

Society and Clubs

Edited by Eva Nealon Hamilton

Miss Findley Feted
At Shower Saturday.

Honoring Miss Pauline Findley, sister of Dr. Dwight H. Findley, who plans to leave this week for her home in Salem to prepare for her wedding in early summer to Robert Wulf of White Plains, N. Y., Miss Emily Brown entertained at her home Saturday afternoon with a kitchen shower. During the afternoon the guests pieced a pillow and embroidered and made other gifts for the bride-elect. Games appropriate to the occasion were interspersed throughout the afternoon. Following the shower, refreshments were served. Red and white and the heart motif were carried out in the decorations, and refreshments.

Those present were Miss Helen Stiles and Mesdames Dale Ginn and Raymond O. Turner of Grants Pass, Mrs. Don Faber and Misses Beatrice Lockhart and Irene Clark of Ashland; Mesdames W. J. New, Everett, Faber, Kenneth, Denman, Darrell, Huson, Dwight H. Findley and Misses Naomi Hohman, Margaret Morrison, Ruth Clement, Winifred Andrews, Pauline Findley and the hostess.

Loyalty Circle
To Entertain Aid

The Loyalty circle will be hostess to the General Aid homecoming tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the Sunshine parlors of the First Methodist church. The theme of the meeting will be "Youth." Mrs. Elton Waldron will lead the devotionals and Mrs. Herbert Crain will present the program.

Mr. Owen Home
From Portland Visit

James H. Owen returned yesterday from Portland, where he visited Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. Sloan Danenhower and daughter, Doris upon their arrival there as passengers on the French motorship Wisconsin. Mrs. Danenhower is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen of this city.

Mrs. West Leaves
Tomorrow for Portland

Mrs. Laura M. West is leaving Medford Tuesday for an extended visit with relatives in Portland. During her stay there she will be house guest of her brother, Jefferson Myers, who recently retired from the United States shipping board of Washington D. C.

Cragsun, Guests of Overmyers Here

Lieut. and Mrs. Dresden J. Cragsun and little daughter Mary were guests Saturday and Sunday of Capt. and Mrs. O. L. Overmyer, at their home, 810 South Holly. They left this morning for Vancouver Barracks, where Lieut. Cragsun is to be stationed. He has just completed three years' service in the Philippines and a two-month tour of Japan and China, accompanied by his family.

Crater Lake Auxiliary
Announces Card Party

The women of the Crater Lake Auxiliary will entertain with a card party Thursday afternoon, January 25. It was announced Saturday. Playing will begin at 2 o'clock and a large attendance is expected.

GLEEMEN IN TOP FORM
FOR FEATURE CONCERT
TOMORROW EVENING

Tapering off training yesterday with a few miles of road work to keep their wind in shape, the Glee-men are all ready for their concert tomorrow night.

Except for a few minor casualties every member is in fine shape and prepared to go the entire route without any substitutions. "Doc" Shockley's arches are bothering him a little, especially in his lower register and John Kirkpatrick has a wad on the knee caused by attempting to slide from A flat to C in "Deep River," but to offset these ailments several other members who have been under the weather have returned to form.

The kink in Earl Foy's neck which resulted from trying to sing two parts at once has straightened out and Myron Sheets' lame elbow that hampered him in holding his music has responded to treatment. Midget Beall, the 300-pounder whose waistline has been a source of worry, has tapered down so that he hopes to be able to wear Dr. Dippel's spare tuxedo and still be able to breathe.

So all of the wrinkles of worry have been erased from the brow of Director Stevens with the boys on tiptoe for the opening number. The concert promises to be the outstanding event of the winter season.

PERL'S APPOINTED
FOR SECOND YEAR

Word has just been received in Medford that the Perl Funeral Home has again been appointed as the member of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community. The Order of the Golden Rule is an international affiliation of funeral directors, having certain high ideals of service, and rigid ethical standards.

Membership is not permanent, and may be revoked at any time by the order. Each year affiliation with the order automatically expires, and the record of each member for the preceding year is then taken into consideration before he is again accepted into this fellowship. Perl has been twice appointed to uphold the high ideals of the order in this community.

The symbol of the order, by which one may, in nearly any community, identify the local member, represents a knight in full armor, supporting with his right hand a shield, upon which is emblazoned the motto of the order: "Service Measured Not by Gold, but by the Golden Rule." In his left hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as though to signify his readiness to defend the sentiment his shield expresses.

