Birthday Ball For President Inspires Round of Festivity

A gay round of entertaining is planned in this city to precede and continue through the birthday ball for the President Tuesday evening. Announcement that two balls would be opened to the affair met with much enthusiasm yesterday, adding a carnival spirit to the much anticipated ball. Purchase of a ticket will entitle a couple to dance at the Oriental Gardens, the Elks' temple, or both, and many people are planning to divide their time between the two places, starting the evening with open house in various homes.

Women representing the numerous organizations co-operating in the dance plans, were selling tickets Friday and Saturday and will continue their canvass of the city Monday and Tuesday morning. In the group are: Mrs. Ted Gebauer, Mrs. Jack Porter, Mrs. Charles Wing, Mrs. George Henselman, Mrs. Lawrence Pennington, Mrs. Carol Hays, Mrs. R. N. Price, Mrs. George Coding, Mrs. Betsy Allen, Mrs. Gordon Pratt, Mrs. Carl Spahn, Mrs. J. S. Gill, Mrs. Larry Schade, Mrs. L. L. Sanders and Mrs. I. D. Canfield.

The nation-wide radio program promises to be an unusual feature of the occasion, providing Medford people an opportunity to dance to the same strains the Marine band will play for New Yorkers.

The complete list of patrons and patronesses announced for the ball includes the names of the following well known society folk: Mr. and Mrs. Porter J. Neff, Judge and Mrs. W. H. Canon, Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reames, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Judge and Mrs. H. D. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kelly, Judge and Mrs. E. B. Day, Mayor and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmens, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Harder, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Birch, Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Tomlin, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tully, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Miss Crews Tells Betrothal News At Santa Rosa Party

Word was received the past week by friends and relatives of the engagement of Miss Nelda Crews of Santa Rosa, Cal., to Fioren Kenneth Waters, son of Mrs. Emma Waters of that city.

The announcement was made at a bridge tea given by Mrs. Lucy Crews, mother of the bride-to-be. Tiny cakes, inscribed in icing with the initials of the betrothed couple, told of the engagement. The motif of St. Valentine's day predominated in the decorations.

Miss Crews is well known here, having graduated from Medford high school in 1932, leaving shortly after for the southern city, where she is employed by the Speas Manufacturing company.

Although no date has been set for the wedding, plans are being made for an early summer ceremony.

Alpha Delta Class Has Meeting

The regular monthly business and social meeting of the Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church Bible school was held in the recreational hall of the church Thursday afternoon. The business session was presided over by the class president, Mrs. C. M. Hon and Mrs. Wm. Archer led the devotional period. Mrs. J. S. O'Brien and committee provided games and refreshments were served. About thirty members and friends were present.

Dancing Party at St. Mary's Tonight

An outstanding event on this year's social calendar of St. Mary's Academy is the dance which will be given at the Parish hall this evening. The dance is under the auspices of the Academy Sodality whose committees have been busily engaged making plans during the past few weeks. Besides dancing, a carefully prepared program will occupy the evening. Two solo dances by Miss Louise Pankey and several vocal selections by the Melody Girls will add to the enjoyment.

Following is the list of patrons and patronesses who have kindly accepted the invitation as chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gritch, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Schade, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Marshall, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lewis.

Bridge Olympic At Local Hotel Interests Many

A major event of this week will be the bridge olympic at the Hotel Medford Thursday evening, at which Rogue River valley fans will match their wits with those of the world in their favorite indoor sport—contract. Men as well as women will enter the local competition and much will be expected of them this year due to the concentrated play, which has been going on in numerous clubs.

Playing will begin at 8 o'clock and all persons planning to enter are asked to call Mrs. Gus Newbury.

Missionary Group Has Quilting Bee

The executive committee of Women's Missionary society of the Christian church met in Recreation hall, for an all day meeting, Tuesday. Several guests were invited and a quilting bee enjoyed.

A hot plate luncheon was served at noon. The regular business session, with the president, Mrs. Allen Curry presiding, was called at 2 o'clock. Ten members were present.

Altar Society Plans Card Party Wednesday

At the regular meeting of St. Ann's Altar society last week plans were made for a card party to be held Wednesday evening, January 31 at parish hall with Mrs. Brown as chairman.

Plans were also made for continuation of the home-cooked dinners, sponsored by the society and the next one will be held February 13.

Miss Burgess Hostess At Evening of Bridge

Miss Dorothy Burgess entertained Friday evening with a lovely bridge party for a number of her friends at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. E. Telihose.

Reames Chapter Meets Wednesday

Reames chapter, No. 86, O. E. S. enjoyed a delightful meeting Wednesday evening at the Masonic temple. The regular meeting was followed by a social evening and refreshments were served in the dining room, by the officers.

The chapter will have the honor of a visit from Associate Grand Matron of Oregon, Edith Phillips, deputy for the grand matron, next week, and a special meeting has been called for Monday evening, February 5, at 8 o'clock.

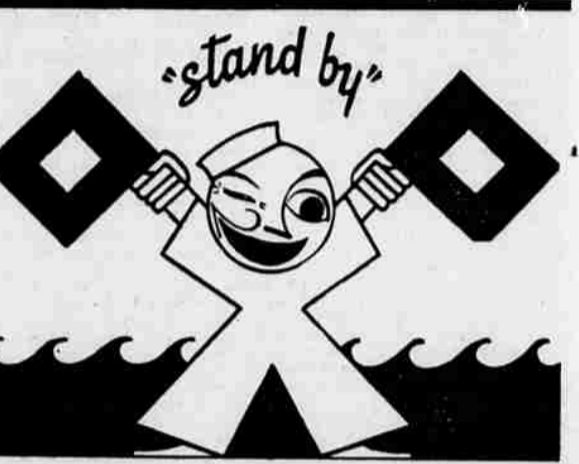

A no-hostess luncheon will be held the same day at the Hotel Medford at 12:30 o'clock. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Hattie Alden, phone 847-X before Sunday noon, February 4.

Youngs Prominent In Bay City Events

Interesting news of Mrs. Alex Young, Jr., the former Donna Solinsky of this city, is found frequently in the San Francisco newspapers these days. Her two Delmatians recently won honors in the dog show and all other sports events bring mention of either Mrs. Young or Mr. Young. This week end they are spending in Yosemite National park, where he is participating in the skating carnival. The Youngs are expected to visit at the Solinsky home here some time next month.
