

BASEBALL TALENT BADLY NEEDED ON TOM TURNER NINE

Beaver Hurling Staff Incomplete — McCredie Will Look at College Recruits for Promising Material

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Portland's Beavers have the Coast League pennant in 1932 and finished second last year, but the team that will represent Thomas L. Turner and Co., this season needs more baseball talent than it has at present before observers will concede it better than a place in the second division.

The pitching department is mostly incomplete. President Turner must step out and snag three hurlers before his new manager, Walter McCredie, can hope to win his share of games. Inasmuch as Turner is as good a hustler as there is in the league, there is every reason to believe he will come up with the pitchers.

Athletes Promise Aid.
Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics has promised to aid in the matter of hurlers. At present Portland has Hal Turpin, Rudy Kallio, Ed Bryan and Frank Ragland, all right hands. Bryan came from Sacramento in a winter trade for Lou Koupal. Ragland was turned over by the Philadelphia Nationals in the deal for Henry Oana, the big Hawaiian outfielder.

Joe Palmisano is slated for chief catching duties again with assistance from Eldon Breeze, purchased from Topeka of the Western League. Breeze also can perform in the outfield.

Rheely Plays First.
At present the infield shapes up with Earl Sheely at first; Jimmy McLeod at second; Gilbert English at short and Jules Wera at third. McLeod was received from the Phillies in the Oana deal and English from the New York Giants in the deal for pitcher Joe Bowman. The Beavers traded Eddie Mulligan third sacker, to Oakland for Wera during the winter meeting and purchased Packard from Albany, N. Y.

Fred Berger, George Blackerby and Bobby Loane are holdover outfielders. Loane, a youngster picked up last season, is not a finished product although he played in 51 games and hit for .288. The club has a fly-chaser coming from the Phillies.

Will Eye College Boys.
Manager McCredie will look over a few college recruits, including Charles Hoag, a catcher, and Bob Garretson, an infielder, both from the University of Oregon. "Fib" Nightingale, a left-handed twirler from Oregon State College, and Andy Peterson formerly of Willamette.

As Portland manager, McCredie comes back to an old stamping ground. After overseeing the Beavers for years, McCredie managed the San Francisco Missions in 1926 and since has acted as both coach for the Seattle club and scout for Detroit.

Portland will train at Ventura this spring after several seasons at San Jose.

MOBRAATEN WINS SKI TOURNAMENT

GOVERNMENT CAMP, Ore., Jan. 29.—As 4,000 spectators stood on snowless ground to watch, Tom Mobraaten of Vancouver, B. C., jumped 1287 and 127 feet to win the class A title in the Multitorp Hill ski tournament climaxing the winter sports carnival here Sunday. Mobraaten was also tournament winner, with 4336 points based on the races Saturday and jumps Sunday. Hermod Bakke, Leavenworth, Wash., was second in the tournament standings with 4277 points.

Einar Eellingrud, unattached, won the class B title with jumps of 99 and 100 feet for a score of 205.4. Martin Tverdal of Seattle, who made the longest jumps in this class—110 and 100—was second with 195.5 points.

In the girls' race Sunday morning, Gjerlie Gustafsson, Cascade Ski club, was first, with Dea McNeill of the same organization second, and Gertrude Bjde, Seattle, third.

MODIFIED MAYHEM RULED FOR GRUNT ARTISTS IN EAST

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Wrestling will operate under a new code in New York state henceforth, under a brand new set of regulations designed to eliminate some of the admitted evils of the grunt-and-groan industry.

Chief items in the new code: As before, wrestling matches still are regarded as exhibitions, but any bout may be labeled a "contest" if the New York state athletic commission gives special permission. All wrestlers must be paid by check, with a minimum of $10 per match. Promoters must keep books, open to commission scrutiny at all times. All wrestlers must wear shoes. Scratching, striking, gouging, hitting, strangle holds, Joe Savoldi's special "drop kick" and the deliberate tossing of an opponent out of the ring, all are fouls and wrestlers who commit them may have their licenses revoked. Promoters or match-makers are forbidden to act as managers. Promoters are forbidden to discriminate against any grappler. Bouts may be extended beyond the 11 p. m. time limit if the inspector assigned to all shows gives permission.

Since wrestling here is on an exhibition basis, the commission pointed out, the questions of honesty of effort was not an issue.

CALIFORNIA LEADS SOUTHERN CAGERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The University of California basketball team held the lead in the southern division, Pacific Coast conference race today.

In the first place tie with Southern California Saturday night, the Bears stepped up by downing the U. C. L. A. Bruins, 39 to 28, while the Trojans fell before Stanford, 35 to 31.

Conference standings:

HUSKIES INVADE BEAVERS' COURT AT END OF WEEK

SEATTLE, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Safety past the mid-way mark with nary a loss marked up in the record books, the University of Washington Huskies will journey south this week-end for four northern division Pacific Coast conference hoop tussles that may give them the title now held by Oregon State.

Cocher Hec Edmundson's men have played just half of the 18 conference games on their schedule and have won all of them. Four more victories would put the bunting beyond reach of the other members of the circuit.

The league-leaders will meet the Oregon State Beavers at Corvallis Friday and Saturday nights in their first series with last year's champions, and then will shift over to Eugene for a pair of games with the Oregon Webfoots, Washington State and Idaho, the two other members of the northern division, will tangle Saturday night at Moscow.

In games last week, the Huskies took a pair from Oregon, winning, 33-28, Friday night, and 34-25 Saturday, while Oregon State took Friday's game from Washington State, 36-23, but dropped the second meeting, 24-15.

The standings:

Won	Lost	Pct.
Washington	8	0	1.000
Oregon State	4	4	.500
Oregon	2	4	.333
Washington State	3	6	.333
Idaho	2	5	.286

New Oriental Features for 1934 Fair

The glamour, the mystery, the beauty of the Orient will be shown at the 1934 Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago more extensively than it has ever been shown in this country before. The Chinese government is sparing no effort in its rehabilitation of its buildings and exhibits, and along with the new and modern China will be seen the charm and beauty of old Cathay, as pictured above.

SKIERS ENJOY BEAUTIFUL DAY IN CRATER PARK

Crater Lake was the popular gathering place of Medfordites and other Rogue River valley people yesterday, following announcement in the Mail Tribune that the park road was open.

The snow plow was still at work and considerable snow blasting under way to clear the road to the lodge. The rim was reached with ease, however, and numerous skiing parties were finding that the hills, neighboring the rim offered a fine assortment of long runways. Beautiful weather prevailed at the lake throughout the day, the sun forcing many skiers out of their jackets. The veil of fog which covered the valley dropped at Trail and did not appear again in the mountain region. The lake was clear, but shadowed with thin ice.

Among local people motoring to the lake were: E. C. Sollinsky, superintendent of the park; Mrs. Sollinsky, Jane Sollinsky and party of friends; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Glen Fabrick, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Woodford, Mr. and Mrs. Arnel Butler and son Bobby, Miss Arlene Butler, Mrs. Katherine Huntress, Mr. and Mrs. Masti, Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Guenther.

A number of people also motored in from Klamath Falls to enjoy the snow sports.