A Big Glass of
Pabst Blue
Ribbon Beer
5c
COFFEE ANN'S
Main and Front

Be correctly cosseted in an Artist Model by
Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann.

Suits cleaned and pressed, 85c. Dresses 75c up. Tel. 835-J. Economy Cleaner, 1728 No. Riverside.

VACUUM CLEANERS
For Rent and For Sale
NEW AND USED
HAL HAIGHT
310 So. Riverside. Phone 292-J.

SHORTER COLDS
VICKS
PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

First Formal
CONCERT
MEDFORD
GLEEMEN
Tues. Jan. 23rd
Medford High School
Auditorium
Admission 50c

Associate memberships available at $2.00, entitling holder to 3 seats at each of the two concerts. On sale at Medford Chamber of Commerce.

Justice Court
IMPOSED ON IS
COLEMAN'S IDEA

"If the defendants have money, they are tried and fined, in their city court, and if they are broke they are sent to the Medford Justice Court," said Justice of the Peace William Coleman this morning. "I am going to look into this."

The comment was made during the trial of Ernest Fields, a prizefighter, and David Wingham, residents of Jacksonville, who plead guilty to disorderly conduct during the Saturday night dance in the pioneer town. They were fined $10 and costs each. Wingham paid $7.50 and agreed to pay the balance the first of the month. Fields returned to work in Klamath Falls and promised to remit in two weeks.

The arrests were made by Deputy Sheriff Phil H. Stansbury. The court asked why the arrests were not made by the city marshal, and why this and similar cases are not tried in incorporated towns where the arrests are made, and the alleged crimes committed.

Jacksonville has a good marshal, and a fine jail," the court observed. "There is no use shifting the expense on the county, from city courts."

Fields admitted he was intoxicated, and had no idea what he had done. Wingham was less hazy but claimed he had returned to the dance to recover a pocketbook he charged some one had taken.

The testimony claimed both were belligerent, and looking for battle and that Wingham had taken off his coat on a street corner, and prepared for action.

Tom O'Connor, Yreka, Calif., employed in CCC camp 1145 in Siskiyou county, pled guilty to reckless driving on the Pacific highway, and was fined $25 and costs. He denied intoxication. He ran his car into the bank at the overhead crossing in Ashland. The car is in a Lithia City garage awaiting repairs.

Miss Barbara Holt, the president, presented the program and announced the numbers as follows:

"Child Life in Colonial Days," by Alice Morse Star, read by Miss Elizabeth Vilm. This paper gave a vivid and entertaining description of Colonial childhood; the dress and manners of the children of that period, as well as their play with home-made toys, their handwork and other tasks, their schools, books and religious training.

Miss Joan DeLoach sang two lovely songs, "In the Garden of My Heart," and "Sylvia." She was accompanied on the violin by Miss Esther Alexander, with Mrs. Guy Petteplace at the piano.

"The Two Roosevelts," by Miss Jean Gillings was much appreciated. It was interesting to note that although members of different political parties and differing so widely in temperament and personality, the political fortunes of the two Roosevelts, Theodore and Franklin D., have been so similar. Both men have served their country, at different times, in several

At Free Methodist Church

FATHER STRANGLES
TWO LITTLE SONS
IN RELIGIOUS FIT

(Continued from page one)

"We must take the word to my cousin, Jans Jansen, in Centralia."

The two were jailed at the minister's request for a sanitary examination. The minister was unable to arouse neighbors that evening, but yesterday succeeded in notifying one of them, Mrs. Carl Alheim. She discovered the bodies.

In his confession, Heatness related that he had killed John on Tuesday of last week, and Henry on Wednesday.

Pavor Grows.

Heatness' religious fervor had been pronounced in recent weeks, neighbors said, with psalm singing and shouting coming almost incessantly

5 ARRESTED NEAR
BIG LIQUOR STILL

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Five men arrested Friday night and Saturday in the vicinity of a huge alcohol still in the Felida section, have entered pleas of not guilty to charges of distilling without a government license, and have been bound over to the federal grand jury.

They are Harold Anderson, Joaquin Acuer, Bob Jackson, William Barnett and J. M. Seymour.

A woman, Lorella Whitlock, 43, a Portland nurse, was released.

