who transcribed the play for the screen.

Adroitly conceived, brilliantly directed and acted with verve and understanding, "Design for Living" opens a new, broad field of screen literature, and it may be predicted that here is a plot that will be copied extensively as the next film cycle.

The story is unique and absorbing. An American girl falls in with two young musketeers of art in the Paris quarter. The men are life-long friends. A strange love affair is inevitable, and the principals resign themselves to whatever joys, jealousies and agonies may result from a three-cornered love.

Rainfall Yesterday—The U. S. weather bureau, stationed at the Medford airport, reported today that 15.94 inches of moisture was recorded between the hours of 3 a. m. and 5 p. m. Thursday. Only .91 of an inch was listed for the period between 5 p. m. yesterday and 5 a. m. today.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle which is to be seen Sunday at the Craterian theatre.

Bing Crosby, noted crooner of radio and motion pictures, plays the radio crooner role opposite Miss Davies. The story deals with a lonely girl in love with a crooner's voice, who trails him to Hollywood, where he is to make his first appearance as a film star and who, after much difficulty with a flighty, temperamental French actress, who likewise loves the crooner, becomes a picture star in her own right.

Throughout the picture are woven the dance and musical numbers which add an unusual charm and pictorial beauty to the romantic story.

On the same program "Sus-Ti-Ka," filmed in Southern Oregon and Northern California and with many shots of the scenic grandeur of Crater Lake, will also be shown.

'BOWERY' DRAMA FULL OF LAUGHS

The wicked eighties and the gay nineties may have been just that, but time is a jokester and in this year the days of Chuck Connors and Steve Brodie, with their honky tonks, and their spectacular bridge jumps, are richly, deliciously and frequently riotously funny.

At least the crowds at the Studio last night found "The Bowery" good for deep-hearted laughter from start to finish.

KLAMATH FALLS, Jan. 19.—(Sp.)—A joint meeting of Malin, Merrill and Klamath Falls American Legion posts was held at Merrill Tuesday night.

Chief business matter taken up was the development of plans for a large attendance at the district Legion conference to be held at Medford on February 8.
