ADVENTIST CHURCH MAKING PROGRESS, OFFICERS DECLARE

Contributed.

In a recent interview with church officials, Roy E. Hay, district superintendent of the Seventh Day Adventist churches in southwestern Oregon, stated, "A steady advancement has been made during the past year in our churches in this district. The tithe and offerings for November and December were larger than a year ago. There is also a very encouraging increase in membership, making it necessary and desirable to put on a building program at Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass.

At Ashland, under the leadership of pastor Wm. Lewsadder, a substantial addition to the church building is nearing completion, while in Medford improvements amounting to approximately one thousand dollars have been made. And, said Mr. Hay, "we are not through yet as the increase in our membership from the present evangelistic effort makes it necessary to give consideration to the enlargement of our church building at the corner of Edwards and Beatty streets, in order to relieve the present crowded condition.

The congregation at Grants Pass has outgrown its present meeting place and a new church is being considered.

Three church schools, giving employment to seven teachers for the full term of nine months are being operated in this district. Our Rogue River Junior Academy, under the leadership of Professor L. H. Booth, is making a splendid record.

When asked about certain public statements recently made by those opposing the work of the Seventh Day Adventists, Mr. Hay replied, "Any man has a right to tell why he left the Seventh Day Adventist church, or any other church. No doubt such a person would have some reason which appealed to him, whether Biblical or not, for so doing. But we should not forget that there are hundreds of other men and women in Medford and vicinity who will be glad to tell why they are members of the Seventh Day Adventist church. They will be glad to give you the chapter and verse in the Bible commanding the observance of the Sabbath, the seventh day of the week. Those who observe Sunday are at a loss to find such a command for Sunday observance."