The federal officers who conducted the raid found 11,000 gallons of working alcohol, and more than 1000 gallons of mash.

JUSTICE COURT

At Free Methodist Church

FATHER STRANGLES
TWO LITTLE SONS
IN RELIGIOUS FIT

(Continued from page one)

"We must take the word to my cousin, Jans Jansen, in Centralia."

The two were jailed at the minister's request for a sanitary examination. The minister was unable to arouse neighbors that evening, but yesterday succeeded in notifying one of them, Mrs. Carl Alheim. She discovered the bodies.

In his confession, Heatness related that he had killed John on Tuesday of last week, and Henry on Wednesday.

Pavor Grows.

Heatness' religious fervor had been pronounced in recent weeks, neighbors said, with psalm singing and shouting coming almost incessantly

5 ARRESTED NEAR
BIG LIQUOR STILL

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Five men arrested Friday night and Saturday in the vicinity of a huge alcohol still in the Felida section, have entered pleas of not guilty to charges of distilling without a government license, and have been bound over to the federal grand jury.

They are Harold Anderson, Joaquin Acuer, Bob Jackson, William Barnett and J. M. Seymour.

A woman, Lorella Whitlock, 43, a Portland nurse, was released.

The federal officers who conducted the raid found 11,000 gallons of working alcohol, and more than 1000 gallons of mash.

GLEEMEN IN TOP FORM
FOR FEATURE CONCERT
TOMORROW EVENING

Tapering off training yesterday with a few miles of road work to keep their wind in shape, the Glee-men are all ready for their concert tomorrow night.

Except for a few minor casualties every member is in fine shape and prepared to go the entire route without any substitutions. "Doc" Shockley's arches are bothering him a little, especially in his lower register and John Kirkpatrick has a wad on the knee caused by attempting to slide from A flat to C in "Deep River," but to offset these ailments several other members who have been under the weather have returned to form.

The kink in Earl Foy's neck which resulted from trying to sing two parts at once has straightened out and Myron Sheets' lame elbow that hampered him in holding his music has responded to treatment. Midget Beall, the 300-pounder whose waistline has been a source of worry, has tapered down so that he hopes to be able to wear Dr. Dippel's spare tuxedo and still be able to breathe.

So all of the wrinkles of worry have been erased from the brow of Director Stevens with the boys on tiptoe for the opening number. The concert promises to be the outstanding event of the winter season.

PERL'S APPOINTED
FOR SECOND YEAR

Word has just been received in Medford that the Perl Funeral Home has again been appointed as the member of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community. The Order of the Golden Rule is an international affiliation of funeral directors, having certain high ideals of service, and rigid ethical standards.

Membership is not permanent, and may be revoked at any time by the order. Each year affiliation with the order automatically expires, and the record of each member for the preceding year is then taken into consideration before he is again accepted into this fellowship. Perl has been twice appointed to uphold the high ideals of the order in this community.

The symbol of the order, by which one may, in nearly any community, identify the local member, represents a knight in full armor, supporting with his right hand a shield, upon which is emblazoned the motto of the order: "Service Measured Not by Gold, but by the Golden Rule." In his left hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as though to signify his readiness to defend the sentiment his shield expresses.

A Big Glass of
Pabst Blue
Ribbon Beer
5c
COFFEE ANN'S
Main and Front

Be correctly cosseted in
an Artist Model by
Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann.

Suits cleaned and pressed, 85c. Dresses 75c up. Tel. 835-J. Economy Cleaner, 1728 No. Riverside.

VACUUM CLEANERS
For Rent and For Sale
NEW AND USED
HAL HAIGHT
310 So. Riverside. Phone 292-J.

SHORTER COLDS
VICKS
PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

First Formal
CONCERT
MEDFORD
GLEEMEN
Tues. Jan. 23rd
Medford High School
Auditorium
Admission 50c

Associate memberships available at $2.00, entitling holder to 3 seats at each of the two concerts. On sale at Medford Chamber of Commerce.

Justice Court
IMPOSED ON IS
COLEMAN'S IDEA

"If the defendants have money, they are tried and fined, in their city court, and if they are broke they are sent to the Medford Justice Court," said Justice of the Peace William Coleman this morning. "I am going to look into this."

