NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—(AP)—Al Smith has lost favor with the Tammany Hall speakers' bureau.

Mention of the name of the "Happy Warrior," which a short time ago was a signal for wildly cheering demonstrations, met with boos and hisses at the annual banquet of the bureau last night.

Telegrams from President Roosevelt and Governor Lehman had been received with respectful applause, when a letter from Smith was read. In it the former governor said that "for my own protection and to save embarrassment I have cut out all dinners." Catechisms and derisive shouts greeted the announcement.

Former Mayor John P. O'Brien was the man of the hour, his appearance evoking an outburst of cheering that lasted 12 minutes. Jimmy Walker held the previous record of nine minutes.

The diners stood to a man when the band played Walker's "Will You Love Me in December As You Did in May?" and a cheer greeted the remark of District Attorney Dodge that he was "happy to hear that song."

Salvation Army Division Leader Coming Sunday

Major Harold Madsen, divisional commander of the Salvation Army in Oregon and southern Idaho, will visit the local corps of the Army next Sunday.

The major, together with adjutant and Mrs. Collier, young people's secretaries for this division, and Captain D. Mundy, welfare worker in Portland, will arrive by car from Grants Pass in time for the holiness meeting at the Army headquarters, 411 East Main, at 11:00 a. m., Sunday, and will remain for the Sunday school at 2:00 p. m., and the evening service at 8:00 p. m.

Major Madsen is a man of wide experience in the Salvation Army and has held many important positions during his years in the organization. He is deeply spiritual and a forceful speaker. His party is made up of accomplished musicians and Captain Durham, local commanding officer, predicts a day of splendid meetings. The public is invited to all services.

BYRD FLAGSHIP DANGERED WHEN ICEBERG FALLS

tons with which it previously had been equipped.

The plane was taken up by Chief Pilot June, Assistant Pilot Bolen and Radio Operator Hutcherson.

The takeoff was smooth but the men on the ship were appalled when they saw that both skis were hanging vertically from the undercarriage of the plane.

They had come loose. June looked down at the undercarriage and saw only that something was loose. He asked Hutcherson to radio the flagship for information, then circled over the horrified men below at an altitude of 300 feet.

Skis Come Loose
The flagship radioed back that the skis were loose and hanging straight down.

It looked like a crash landing was certain. Bolen risked his life.

He opened the cabin door and crawled out on the wing in the far below zero weather. The wind blew off his cap and he lost a glove. Apparently it was all he could do to hang on.

He crawled back into the plane. The expedition physicist, Dr. Shiley, left the flagship and went ashore with medical kit. Other members of the crew rushed ashore with fire extinguishers. Twenty men stood by waiting for the landing.

Lands Safely
The plane came in, her skis wobbling as the air speed diminished.

She was doing 50 miles an hour at landing time. Just as he leveled her off, June pulled up the nose—close to the stalling angle.

The tall ski struck first and the shock of the flat landing, together with the sudden decrease in air speed, threw the skis into a horizontal position for a moment.

June sat her down. Loose snow spurted up around the skis and the plane was obscured by the drift flying in the propeller wash.

When the cloud of snow died down June and his men were safe.

BOB CUSTER FILM HAS MYSTERY TWIST

The branding of the hero, the mysterious stranger who becomes a double-crossing "pal" whose real motives are only disclosed at the fadeout; a cattle-rustling story and a delightful underlying love theme conspire to make "The Scarlet Brand," which comes to the Roxy theater tomorrow, the thrilling story that it is.

Bob Custer, a wandering cowboy, is left holding the bag by cattle-rustlers, who have "befriended" him. When the cattlemen of the district brand him, he resolves on revenge.

June sat her down. Loose snow spurted up around the skis and the plane was obscured by the drift flying in the propeller wash. When the cloud of snow died down June and his men were safe.

MOTHER LEAPS TO DEATH WITH TWO SONS IN ARMS

SHANGHAI, Jan. 19.—(AP)—Mrs. W. S. Gooch, of El Paso, Texas, took her two sons, William, 6 and Thomas, 7—one under each arm—and jumped off the roof of an 8-story apartment house today. All three were killed. Mrs. Gooch was the wife of the operations manager of the Pacific American Airways. Their home was in the apartment building from which she jumped, one of the most fashionable in the French concession.

When he heard of the tragedy, Gooch lost consciousness and is now in a serious condition as a result of the shock. The cause of the suicide was not explained.

Gooch is one of the leading aviation officials in the Far East. He came here in May, 1932, for the Pacific American line. Last August 14 he flew an exploratory plane from Hong Kong to Manila, preparatory to the establishment of a Shanghai-Manila air line, the first leg of a trans-Pacific air service.

Authorities learned that Mrs. Gooch had been scheduled to sail for the United States tonight aboard the S. S. President Wilson to reach the bedside of her father, who she had been informed, was so seriously ill he might die.

York, who is accused by the federal government of hoarding $200,000 in gold, has offered legal aid to Miss Edith M. Thomas, Denver, who has been similarly indicted.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 19.—(AP)—The Alberta Furniture company safe was opened and looted of $200 and private papers early today, police said. Police investigated when Mrs. Bertha Childs of that neighborhood reported she heard a pounding noise in the place.

SALEM HIGH DEFEATS STATE ROOKS, 25-23

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Salem high school continued its unbroken string of victories for the season last night, subduing the Oregon State Rooks, 25 to 23, in a fast basketball game requiring a five-minute overtime period to settle the contest.

One Coffee can't serve Two Masters

Percolator method or Drip method. Take your choice, but whichever method you prefer, be sure to buy the proper coffee for it. The methods are so different that a different coffee is required for each.

In a drip coffee maker, boiling water drips ONLY once through a coffee specially prepared to yield its flavor QUICKLY. In a percolator, water passes many times through a coffee prepared to yield its flavor SLOWLY. The same coffee can be used for both methods, but like a "Jack-of-all-trades" it is "master of none"—neither drip nor percolator. In one or the other, little things happen. It's a little weak, or a little strong, or a little cloudy, or it has a little less flavor. It's these little things that make or mar good coffee. Be sure to use the correct coffee for each method.

Your grocer has two Schilling Coffees, identical in flavor, but each is specially prepared for its purpose—each one different in blend, roast and grind.

2 cups flour 1/4 cup milk
3 teaspoons 1/4 teaspoon salt
baking powder 1/4 cup butter
3 tablespoons 1/4 cup pimiento
shortening cream cheese
Sift and measure the flour; sift again with the other dry ingredients and cut in the shortening very fine. Add the milk gradually; mix with a fork to a soft dough. Knead lightly for a few seconds on floured board. Roll, cut, and place on pan. Melt cheese and butter together over low heat, blending well. Place teaspoon of cheese mixture on each biscuit and bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees, for 15 minutes.
