

HOT HOOP SERIES TO OPEN TONIGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL

Who: Jr. High vs. Parrish Jr. of Salem. Tigers vs. St. Mary's All-Stars. Friday. Tigers vs. Laing's All-Stars Saturday.

By Harold Grove. Excited feelings will be given a chance to air out when the scrappy little Bulldogs of the Medford Junior High clash with the Senators of the Parrish Junior High of Salem tonight at 8 p. m., and Saturday night at 9 p. m.

The Juniors have won but one game in the series with the Senators. However, Parrish has had to fight to their utmost to win. All of the games have been decided in the last few minutes.

Coach Henderson of the Medford Junior High says his boys are in the best of shape for the contest. Bob Hayes, regular forward, and tied for high point honors with Oliver, will probably be out of the lineup for the rest of the season. He has been in the hospital for the past two weeks with a severe cold.

Coach Brown of the Parrish quintet says that his boys are in good condition, although they went through a hard game with Ashland last night.

The Tigers of Medford high for the first time this season will play the All-Stars of St. Mary's in the preliminary. This game is predicted to be a hair-raising thriller. The All-Stars have defeated every quintet of any importance in the valley and are of the opinion that they will give the Tigers something to worry about.

Saturday night's contest between the Tigers and Laing's of Grants Pass is what critics term a "tough" ball game.

A large crowd of Medford and Ashland fans are expected to see the contests. The Parrishers defeated the Ashland Juniors last night.

Practically the entire Junior High student body has signified its intention of being out to support the team. Probable starting lineups for the game:

Jr. High—Parrish Root—Skopli Ettinger—Freeman Oliver—Chiles Luman—Hoffert Luman—Henderson Medford High—St. Mary's Curtis—D. Lewis Luman—F. Lewis Ettinger—C. Quisenberry Grove—Trill Steuert—G. Sakraida

KLAMATH WILL PLAY AT ASHLAND TONIGHT ASHLAND, Jan. 26.—(Sp.)—Klamath Falls Pelicans will be in Ashland tonight for a game with the Libians, which will be followed by a return game between the two teams Saturday night at Klamath Falls.

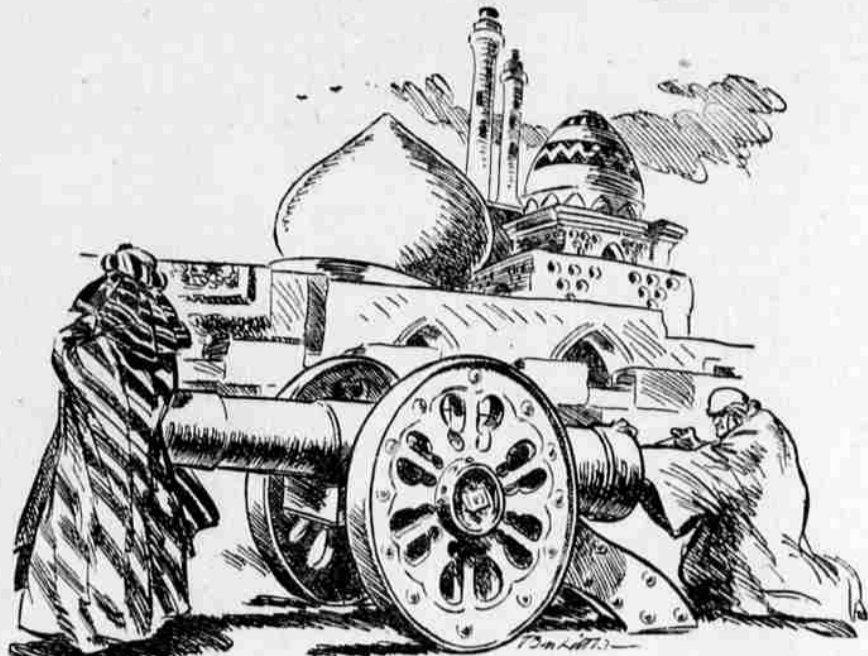

The games will be the first between the two teams this season. Ashland will face a quintet which has defeated some of the strongest southern Oregon hoopers, including the squad at Medford.

The game at Klamath will be a preliminary to the SONS-Multnomah Athletic club contest.

GOLFERS GATHER FOR RIVERSIDE TOURNAY RIVERSIDE, Cal., Jan. 26.—(AP)—A goodly share of golf's great and near-great came today to the cradle of the sport in southern California, seeking the winner's share of the $2,000 prize money pooled for the first annual Riverside amateur-pro championship.

The qualifying rounds of 18 holes today and tomorrow will send the 30 leading teams and tie each day into Sunday's final test for the title.

Blackstone's Cannon Brings New Stage Thrill

"Blown Into Eternity," based on an incident in the Sepoy mutiny in India and described as the final word in sensationalism, is only one of the many tricks and illusions used by Blackstone, famous magician, in his stage act at the Craterian theater today and Saturday.

On the screen, Zasu Pitta, El Brendel, Pert Kelton, Jimmy Gleason and Skeets Gallagher have the leads in "The Meanest Gal in Town," a story of the hilarious adventures that befall a "Romeo-istic" barber who falls in love with a show girl.

On the Saturday matinee show, Blackstone will pluck a score of bunnies from the thin air and present the pets to the kiddies.

SONS FROSH WIN 20-16 OVER TIGER BY FINAL RALLY

By Harold Grove. Displaying a fast-breaking offense and a last minute rally, the Southern Oregon Normal freshmen defeated the scrappy Tigers, 20 to 16 at the high school gym last night before a scrumy crowd.