The comment was made during the trial of Ernest Fields, a prizefighter, and David Wingham, residents of Jacksonville, who plead guilty to disorderly conduct during the Saturday night dance in the pioneer town. They were fined $10 and costs each. Wingham paid $7.50 and agreed to pay the balance the first of the month. Fields returned to work in Klamath Falls and promised to remit in two weeks.

The arrests were made by Deputy Sheriff Phil H. Stansbury. The court asked why the arrests were not made by the city marshal, and why this and similar cases are not tried in incorporated towns where the arrests are made, and the alleged crimes committed.

Jacksonville has a good marshal, and a fine jail," the court observed. "There is no use shifting the expense on the county, from city courts."

Fields admitted he was intoxicated, and had no idea what he had done. Wingham was less hazy but claimed he had returned to the dance to recover a pocketbook he charged some one had taken.

The testimony claimed both were belligerent, and looking for battle and that Wingham had taken off his coat on a street corner, and prepared for action.

Tom O'Connor, Yreka, Calif., employed in CCC camp 1145 in Siskiyou county, pled guilty to reckless driving on the Pacific highway, and was fined $25 and costs. He denied intoxication. He ran his car into the bank at the overhead crossing in Ashland. The car is in a Lithia City garage awaiting repairs.

Miss Barbara Holt, the president, presented the program and announced the numbers as follows:

"Child Life in Colonial Days," by Alice Morse Star, read by Miss Elizabeth Vilm. This paper gave a vivid and entertaining description of Colonial childhood; the dress and manners of the children of that period, as well as their play with home-made toys, their handwork and other tasks, their schools, books and religious training.

Miss Joan DeLoach sang two lovely songs, "In the Garden of My Heart," and "Sylvia." She was accompanied on the violin by Miss Esther Alexander, with Mrs. Guy Petteplace at the piano.

"The Two Roosevelts," by Miss Jean Gillings was much appreciated. It was interesting to note that although members of different political parties and differing so widely in temperament and personality, the political fortunes of the two Roosevelts, Theodore and Franklin D., have been so similar. Both men have served their country, at different times, in several

GLEEMEN IN TOP FORM
FOR FEATURE CONCERT
TOMORROW EVENING

Tapering off training yesterday with a few miles of road work to keep their wind in shape, the Glee-men are all ready for their concert tomorrow night.

Except for a few minor casualties every member is in fine shape and prepared to go the entire route without any substitutions. "Doc" Shockley's arches are bothering him a little, especially in his lower register and John Kirkpatrick has a wad on the knee caused by attempting to slide from A flat to C in "Deep River," but to offset these ailments several other members who have been under the weather have returned to form.

The kink in Earl Foy's neck which resulted from trying to sing two parts at once has straightened out and Myron Sheets' lame elbow that hampered him in holding his music has responded to treatment. Midget Beall, the 300-pounder whose waistline has been a source of worry, has tapered down so that he hopes to be able to wear Dr. Dippel's spare tuxedo and still be able to breathe.

So all of the wrinkles of worry have been erased from the brow of Director Stevens with the boys on tiptoe for the opening number. The concert promises to be the outstanding event of the winter season.

PERL'S APPOINTED
FOR SECOND YEAR

Word has just been received in Medford that the Perl Funeral Home has again been appointed as the member of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community. The Order of the Golden Rule is an international affiliation of funeral directors, having certain high ideals of service, and rigid ethical standards.

Membership is not permanent, and may be revoked at any time by the order. Each year affiliation with the order automatically expires, and the record of each member for the preceding year is then taken into consideration before he is again accepted into this fellowship. Perl has been twice appointed to uphold the high ideals of the order in this community.

The symbol of the order, by which one may, in nearly any community, identify the local member, represents a knight in full armor, supporting with his right hand a shield, upon which is emblazoned the motto of the order: "Service Measured Not by Gold, but by the Golden Rule." In his left hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as though to signify his readiness to defend the sentiment his shield expresses.

A Big Glass of
Pabst Blue
Ribbon Beer
5c
COFFEE ANN'S
Main and Front

Be correctly cosseted in
an Artist Model by
Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann.

Suits cleaned and pressed, 85c. Dresses 75c up. Tel. 835-J. Economy Cleaner, 1728 No. Riverside.

