Musical Show Today At Hunt's Craterian

"Going Hollywood," lavishly staged, with dazzling costumes and musical numbers that promise to become nationwide hits, opens a three-day engagement at the Craterian theater today. Bing Crosby and Marion Davies are starred, with Fifi D'Orsay, Stuart Erwin, Ned Sparks and Patsy Kelly in featured roles.

On the same program, and being shown for the first time in any motion picture theater, the Craterian has "Sus-Ti-Ka," the all-color scenic reel, filmed in the Shasta Cascade Wonderland last summer. "Sus-Ti-Ka" is unquestionably one of the most beautiful scenes ever made, and especially interesting to Southern Oregon. It has several scenes of Crater Lake, the majestic splendor of the famed lake being brought to the screen in all its rich color. There are also innumerable other points of interest to Medford.

At Studio

Rialto Stars

Those who saw "When Ladies Meet" will welcome the local showing of "Should Ladies Behave," at the Rialto theater today and Monday. Like the previous picture this one is also a clever mixture of witty comedy that ensues when three ladies, all in love with the same man, are gathered together in the same house on a party at which the man in question is also present.

In Holly Hit

Lionel Barrymore plays the husband of Alice Brady, whose clever comedy work is always entertaining. Mary Carlisle is the young lady, who steals the man, Conroy Tarrice, right out from under the nose of Miss Brady and Katherine Alexander.

Contract Club Meets

The contract club met Wednesday for 1 o'clock dessert bridge at the home of Mrs. W. A. Gates. There were two tables of cards in play and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed.

Building Bridge

The Parish hall will be the meeting place Thursday afternoon of the Building Bridge club. Playing will begin at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Buzelow and Mrs. S. I. Brown as hostesses, earlier at dessert luncheon.

Mrs. Porter Hostess

Lady Kiwanians have been invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Jack Porter, 1004 Reddy avenue, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock for a business session.

Masons Plan

A dance is to be given by Crater Lake chapter No. 32, Royal Arch Masons Thursday evening, January 25th at Medford Masonic Temple.

Class Completes

The Weekly Bible class completed the study of the Old Testament last week. C. D. Colbaugh presented Zephaniah.

S. C. Linderneek presented Haggai and Habakkuk. Habakkuk was written just upon the eve of the captivity and was God's testimony to Himself as against both idolatry and paganism. The book of Habakkuk raises and answers the question of God's consistency with Himself in view of permitted evil.

A. B. Mead presented Zechariah. Zechariah prophesied to the remnant which returned after the 70 years. Both advents of Christ are in Zechariah's prophecy.

Mrs. Warner presented Malachi. Malachi is the last of the prophets to the restored remnant after the 70 years captivity. The burden of his message is the love of Jehovah, the sin of the priests and of the people, and the day of the Lord.

The next lesson on Tuesday, January 23 will begin the study of the New Testament and the period of 400 years during which the voice of no prophet was heard in all Israel, will be reviewed. Mrs. Warner will also compare the four Gospels.

'BE MINE TONIGHT' IS UNUSUAL FILM

The talents and efforts of many nationalities are blended into a harmonious and delightful romance in "Be Mine Tonight," which opens at the Roxy Theater today.

In the first place, the picture was produced by a British company, in Berlin, under the direction of a Russian, Anatole Litvak. Most of the exteriors were photographed by German cameramen on locations in Switzerland, while the interiors were made at the Berlin studios of Ufa, with a cast headed by Kiepura, who is Polish, and Magda Schneider, a bewitching German girl. Sonnie Hale, popular English music hall star, plays one of the leads opposite Kiepura, while the comedy is provided by Betty Chester, Edmund Green and Athens Saylor, all well known English comedians. It presents an evenly flowing continuity of swift motion against richly varied and really magnificent scenery.

Dixie Educator Dead. DELAND, Fla., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Dr. Lincoln Hulley, 69, president of Stetson university, died today. He suffered a severe heart attack yesterday.