The Tigers opened up with a passing and scoring attack that kept them in the lead until the last four and a half minutes of the game. Four of the Southern Oregon Normal school "Elephants" were in the freshman lineup. Foreman, high point man for the evening, played his third year against the Tigers. He played against the Tigers when he was a member of the Salem high quintet two and three years ago and last year when he played with the University of Oregon super-varsity.

Bradcock, freshman forward, started the scoring with a free throw, then Hinman, Medford center, pushed the oval over the rim for the first basket of the evening and the edge for Medford that was held until the final minutes of the game.

The score at the half time was 10 to 9 in Medford's favor. A ringer by Harris and Brown in the third quarter gave Medford what looked like a winning margin. The Tigers were able to hold this lead throughout the third quarter. Foreman opened up with a long one and sunk it. Bradcock took the ball from the tip-off, tossed it to Joy and Joy shot it back to Hughes in the corner. Hughes, finding the ball too hot to handle, threw it back to Bradcock, who was standing wide open in the foul circle. He swished it and gave his team a 17 to 16 lead. From that time on, the ball game was in the hands of the frosh. They merely played a game of keep-away in Medford's territory, their superiority in handling the ball beginning to show.

The first, second and third strings of the Tiger Cubs defeated the Jay-ville Grangers in the preliminary in a fast and thrilling game.

Lineups: Medford—Sons Frosh Harris—F. Bradcock White—F. Hughes Hinman—C. Lindley Brown—G. Joy Gillink—F. Foreman Substitutions: Medford, Smith. Referee: Ivan Harrington.

Tiger Cubs—Jay-ville Bates—F. Gifford Campbell—F. Fraley Van Dever—C. Simms Schaefer—O. Conger Fornbrook—G. Gifford Referee: Laws.

SONS PLAY MAC IN KLAMATH TONIGHT BELCASTRO, WOLFE TO GRAPPLE NEXT

By Logan Nittinger. ASHLAND, Jan. 26.—(Sp.)—The SONS will journey to Klamath Falls this afternoon, where they will meet the Multnomah Athletic club of Portland tonight and Saturday night. The two teams have met three times this season and each time the teachers have been defeated by a single point.

Since the last game with the MAC quintet, Hobson's outfit has met many teams and undergone many improvements. In two games with the highly rated Humboldt five last week, the SONS smothered their opponents in a landslide of baskets.

Dix at Rialto

Richard Dix plays the part of a man who casts aside his natural scruples against killing his fellow men and becomes a ruthless war ace in "Ace of Aces" at the Rialto theater today and Saturday.

On the same program, Peggy Shannon and Donald Cook have featured roles in "Pury of the Jungle."

A fleet of twenty-three planes, many of which were flown in the World War by famous aviators, make their debut in "The Flying Circus" at the Rialto today and Saturday.

At Pullman also tonight, Oregon State opens a two-game series with Washington State.

SEATTLE, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Six times undefeated in conference play, Coach Her Edmundson's University of Washington five matches strides tonight here with the University of Oregon Webfeet with a week and a half rest behind them for the "crocical series."

Edmundson's captain and star guard, Harold Lee, will be on the sidelines, and his second string center, Dick Merrin, is also nursing a bruised ankle. Oregon's team, the best five in several years at Eugene, is making its first Washington state tour of the season.

James Dunn Coming In Craterian Film "Take a Chance," a gay bit of nonsense concerning the careers of four carnival side-show entertainers who become tired of small-town life and decide to snatch fame and fortune on Broadway, comes to the Craterian theater Sunday.

James Dunn and Cliff Edwards, who just can't keep from pocketing other people's watches and miscellaneous valuables, make a splendid team. Dunn, who has played romantic leads exclusively in the past, steps over into farce comedy as though born to it. June Knight and Lillian Roth support them well.

"Take a Chance" has a much stronger plot than the usual musical film, besides boasting a chorus of Broadway's prettiest girls and at least five hit songs.

OREGON HOOPERS RATE UNDER-DOG AGAINST HUSKIES

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 26.—(AP)—Could the University of Oregon Webfeet conjure to the basketball court their perennial gridiron jinx over University of Washington, they might be the first to defeat the Huskies this season when the teams meet tonight at Seattle.

For six years "Mighty Washington" has failed to defeat Oregon in football. Not so in basketball, nor does an Oregon win tonight appear likely.

Recovery from a leg injury of sophomore center Willie Jones has inspired Oregon hopes. Bud Jones, aggressive sophomore guard, fits well in the defensive mire Coach Rinehart hopes he has created.

Also in the scoring parade are "Spook" Robertson, leading point guard and Bill Berg. The winged feet and flailing arms of little Gib Olinger are calculated to complicate Husky scoring efforts.

SEATTLE, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Superior defensive work last night gave the Portland Bucaroos a 3-to-2 win here over the Seattle Seahawks in a northwestern pro hockey league game, and sent the visitors into a third-place tie with Edmonton.

Pete Belcastro and Les Wolfe will tangle in the top spot of Mack Lillard's next wrestling show at the Craterian, Wednesday evening, according to announcement today by the promoter. Lillard is also combating the field for a suitable opponent for Frank Clements, the Oklahoma terror who was seen here last week.

In matching Belcastro and Wolfe, Lillard is guaranteeing fans one of the most sensational shows seen here in months. Pete always puts on a hammer-and-tongs exhibition while Wolfe is likewise popular in Medford for his science and use of the rolling scissors.

Answers Request—"Bill" Sharples, announcer over KNX at Hollywood, recently asked over the radio if anyone knew where he could get a lead bar, used in coupling a four-horse team. Oscar Minnick, employed in H. P. Peart's blacksmith shop in Central Point, heard the request, made a lead bar and sent it to "Bill" Sharples. He acknowledged receipt of the bar, said it was just what he wanted and complimented Mr. Minnick over the radio.