At Free Methodist Church

FATHER STRANGLES
TWO LITTLE SONS
IN RELIGIOUS FIT

(Continued from page one)

"We must take the word to my cousin, Jans Jansen, in Centralia."

The two were jailed at the minister's request for a sanitary examination. The minister was unable to arouse neighbors that evening, but yesterday succeeded in notifying one of them, Mrs. Carl Alheim. She discovered the bodies.

In his confession, Heatness related that he had killed John on Tuesday of last week, and Henry on Wednesday.

Pavor Grows.

Heatness' religious fervor had been pronounced in recent weeks, neighbors said, with psalm singing and shouting coming almost incessantly

5 ARRESTED NEAR
BIG LIQUOR STILL

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Five men arrested Friday night and Saturday in the vicinity of a huge alcohol still in the Felida section, have entered pleas of not guilty to charges of distilling without a government license, and have been bound over to the federal grand jury.

They are Harold Anderson, Joaquin Acuer, Bob Jackson, William Barnett and J. M. Seymour.

A woman, Lorella Whitlock, 43, a Portland nurse, was released.

The federal officers who conducted the raid found 11,000 gallons of working alcohol, and more than 1000 gallons of mash.

GLEEMEN IN TOP FORM
FOR FEATURE CONCERT
TOMORROW EVENING

Tapering off training yesterday with a few miles of road work to keep their wind in shape, the Glee-men are all ready for their concert tomorrow night.

Except for a few minor casualties every member is in fine shape and prepared to go the entire route without any substitutions. "Doc" Shockley's arches are bothering him a little, especially in his lower register and John Kirkpatrick has a wad on the knee caused by attempting to slide from A flat to C in "Deep River," but to offset these ailments several other members who have been under the weather have returned to form.

The kink in Earl Foy's neck which resulted from trying to sing two parts at once has straightened out and Myron Sheets' lame elbow that hampered him in holding his music has responded to treatment. Midget Beall, the 300-pounder whose waistline has been a source of worry, has tapered down so that he hopes to be able to wear Dr. Dippel's spare tuxedo and still be able to breathe.

So all of the wrinkles of worry have been erased from the brow of Director Stevens with the boys on tiptoe for the opening number. The concert promises to be the outstanding event of the winter season.

PERL'S APPOINTED
FOR SECOND YEAR

Word has just been received in Medford that the Perl Funeral Home has again been appointed as the member of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community. The Order of the Golden Rule is an international affiliation of funeral directors, having certain high ideals of service, and rigid ethical standards.

Membership is not permanent, and may be revoked at any time by the order. Each year affiliation with the order automatically expires, and the record of each member for the preceding year is then taken into consideration before he is again accepted into this fellowship. Perl has been twice appointed to uphold the high ideals of the order in this community.

The symbol of the order, by which one may, in nearly any community, identify the local member, represents a knight in full armor, supporting with his right hand a shield, upon which is emblazoned the motto of the order: "Service Measured Not by Gold, but by the Golden Rule." In his left hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as though to signify his readiness to defend the sentiment his shield expresses.

A Big Glass of
Pabst Blue
Ribbon Beer
5c
COFFEE ANN'S
Main and Front

Be correctly cosseted in
an Artist Model by
Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann.

Suits cleaned and pressed, 85c. Dresses 75c up. Tel. 835-J. Economy Cleaner, 1728 No. Riverside.

VACUUM CLEANERS
For Rent and For Sale
NEW AND USED
HAL HAIGHT
310 So. Riverside. Phone 292-J.

SHORTER COLDS
VICKS
PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

First Formal
CONCERT
MEDFORD
GLEEMEN
Tues. Jan. 23rd
Medford High School
Auditorium
Admission 50c

Associate memberships available at $2.00, entitling holder to 3 seats at each of the two concerts. On sale at Medford Chamber of Commerce.

Justice Court
IMPOSED ON IS
COLEMAN'S IDEA

"If the defendants have money, they are tried and fined, in their city court, and if they are broke they are sent to the Medford Justice Court," said Justice of the Peace William Coleman this morning. "I am going to look into this."

The comment was made during the trial of Ernest Fields, a prizefighter, and David Wingham, residents of Jacksonville, who plead guilty to disorderly conduct during the Saturday night dance in the pioneer town. They were fined $10 and costs each. Wingham paid $7.50 and agreed to pay the balance the first of the month. Fields returned to work in Klamath Falls and promised to remit in two weeks.

