Medford People Attend Party in Ashland

A number of guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. H. J. Carter Friday evening when she entertained with a delightful party at the T. H. Simpson home on North Main street.

Supper was served at a long table charmingly decorated with gleaming candles in crystal holders, with nut cups and favors carrying out the dainty color scheme of pink and blue.

Mrs. P. T. Merrill was winner of the lovely prize for high score, consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Frank Crouch of Medford, and fun prizes were presented to each of the other guests.

Guests included Mrs. Frank Crouch of Medford, Mesdames R. E. Detrick, C. D. Dayhoff, P. T. Merrill, Earl Newbury, C. E. J. Porter, Paul Taylor, E. M. Wallin, J. H. Fuller, T. H. Simpson, Miss Elsie Alexander and Miss Georgie Coffee.—Ashland Tidings.

Zulema Temple Plans Reception for Queen

Tomorrow will be filled with much festivity for members of Zulema temple, Daughters of the Nile, who have planned a reception in Ashland for the Supreme Queen, Mrs. Maybelle Boone of Portland. Mrs. Boone will be here on her official visit and the day has been crowded with events honoring her presence, in which many Medford members of the temple, will be participating.

The afternoon ceremonial will be followed by a 6:30 banquet in the Masonic dining room for members and their escorts, and after the installation of 1934 officers, dancing will be enjoyed.

Church Groups Meet Again on Tuesday

One of the largest church gatherings Tuesday, the popular meeting day with most groups, will be one at the Presbyterian church, where the Women's association will meet to greet Dr. Phillip May, who will give an address on Eliat, where he spent 14 years. The Sunny Sisters will be hostesses for the occasion.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet the same afternoon with Mrs. Olen Arnsperger as program chairman.

The Weekly Bible class will meet Tuesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. to continue the study of Matthew.

Reames Chapter Honors Mrs. Phillips Tonight

The associate grand matron of Oregon, Mrs. Edith Phillips, deputy to the grand matron, will be special guest of Reames chapter, O. E. S., tonight. An interesting program has been prepared for the evening. Mrs. Phillips was also honored at luncheon this afternoon at the Hotel Medford.

Crater Lake Guild Meeting Tonight

The Crater Lake Guild will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Ray for regular program. Assisting the hostess in entertaining will be Mrs. R. E. McElhoose and Mrs. Haggerty.

Lincoln Service Club Hears Fine Program

At the regular monthly meeting of the Lincoln Service club Friday afternoon an interesting program was presented, including music by the Junior high girls, under the direction of Mrs. Nye, and a play, entitled "A Bad Penny Always Returns," by members of the 6A class, Wilson Church and Robert Newland taking the leads.

Plans were made for another benefit card party, to be held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Klein, 1834 North Bartlett, the evening of February 16. The club also discussed plans for procuring suitable bicycle racks for the school grounds.

Mrs. Wurts Invites Guests To Luncheon

Among charming hostesses of the week, taking advantage of the approach of Valentine's day for a little more festive entertaining, will be Mrs. A. J. Wurts, who has invited friends to luncheon at the Hotel Medford Wednesday.

Covers will be placed for twenty-five at the luncheon table, where the Valentine motif will be used to add a more colorful touch to spring flowers. Following luncheon, bridge will be played at Mrs. Wurts' home on Ashland avenue.

Miss Butler and Fiance Honored at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Arnel P. Butler entertained Saturday evening at dinner at their home in Hillcrest Road, honoring Miss Arlene Butler and her fiance, Claude Thompson, who was here from Portland for the week-end.

Covers were arranged for eight, at the attractive table and dinner was followed by the showing of several amateur movie reels, including scenes of the Mt. Hood ski tournament and snow sports at Crater Lake. Dancing was also enjoyed.

Valentine Motif Used At Pan Hellenic Party

There were six tables of bridge in play Saturday afternoon following the no-hostess luncheon of Pan Hellenic at the Colonial club, and prizes for high scores went to Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Olen Arnsperger.

The luncheon table was attractively decorated in spring blossoms and Valentine's day favors. The committee for the afternoon was composed of Mrs. K. W. Kendrick and Mrs. David Yale.

St. Mark's Guild Plans Friday Dessert Luncheon

St. Mark's Guild will entertain with dessert luncheon Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. During the afternoon auction and contract bridge will be played.

Mrs. B. C. Mulholland is Chairman for the Occasion

AUSTRIA APPEALS FOR PROTECTION

VIENNA, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Austria decided today to appeal to the League of Nations to protect her against aggression from German elements.

The Austrian cabinet, after a long discussion of the Austro-German situation, unanimously decided to empower Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss to submit its dispute with Germany directly to the League of Nations at Geneva.

