PORTLAND TEACHER WAGES UNCERTAIN

PORTLAND, Jan. 24.—(AP)—There is still no assurance that teachers in the Portland school district will receive their salaries for June, July and August.

The school board yesterday refused to adopt a resolution putting the board on record as guaranteeing payment for that period.

Board members agree the future is uncertain.

It sums up to this: If the money isn't available, the voters may be asked to produce it. If the voters refuse and tax payments continue in arrears in large amounts, the salary prospect is not heartening.

Princess Barbara Undisturbed by Separation Caused By Court Order

The honeymoon tour of Princess Barbara Hutton Mdivani (left), $40,000,000 heiress, was interrupted when her husband, Prince Alexis, left their private car in Reno, Nev., to fly to Seattle, Wash., apparently dodging California process servers who had court orders for him to appear as a witness at the trial of his two brothers in Los Angeles this month. Princess Barbara, shown with her secretary, Nancy Allard, aboard the private car in Oakland, Cal., said Prince Alexis had left her "on business."

BALM SUIT BARES TORRID MOMENTS IN COP'S ROMANCE

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—(AP)—The jury that had heard Myrtle Tanner Blacklidge describe Policeman Norman Nottingham's kisses as "neither platonic nor burning, but just kisses," today heard the policeman's seven-year-old daughter say her father "doesn't treat mother nice at all."

Mrs. Blacklidge, former collector of internal revenue, in defending a $100,000 alienation of affections suit, had admitted friendship with the patrolman. But, she contended, she couldn't have robbed Mrs. Susanne Nottingham of a love she didn't hold.

Little Jeanette Nottingham told the jury she and her mother slept in the rear bedroom while her father slept alone in the front room. Had she seen him abuse her mother?

"Yes, sir. Thanksgiving night, 1929, he cut her hands and punched her. That was when she caught him coming from a man's house after he had had Thanksgiving dinner there."

Who was he with? the attorney asked Jeannette.

"Mrs. Blacklidge," said the girl.

Mrs. Nottingham told of nocturnal sleuthing parties during which she peeped through the windows of Mrs. Blacklidge's dress shop and saw her patrolman husband.

Once, she said, Norman Nottingham had his pajamas on, and Mrs. Blacklidge wore "something light; it was pink."

Another time, said Mrs. Nottingham, she climbed on top of a grocery store next door to Mrs. Blacklidge's apartment and then perched on some boxes and bushel baskets to see better into the apartment windows.

Again, she testified, there were her husband and the defendant, this time only partly clad.

"I stayed until the lights went out about 1:30," she said.

PRIVATE FUNERAL HELD FOR COWLES IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—(AP)—The ashes of Roger Cowles, 32, rested in a mausoleum here today following private funeral services, attended only by the parents of the young writer.

Cowles, former Santa Barbara newspaperman, and author of "The San Felipians," published about a year ago, was found dead in his automobile last Saturday. Police said he had killed himself by inhaling the noxious gas from the car exhaust.

Yesterday his body was cremated. Only his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cowles, attended the service.

The man's father said young Cowles had been ill for several months. The father received a telegram from the young man Saturday a few minutes before police discovered his body, stating his intention of ending his life. Frederick Cowles identified himself as a Santa Barbara political writer.

OREGON SAWMILLS GET HUGE ORDER

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 24.—An order through Oregon mills for 2,000,000 feet of Douglas fir lumber has been placed by the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, it was announced here by W. E. Scott, general agent.

The order is equivalent to 100 carloads and the lumber will be shipped over a period of 45 days to the concentration point at Hurton, S. D. It was bought at the minimum lumber code price.

GOVERNOR URGES WIDE OBSERVANCE ROOSEVELT BALL

SALEM, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Governor Julius L. Meier today, in a statement urged the people of Oregon to "enthusiastically join in the nation-wide celebration of President Roosevelt's birthday on January 30." Proceeds of benefit balls, in which Salem has joined in staging such an event, will go to the Warm Springs foundation for the treatment of infantile paralysis.

The governor's brief statement, concluding with the remark "let us send the president a wonderful birthday greeting from Oregon," follows:

"I hope the people of Oregon will enthusiastically join in the nation-wide celebration of President Roosevelt's birthday on January 30.

"All proceeds from the benefit balls which will be held throughout the state will go to the Warm Springs foundation for the treatment of infantile paralysis, a cause very close to the president's heart.

"We have on this occasion an opportunity to offer a fine tribute to our chief executive by aiding the institution which had a great part in restoring his health for the service of his country.

"Let us send the president a wonderful birthday greeting from Oregon."

GAME COMMISSION LEGAL EXPENSE IS SPORTSMAN'S PAIN

PORTLAND, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Declaring he was voicing the sentiments of most of the sportsmen of Oregon whose license fees go to perpetuate game and fish life, J. E. Cullison, former chairman of the state game commission, has filed strenuous objection to what he describes as "exhorbitant expenses involving special legal services" for the commission.

Cullison called attention to a financial report issued by the game department indicating $11,332 has been paid Chester E. McCarty, Portland attorney, for special legal services since March, 1930.

He declared that in a closed session, members of the commission approved McCarty's last voucher calling for payment of $546 for November services. The voucher is now in the hands of the state auditor. This expense was for preparation of CWA applications in connection with the $120,000 rehabilitation program for hatcheries and game farms, and for prosecution of elk law violation cases in Union county.

Chairman Matt F. Corrigan of the commission said the charges have been satisfactorily explained to the commission.

ICKES WILL DEAL WITH GRAFTING IN PWA OPERATIONS

Roosevelt Gives Blanket Authority to Secretary — Off-Color Actions Are Reported From Dozen Areas

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(AP)—President Roosevelt has given Secretary Ickes, the public works administrator, blanket authority to deal as he sees fit with all complaints of "graft" or manipulation of funds on public works projects.

Agents for the civil works administration and the department of justice scanned closely operations of the agency in a dozen sections of the country as the result of disclosures of graft in handling funds of the relief organization.

CWA Also Scanned.

Joseph B. Keenan, assistant attorney general designated to make the civil works investigation for the justice department, said several complaints concerning the operation of the civil works administration has been forwarded to him by Harry L. Hopkins, the administrator.

Public works officials said that because of the elaborate inspection and investigation system set up several months ago in anticipation of possible attempts to manipulate funds in connection with projects, complaints were what they considered a "minimum."

President Roosevelt filed a protest by Governor Lehman of New York as he surveyed the program for terminating the civil works administration in May.

Will Follow CWA Plan.

There was no White House response to Lehman's protest, but it was again indicated that Mr. Roosevelt was planning to adhere closely to his original plan.

The president will disclose his ideas in an early message to congress asking for $350,000,000 additional funds to continue the civil works program until May.

He also will ask an additional $300,000,000 to continue for another year the Civilian Conservation Corps.

It was disclosed that public works inspectors on several projects had been instructed to stand by pay windows in connection with suspicion that contractors might be using the so-called "kickback" system of cutting pay.

Chisel On Workers.

Under this system a worker is carried on the payroll at a certain figure, but receives a few dollars less in his envelope.

For fear of losing his job, the worker hesitates about complaining to the contractor but, with inspectors actively watching disbursement of payrolls, the chances of the "kickback" being used is virtually eliminated.

In one large unnamed midwestern city, inspectors of the public works administration forced one contractor to discontinue the use of the "kickback." It was found he was employing the system through use of tax anticipation warrants which he purchased at a discount and forced the workers to accept for wages at par.
