

TWO GIRLS MET FOUL PLAY, FEAR K. F. OFFICIALS

Cosmeticians Who Dropped Out of Sight in Klamath Crime Victims Is Firm Belief After Long Hunt

KLAMATH FALLS, Jan. 23.—(AP)—L. L. Low, Klamath county sheriff, this morning expected to forward information of Audrey Mardelle and Doris Sparks, missing since November 11, to the federal department of justice of Portland. The sheriff said he might have the report compiled this afternoon.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Death in some violent shape was believed by officials here today to have been the fate of two girls, Audrey Mardelle and Doris Sparks, who disappeared in Klamath Falls Nov. 12 while en route from Spokane to San Francisco.

Sheriff Lloyd L. Low said "There is no doubt in our minds that these two young women have been victims of a crime, undoubtedly in this vicinity."

Officers have traced them to Klamath Falls, where they had dinner at a hotel the night of Nov. 12. They were to have met Miss Sparks' fiancé, Edward Macosone of San Francisco here, and to have visited Miss Mardelle's father, N. M. Streeter. They kept neither engagement.

Highway checking stations at the California line have no record of an automobile bearing the license number of Miss Mardelle's car. Rangers on duty recently made a thorough search of Crater Lake National Park but found no trace of the girls or their car.

It is possible, state police say, the young women may have decided to drive through the park toward Medford, and that they had an accident. Deep snows in the park may have covered their car and bodies in event they crashed over a grade. Police say, too, a transient may have forced the girls onto a lonely road and killed them, hiding their automobile.

Epworth League Initiates Members

Sunday evening at 8:30, 18 new members were initiated into the Epworth league of the First Methodist Episcopal church, with an impressive candlelight service.

In league colors, red and white, the league emblem, a Maltese cross with a circle in the center, was laid out on the floor. Exactly in the center of this inner circle the altar was placed.

The four vice-presidents, Beatrice Gillette, Mildred Walker, Margaret Bateman and Marvin Burk, were stationed at candlelit stands, one on each side of the altar.

The candidates, led in by Josephine Power, were greeted by the secretary, and led through to aisles of the cross, while the audience and league members sang.

After repeating and signing the Epworth league pledge, and giving their evening offering, they were given their membership cards and led to seats of honor.

Special music was played by the newly organized league orchestra.

The fourth vice-president, Marvin Burk, announced that next Friday evening a party will be given in honor of the new members.

The 18 new members are: Ruth Clark, Helen Chirwin, Beatrice Jones, Aileen Latham, Ruth Leclerc, Peggy Nagel, Betty Paake, Eleanor Poffenbarger, Jeanette Trill, Lawrence and Robert Cuffel, Lester Pate, Dwight Short and Laurel Morris.

EARLY BUILDINGS OF LOCAL REGION EYED FOR RECORD

For the purpose of drafting permanent records of historical America, a movement sponsored by the federal department of interior, Jameson Parker, Portland architect, is spending today in Medford and surrounding territory, obtaining information for the survey.

Significant buildings of early American life, to be recorded by a series of drawings, photographs and notes are being selected throughout the country to be placed on file permanently at Washington, Mr. Parker said. Men selected from the CWA rolls are carrying out the work of the department, with eight men selected for this state.

Mr. Parker, who is being taken about this section today by Charles Voorhies, pointed out that none of the buildings will be restored, but that information concerning the architecture and history will be gained.

Mr. Parker stated that the eight men for the Oregon work will remain in Portland, as only a short time is allowed to complete the survey, and close co-operation will be necessary.

All primary teachers are urged to be present, and are urged to bring their problems and suggestions to discuss with the group.

Regular Communication of Reames chapter, O. E. S., Wednesday evening, January 24, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments. Visiting members invited. HATTIE M. ALDEN, Secy.

Medford Gleemen to Be Heard in Opening Concert Tonight

PROGRAM OPENS AT 8:15 O'CLOCK IN HIGH SCHOOL

As other fine medford school children may enjoy the Medford Gleemen concert at the high school auditorium tonight a special low student's admission price has been arranged.

Tonight, at 8:15 o'clock, the Medford Gleemen will present their first formal concert of the season, in the auditorium at the senior high school, under the direction of James Stevens, with Sebastian Anolio at the piano.

Members of the men's chorus have been practicing diligently for the program and southern Oregon music lovers are anticipating the presentation tonight.

Through their formal concerts here last season, as well as their visits to granges in Jackson county, the Gleemen have won wide acclaim. A large audience is expected for tonight's concert.

GRAND JURY NEAR END DAHACK QUIZ

The grand jury, Thomas N. Bell, Jr., talent, foreman, is expected to conclude its work by the end of the week, and make its final report at that time.

The body was instructed by the court to make an investigation of the "Dahack case," and report to the court. They were ordered to inspect all the records, from the coroner's jury at the start, to the last grand jury, "and make a report that will be final." Records of testimony in the case have been made ready for the probe.

The grand jury, declared by the court "to be one of exceptional ability and sound judgment," was also to make a report explaining whatever action they took.