Earlier in the day Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, a member of the tripartite governing Austria, defied Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss and established fascist government in the Tyrol.

He replaced the elected provincial government with a commission of Heimwehr soldiers, peasant league officials, and Catholic storm troop leaders, and told his chancellor that the Heimwehr (home guard) which he heads would support Dollfuss' anti-Nazi campaign only if Dollfuss abandoned political party rule.

STOLEN TYPEWRITERS ARE SOON RECOVERED

Two portable typewriters stolen early Sunday evening from the Medford Book store, were located by city police this morning, and four men are being held for investigation in connection with the case.

Entrance was gained through a back window, and the typewriters, according to officers, were taken from a window display. The burglary was discovered by city officers.

INLAND EMPIRE WHEAT RELEASED THROUGH AAA

SPOKANE, Feb. 5.—(AP)—About $11,000,000 worth of "frozen" wheat in the inland empire has been released by the AAA through sales of the North Pacific Emergency Export association and acreage retirement, President Orris Dorman announced.

27 KILLED UNDER SNOW AVALANCHE

ROME, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Twenty-seven persons were killed and a number injured in a series of snow avalanches followed, in some cases, by landslides in the Appennine region near Bologna and Robbiano, an official report stated today.

The slides were first reported Saturday night and continued sporadically last night.

A search by relief parties was hampered by heavy snow and bitter cold. Communications throughout the region were damaged.

JOSEPHINE McQUISTON PASSES AT RESIDENCE

Mrs. Josephine McQuiston died at her home, 1404 East Main street last night following a lingering illness. Funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow through the Peil funeral home.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO MOVE, MY DEAR? THIS HOUSE IS CHARMING—THE NEIGHBORHOOD ATTRACTIVE

BUT THE NEIGHBORS ARE SO STIFF AND UNFRIENDLY, AUNTIE. I'M A SOCIABLE PERSON. IT HURTS TO BE POLITELY SNUBBED

PERHAPS, WITHOUT KNOWING IT YOU'VE BEEN A LITTLE CARELESS. I'M GOING TO BE FRANK

NOT 'B.O.'? I NEVER DREAMED I COULD BE GUILTY! OF COURSE I'LL GET LIFEBOUY THIS VERY DAY

SO YOU'RE PUTTING UP NEW CURTAINS? THAT DOESN'T LOOK LIKE MOVING

NO, INDEED, AUNTIE. TOO HAPPY HERE. I FOLLOWED YOUR ADVICE AND PEOPLE ARE LOVELY TO ME NOW

YOU LOOK SO WELL. YOUR SKIN IS CLEARER

OF COURSE IT IS—THANKS TO LIFEBOUY

WHAT a lot of reasons there are for liking Lifebuoy! Its rich, abundant lather even in cold or hard water. The clean, refreshed feeling a Lifebuoy bath leaves. The satisfaction of knowing not a trace of "B.O." (body odor) is left to offend. The joy of discovering that this gentle, pore-purifying lather is helping make your complexion clearer, fresher every day.

Note its clean scent
It's gone in a jiffy—completely vanishing as you rinse. But Lifebuoy's pleasantly different hygienic scent tells you Lifebuoy gives extra protection against "B.O." Take no chances in stuffy, overheated rooms. Bathe regularly with Lifebuoy.

"SELLING CALLS FOR HEALTHY NERVES, TOO—MR. MARKSMAN"

Kenneth B. Logan, Salesman, of Scarsdale, N. Y., says:

"The selling game calls for healthy nerves just as much as being a wonderful marksman. Meeting people all day long... trying to turn prospects into customers... the life of a salesman certainly tells on the nerves! I smoke most of the time—but I smoke only Camels, and I'll tell you why I say only Camels! Camels don't upset my nerves—and no cigarette can match Camels on flavor, either."

Virgil Richard, Champion Sharpshooter, says:

"I've been smoking for years and had no trouble in keeping my nerves in shape for making record scores. That's because I have long been a Camel smoker. Camels are much milder, and never interfere with my nerves."

How Are YOUR Nerves?

Does your job sometimes get you down? Do you feel tired? Irritable? Ready to "blow up" any minute... because of raw nerves?

Try to get enough sleep. Eat sensibly. And get a fresh slant on your smoking by turning to Camels. Much has been said on the subject of tobacco quality. But—

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand.

That statement is conclusive. And it represents an important benefit that nervous people should not overlook!

Begin to smoke Camels. Taste those finer tobaccos. Notice their mildness. You will be delighted to find that Camels do not upset your nerves... or tire your taste.

CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS

GET ON YOUR NERVES... NEVER TIRE YOUR TASTE
