Magician Coming to Craterian

Blackstone, famed magician, comes to the Craterian theater Friday, for a two-day engagement with a company of 80. He crowds no less than 50 different and distinct tricks and illusions into the span of his performance. A 70-foot baggage car is required to transport the paraphernalia and livestock used in the show.

God's Answer to Russia Topic of Howell Sermon

"God's Answer to Russia" was Reverend W. J. Howell's topic Sunday, in his series of sermons on Russia at the Presbyterian church. Activities of the Union of Socialistic Soviet Republics were told by the minister, who also named various organizations opposed to the recognition of Russia by the United States government. Descriptions of various blasphemous caricatures appearing in Russian press were given by Reverend Howell, who declared "Blasphemy has no meaning in Russia." He also told how the organization known as the "Million Godless" was on the increase, the membership in 1926 being 120,000, and in 1932 four millions. The goal for the past year was placed at 17 million members.

Baby LeRoy in Rialto Picture

OTTO KRUGER Will Come To Holly In Picture Thursday

At last, a motion picture with a brilliant lawyer as the central character has been introduced to the screen with an entirely new treatment that threatens to thrill any discriminating audience. It is the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "The Women in His Life," which comes to the Holly Thursday, brings to the screen the one man who can most colorfully portray the most convincing characterizations of lawyers—and that man is Otto Kruger.
