Shockey Team Wins—When they got the 'Eks' old boys' on a real court, Dr. Shockey's volleyball players came out the winners, they announced today, reporting the game of Monday night, regarding which the Eks had nothing to say yesterday.

The game was played at the Roosevelt school and the 'old men's' team, which had trimmed the younger fellows in the previous encounter, went down to defeat with little struggle. They laid the outcome today to Chuck Clay, who was taken into the Shockey squad Monday. The third game to determine the true standing of the contenders will be played in the early future and will be preceded by many workouts.

Clever Craterian Comic Hit Boasts Fine Cast

This picture looks like it might be the start of another Cuban revolution. Look at Ruth Donnelly's face as she finds her son (Lyle Talbot) and husband (Guy Kibbee) in the company of those two notorious gold diggers, Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell. Seems to have put a damper on the party. Frank McHugh looks as though he might be having a little difficulty in seeing straight. This is only one of the many hilarious situations in "Gold Diggers in Havana" at the Craterian theater Thursday only.

ROOSEVELT BALL TICKETS SELLING LIKE HOT CAKES
Plans for the birthday ball for the president, which Medford hopes to make as successful here, as it promises to be in all other cities of the land, were moving forward today with promise of a crowd for the affair, which will represent a fine contribution to the Warm Springs, Georgia, Foundation for the cure of infantile paralysis.

Plans for the birthday ball for the president, which Medford hopes to make as successful here, as it promises to be in all other cities of the land, were moving forward today with promise of a crowd for the affair, which will represent a fine contribution to the Warm Springs, Georgia, Foundation for the cure of infantile paralysis.

Order for another 500 tickets was made today by Larry Schide, treasurer of the Medford ball, who will have the co-operation of a group of enthusiastic women from the Lady Kiwanians, the Rotary Anna, the Lady Lions, the Lady Activists, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Business and Professional Women's club, the Colony club, the Lady Elks, Eastern Stars, the Eagles' Auxiliary and the Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars in selling the tickets.

A meeting of the general ticket committee has been called for tomorrow evening at the chamber of commerce at 8 o'clock by C. L. Hopkins, chairman. Each member is urged to be present.

People, who are not contacted by the ticket salesmen, are asked to call at the chamber of commerce, the Hotel Medford, the Jackson Hotel and the Hotel Holland, where they will find tickets available. They were placed on sale in those places today.