The arrests were made by Deputy Sheriff Phil H. Stansbury. The court asked why the arrests were not made by the city marshal, and why this and similar cases are not tried in incorporated towns where the arrests are made, and the alleged crimes committed.

Jacksonville has a good marshal, and a fine jail," the court observed. "There is no use shifting the expense on the county, from city courts."

Fields admitted he was intoxicated, and had no idea what he had done. Wingham was less hazy but claimed he had returned to the dance to recover a pocketbook he charged some one had taken.

The testimony claimed both were belligerent, and looking for battle and that Wingham had taken off his coat on a street corner, and prepared for action.

Tom O'Connor, Yreka, Calif., employed in CCC camp 1145 in Siskiyou county, pled guilty to reckless driving on the Pacific highway, and was fined $25 and costs. He denied intoxication. He ran his car into the bank at the overhead crossing in Ashland. The car is in a Lithia City garage awaiting repairs.

Miss Barbara Holt, the president, presented the program and announced the numbers as follows:

"Child Life in Colonial Days," by Alice Morse Star, read by Miss Elizabeth Vilm. This paper gave a vivid and entertaining description of Colonial childhood; the dress and manners of the children of that period, as well as their play with home-made toys, their handwork and other tasks, their schools, books and religious training.

Miss Joan DeLoach sang two lovely songs, "In the Garden of My Heart," and "Sylvia." She was accompanied on the violin by Miss Esther Alexander, with Mrs. Guy Petteplace at the piano.

"The Two Roosevelts," by Miss Jean Gillings was much appreciated. It was interesting to note that although members of different political parties and differing so widely in temperament and personality, the political fortunes of the two Roosevelts, Theodore and Franklin D., have been so similar. Both men have served their country, at different times, in several

GLEEMEN IN TOP FORM
FOR FEATURE CONCERT
TOMORROW EVENING

Tapering off training yesterday with a few miles of road work to keep their wind in shape, the Glee-men are all ready for their concert tomorrow night.

Except for a few minor casualties every member is in fine shape and prepared to go the entire route without any substitutions. "Doc" Shockley's arches are bothering him a little, especially in his lower register and John Kirkpatrick has a wad on the knee caused by attempting to slide from A flat to C in "Deep River," but to offset these ailments several other members who have been under the weather have returned to form.

The kink in Earl Foy's neck which resulted from trying to sing two parts at once has straightened out and Myron Sheets' lame elbow that hampered him in holding his music has responded to treatment. Midget Beall, the 300-pounder whose waistline has been a source of worry, has tapered down so that he hopes to be able to wear Dr. Dippel's spare tuxedo and still be able to breathe.

So all of the wrinkles of worry have been erased from the brow of Director Stevens with the boys on tiptoe for the opening number. The concert promises to be the outstanding event of the winter season.

PERL'S APPOINTED
FOR SECOND YEAR

Word has just been received in Medford that the Perl Funeral Home has again been appointed as the member of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community. The Order of the Golden Rule is an international affiliation of funeral directors, having certain high ideals of service, and rigid ethical standards.

Membership is not permanent, and may be revoked at any time by the order. Each year affiliation with the order automatically expires, and the record of each member for the preceding year is then taken into consideration before he is again accepted into this fellowship. Perl has been twice appointed to uphold the high ideals of the order in this community.

The symbol of the order, by which one may, in nearly any community, identify the local member, represents a knight in full armor, supporting with his right hand a shield, upon which is emblazoned the motto of the order: "Service Measured Not by Gold, but by the Golden Rule." In his left hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as though to signify his readiness to defend the sentiment his shield expresses.

A Big Glass of
Pabst Blue
Ribbon Beer
5c
COFFEE ANN'S
Main and Front

At Free Methodist Church

FATHER STRANGLES
TWO LITTLE SONS
IN RELIGIOUS FIT

(Continued from page one)

"We must take the word to my cousin, Jans Jansen, in Centralia."

The two were jailed at the minister's request for a sanitary examination. The minister was unable to arouse neighbors that evening, but yesterday succeeded in notifying one of them, Mrs. Carl Alheim. She discovered the bodies.

In his confession, Heatness related that he had killed John on Tuesday of last week, and Henry on Wednesday.

Pavor Grows.

