

GLEEMEN ADD TO LOCAL LAURELS IN FINE CONCERT

Singing as they had never sung before (in the words of many members of the audience) with a spirit and finesse which reflected months of training under the splendid leadership of James Stevens, as well as an unlimited love of song, the Medford Gleemen appeared last night at the high school auditorium in their first concert of the season.

Inspired by the masculine interpretation of a wisely chosen program, the capacity crowd applauded again and again, bringing into the evening's entertainment such old favorites as "Sylvia," "River Jordan," "Shortnin' Bread" and "The Bell of St. Mary's."

Particularly interesting and effective in a dramatic way was what the program described as "A Potpourri of Negro Spirituals," with an original prelude, impressionistic of native jungle music, including and arrangements by Alma Pruitt.

"Aframerica" the number was appropriately entitled. A darkened stage preceded its opening, then the weird drumming of the jungle was heard as the white vests of the singers formed ghostly tier upon the stage, while the music alone continued.

In "Cornfield Melodies" and a chorus from Robin Hood, the solo work of M. E. Olson, tenor, and George Peckham, basso, won much praise for the two well-known Medford singers.

- (c) Cornfield Melodies—Incidental Solo, M. E. Olson.
- Arr. by Cecil Gates
- Piano Solo—Rigoletto, Verdi.
- Transcribed by List Sebastian Apollo.
- (a) "Aframerica"—Incidental Tenor Solo, L. N. Roy, by Alma Pruitt
- (b) White Horse—Elinor Warren
- (c) Danny Boy (Londonderry Air) Arr. by Salter
- Chorus, Act 2, Robin Hood—Basso Solo, George Peckham

- (c) The Land Roundup, Arr. for Gleemen by Sebastian Apollo

The piano for the concert was furnished by the Baldwin Piano Shoppe, and floral decorations from the Medford Flower shop added beauty to the stage.

Central Pt. Enjoys Revival Services Federated Church

Revival meetings at the Central Point Federated church are going forward nicely. For the next 10 days these services will be led by the "Fresh Trio." These men are different. The Gospel message is just the same, both in sermon and in song, but differently presented.

Do the young people like the services? We say they do; and so do the older people. The children are taking hold in the finest fashion, and they are going to get a lot of truth and inspiration that shall help them.

Miss Evangeline Duff is an artist with the vibratory and as song leader, and wonderfully prepares the way of the splendid Gospel messages while her brother, Walter Duff, brings anyone who will to attend these services in person to appreciate the blessing, inspiration, uplift and urge which they bring.

Services each evening until further notice, at 7:30, with a half-hour prayer service at 7 o'clock. All are welcome.

PUBLIC SERVICE TOO OFTEN GOES WITHOUT THANKS

PORTLAND, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Observing that "outstanding men doing good jobs with the general public's interest at heart, go unthanked," Roscoe C. Nelson at a meeting of the junior chamber of commerce here last night, urged that "we develop a sentiment to thank worthy men for good public service."

"I like to see you single out men for recognition this way," Nelson said at the banquet honoring Worth W. Caldwell as Portland's first junior citizen of the past year.

"I know of many men who have foregone public service because there was no encouragement," said Nelson who resigned as chairman of the state board of higher education after a bitter battle of words with a University of Oregon faculty member.

"They get criticism, insults and jibes from the opposition, and little or no thanks or recognition from those who should have patting them on the back and told them they were doing a good job."

"Dr. Knox' report on liquor control, for example," he said, "is an honor to the city of Portland, is a finer work than the Rockefeller report. He has gotten nothing but jibes for it, but it is the only plan possible which would not open the way to return of prohibition. Such men deserve support."

Mr. W. T. Shea will be hostess tomorrow to the Lutheran Ladies' Aid at her home, 35 1/2 South Central. She will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. A. E. Pederson. Guests are asked to arrive at 2:30 o'clock.

BILL CARLE MAY UNDERTAKE RACE FOR LEGISLATURE

At the state primary, May 18, fourteen state and county officials will be nominated.

State officials to be nominated are, a governor, state school superintendent, labor commissioner, two supreme court justices, and a congressman.

County officials will be a circuit judge, a state senator, two representatives, a county judge, a commissioner, a county surveyor, a sheriff and a constable.

The county judge, the commissioner, sheriff, constable, and two representatives will be nominated to fill vacancies, which occurred as result either directly or indirectly of the Banks-Fehl turmoil.

The final date for filing for office is April 3, forty-five days before the election. To date there has been one filing—Robert H. Bell, Democrat, for sheriff.

Senator George Dunn of Ashland, incumbent, is expected to seek reelection. He has served eight years in the past and is regarded as one of the conservative leaders of the legislature.

William N. (Farmer Bill) Carle of the Applegate said recently: "Several of my friends have asked me to make the race for senator, but I don't know about it." Carle ran for the legislature two years ago, and was defeated on a platform upholding the Meier and Joseph power policies, and for more farmer legislation.

Two candidates loom for the circuit judgeship. A. C. Hough of Granta Pass, chief counsel for E. H. Fehl in the ballot theft conviction, is an avowed candidate. Circuit Judge H. D. Norson has stated he "probably would run," but has made no formal declaration.

The judicial elections are non-partisan, and names are printed on a separate ballot. If there are only two judicial candidates their names will not appear on the primary ballot, but will be printed on the general election ballot in November.

CAN'T YOU UNDERSTAND PLAIN ENGLISH?

Jangled nerves bring words that wound

Impatient, nerves on edge—every suggestion sounds like a criticism... Every discussion turns into an angry argument. You hurt those nearest to you and make them wish to avoid you. If this ever happens with you... take care!

Watch your nerves... Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation.

And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

CAMELS — THEY NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

How are YOUR nerves? TEST No. 14

Arrange thirty safety matches on a table (12 inches from the edge)... tips pointing away from you... Hold the empty box with the lid pushed back one inch in your left hand... Now pick up the matches one by one with the right hand... place them in the box as rapidly as you can... all heads facing the same direction. The average time for this test is 45 seconds. What is your score?

"Miss" Thompson (Camel smoker), former football referee, can arrange all the matches in 31 2/3 seconds.
