

Local and Personal

Here Over Week-End—A visitor in Medford over the week-end was Hamilton Patton.

Dean is Visitor—Frank Dean, rancher of Central Point, was a business caller in Medford yesterday.

Home from Bay City—Geary Garrett has returned to his home here after spending several days in San Francisco.

George Trechler Ill—George L. Trechler is ill at his home west of Central Point with typhoid fever, it was reported here yesterday.

Schmidt Improved—Emil Schmidt was able to be about town yesterday following a long illness and was being greeted by many friends.

Inspecting Camps—Bill Jones, road superintendent of the Rogue River National forest, spent yesterday inspecting the Evans Creek camp.

Visits Here—Mrs. M. R. Scripser arrived here Saturday evening from Ogallala, Nebr., to visit her son and family, E. D. Scripser at 715 Cedar street.

Attends Meeting—O. C. Eggs of the Jackson County Building and Loan association motored to Roseburg yesterday to attend the Oregon Building and Loan league meeting.

Harrell Assigned—Ben Harrell, who graduated from West Point last year and is a lieutenant in the infantry, and has been at Randolph field, Texas, has been assigned to Fort Francis Warren, Wyoming.

Baird in Marysville—W. R. Baird is conducting evangelistic services at the Christian church in Marysville, Calif., and the pulpit of the local Christian church will be filled with other pastors during his absence.

D. A. V. Meet Tuesday—The Disabled American veterans of the World war will meet in the armory Tuesday at 8 p. m. State Commander James L. Palmer and State Adjutant Lyle Daily will be here for the meeting, and every member of the chapter is requested to be present, according to Senior Vice Commander Jas. R. Lillie.

Project to Start—Work will begin Monday on the improvement of the high school grounds, a CWA project. Ten men have been assigned to the job through the CWA committee.

Sleeps in City Jail—Jim Anderson occupied the Medford jail Friday night upon his arrival here from Los Angeles with Deputy Sheriff Pratt of Salem, who was transporting him north on a charge of embezzling.

Each Fined $10—R. A. Lewis of Phoenix arrested by city police on a charge of drunkenness, was fined $10 yesterday in city court. Jack Martin of Ashland drew the same fine from Judge A. D. Curry on the same charge.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick Returns—Mrs. J. W. Kirkpatrick returned to Medford the latter part of the week from San Francisco, where she has been with her daughter, Miss Blanche Kirkpatrick, a student at Head Business college.

Attend Medical Meeting—Dr. Chas. T. Sweeney of Medford and Dr. E. A. Woods of Ashland attended the business meeting of the Willamette Valley Medical society in Eugene last evening and are returning on the morning train.

Rosenberg to Speak—Harry Rosenberg, local orchardist, who recently returned from a trip through the east, will be speaker Monday at the luncheon of the Kiwanis club at the Hotel Medford. He will speak on his findings in the eastern fruit marketing centers.

Clemens Boy Dies—Elder Clemens, pastor of the Church of God, was called to Oakland because of the illness of his 11-year-old son last week, and word was received yesterday by local friends that the child had died. His illness was the result of injuries received in an auto accident.

Attend W. C. T. U. Meeting—Mrs. Guy Cox and her mother, Mrs. Mitchell Russell drove to Grants Pass Tuesday to attend a W. C. T. U. meeting and were accompanied by Mrs. Pence and small son and Mrs. W. T. Berry and Mrs. Wm. Hill. Supt. Cramer of the public schools of Grants Pass addressed a packed house, the largest meeting they had had in years.