Heatness' religious fervor had been pronounced in recent weeks, neighbors said, with psalm singing and shouting coming almost incessantly

5 ARRESTED NEAR
BIG LIQUOR STILL

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Five men arrested Friday night and Saturday in the vicinity of a huge alcohol still in the Felida section, have entered pleas of not guilty to charges of distilling without a government license, and have been bound over to the federal grand jury.

They are Harold Anderson, Joaquin Acuer, Bob Jackson, William Barnett and J. M. Seymour.

A woman, Lorella Whitlock, 43, a Portland nurse, was released.

The federal officers who conducted the raid found 11,000 gallons of working alcohol, and more than 1000 gallons of mash.

GLEEMEN IN TOP FORM
FOR FEATURE CONCERT
TOMORROW EVENING

Tapering off training yesterday with a few miles of road work to keep their wind in shape, the Glee-men are all ready for their concert tomorrow night.

Except for a few minor casualties every member is in fine shape and prepared to go the entire route without any substitutions. "Doc" Shockley's arches are bothering him a little, especially in his lower register and John Kirkpatrick has a wad on the knee caused by attempting to slide from A flat to C in "Deep River," but to offset these ailments several other members who have been under the weather have returned to form.

The kink in Earl Foy's neck which resulted from trying to sing two parts at once has straightened out and Myron Sheets' lame elbow that hampered him in holding his music has responded to treatment. Midget Beall, the 300-pounder whose waistline has been a source of worry, has tapered down so that he hopes to be able to wear Dr. Dippel's spare tuxedo and still be able to breathe.

So all of the wrinkles of worry have been erased from the brow of Director Stevens with the boys on tiptoe for the opening number. The concert promises to be the outstanding event of the winter season.

PERL'S APPOINTED
FOR SECOND YEAR

Word has just been received in Medford that the Perl Funeral Home has again been appointed as the member of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community. The Order of the Golden Rule is an international affiliation of funeral directors, having certain high ideals of service, and rigid ethical standards.

Membership is not permanent, and may be revoked at any time by the order. Each year affiliation with the order automatically expires, and the record of each member for the preceding year is then taken into consideration before he is again accepted into this fellowship. Perl has been twice appointed to uphold the high ideals of the order in this community.

The symbol of the order, by which one may, in nearly any community, identify the local member, represents a knight in full armor, supporting with his right hand a shield, upon which is emblazoned the motto of the order: "Service Measured Not by Gold, but by the Golden Rule." In his left hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as though to signify his readiness to defend the sentiment his shield expresses.

A Big Glass of
Pabst Blue
Ribbon Beer
5c
COFFEE ANN'S
Main and Front

Be correctly cosseted in
an Artist Model by
Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann.

Suits cleaned and pressed, 85c. Dresses 75c up. Tel. 835-J. Economy Cleaner, 1728 No. Riverside.

VACUUM CLEANERS
For Rent and For Sale
NEW AND USED
HAL HAIGHT
310 So. Riverside. Phone 292-J.

SHORTER COLDS
VICKS
PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

First Formal
CONCERT
MEDFORD
GLEEMEN
Tues. Jan. 23rd
Medford High School
Auditorium
Admission 50c

Associate memberships available at $2.00, entitling holder to 3 seats at each of the two concerts. On sale at Medford Chamber of Commerce.

Justice Court
IMPOSED ON IS
COLEMAN'S IDEA

"If the defendants have money, they are tried and fined, in their city court, and if they are broke they are sent to the Medford Justice Court," said Justice of the Peace William Coleman this morning. "I am going to look into this."

The comment was made during the trial of Ernest Fields, a prizefighter, and David Wingham, residents of Jacksonville, who plead guilty to disorderly conduct during the Saturday night dance in the pioneer town. They were fined $10 and costs each. Wingham paid $7.50 and agreed to pay the balance the first of the month. Fields returned to work in Klamath Falls and promised to remit in two weeks.

The arrests were made by Deputy Sheriff Phil H. Stansbury. The court asked why the arrests were not made by the city marshal, and why this and similar cases are not tried in incorporated towns where the arrests are made, and the alleged crimes committed.

Jacksonville has a good marshal, and a fine jail," the court observed. "There is no use shifting the expense on the county, from city courts."

Fields admitted he was intoxicated, and had no idea what he had done. Wingham was less hazy but claimed he had returned to the dance to recover a pocketbook he charged some one had taken.

The testimony claimed both were belligerent, and looking for battle and that Wingham had taken off his coat on a street corner, and prepared for action.

Tom O'Connor, Yreka, Calif., employed in CCC camp 1145 in Siskiyou county, pled guilty to reckless driving on the Pacific highway, and was fined $25 and costs. He denied intoxication. He ran his car into the bank at the overhead crossing in Ashland. The car is in a Lithia City garage awaiting repairs.

Miss Barbara Holt, the president, presented the program and announced the numbers as follows:

"Child Life in Colonial Days," by Alice Morse Star, read by Miss Elizabeth Vilm. This paper gave a vivid and entertaining description of Colonial childhood; the dress and manners of the children of that period, as well as their play with home-made toys, their handwork and other tasks, their schools, books and religious training.

Miss Joan DeLoach sang two lovely songs, "In the Garden of My Heart," and "Sylvia." She was accompanied on the violin by Miss Esther Alexander, with Mrs. Guy Petteplace at the piano.

"The Two Roosevelts," by Miss Jean Gillings was much appreciated. It was interesting to note that although members of different political parties and differing so widely in temperament and personality, the political fortunes of the two Roosevelts, Theodore and Franklin D., have been so similar. Both men have served their country, at different times, in several

GLEEMEN IN TOP FORM
FOR FEATURE CONCERT
TOMORROW EVENING

Tapering off training yesterday with a few miles of road work to keep their wind in shape, the Glee-men are all ready for their concert tomorrow night.

Except for a few minor casualties every member is in fine shape and prepared to go the entire route without any substitutions. "Doc" Shockley's arches are bothering him a little, especially in his lower register and John Kirkpatrick has a wad on the knee caused by attempting to slide from A flat to C in "Deep River," but to offset these ailments several other members who have been under the weather have returned to form.

The kink in Earl Foy's neck which resulted from trying to sing two parts at once has straightened out and Myron Sheets' lame elbow that hampered him in holding his music has responded to treatment. Midget Beall, the 300-pounder whose waistline has been a source of worry, has tapered down so that he hopes to be able to wear Dr. Dippel's spare tuxedo and still be able to breathe.

So all of the wrinkles of worry have been erased from the brow of Director Stevens with the boys on tiptoe for the opening number. The concert promises to be the outstanding event of the winter season.

PERL'S APPOINTED
FOR SECOND YEAR

Word has just been received in Medford that the Perl Funeral Home has again been appointed as the member of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community. The Order of the Golden Rule is an international affiliation of funeral directors, having certain high ideals of service, and rigid ethical standards.

Membership is not permanent, and may be revoked at any time by the order. Each year affiliation with the order automatically expires, and the record of each member for the preceding year is then taken into consideration before he is again accepted into this fellowship. Perl has been twice appointed to uphold the high ideals of the order in this community.

The symbol of the order, by which one may, in nearly any community, identify the local member, represents a knight in full armor, supporting with his right hand a shield, upon which is emblazoned the motto of the order: "Service Measured Not by Gold, but by the Golden Rule." In his left hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as though to signify his readiness to defend the sentiment his shield expresses.

A Big Glass of
Pabst Blue
Ribbon Beer
5c
COFFEE ANN'S
Main and Front

At Free Methodist Church

FATHER STRANGLES
TWO LITTLE SONS
IN RELIGIOUS FIT

(Continued from page one)

"We must take the word to my cousin, Jans Jansen, in Centralia."

The two were jailed at the minister's request for a sanitary examination. The minister was unable to arouse neighbors that evening, but yesterday succeeded in notifying one of them, Mrs. Carl Alheim. She discovered the bodies.

In his confession, Heatness related that he had killed John on Tuesday of last week, and Henry on Wednesday.

Pavor Grows.

Heatness' religious fervor had been pronounced in recent weeks, neighbors said, with psalm singing and shouting coming almost incessantly

5 ARRESTED NEAR
BIG LIQUOR STILL

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 22.—(AP)—Five men arrested Friday night and Saturday in the vicinity of a huge alcohol still in the Felida section, have entered pleas of not guilty to charges of distilling without a government license, and have been bound over to the federal grand jury.

They are Harold Anderson, Joaquin Acuer, Bob Jackson, William Barnett and J. M.