Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, Feb. 6.—(Sp.)—Two new members came by split cards into the Sams Valley Grange Saturday night. The couple is from Watsonville, Calif., and have purchased property near Gold Hill, where they have just completed a dwelling house.

Grange members enjoyed an interesting program put on by the Medford high school debating team, consisting of Dolph James, Cleo Hicks, Irene Stubbfield, Betty Thordike and Mildred Drury. The boys took the affirmative side of "Resolved, that the United States should adopt the British system of radio control and operation."

The girls took the negative. Many in the audience expressed the opinion the team was very equally divided and fully enjoyed the efficiency with which the question was argued. During the business meeting interesting reports were given by the legislative and agriculture committees. Refreshments were served by the H. E. C. after which the young folks enjoyed several recreational games.

Three daughters were summoned from California to the bedside of Mrs. Henry Williams, who is very ill with pneumonia.

One of the largest attendances of the season was present at the Ladies' club at Mrs. Luken Ryan's Thursday afternoon. Poems and readings commemorating Washington and Lincoln furnished the program. During the business session arrangements were made for a program to be given to the husbands and children of the members at a future date. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Edna Stalling. The tables were decorated in Valentine and ground hog day features.

Mrs. Loren Andrews returned to her home in Portland Thursday after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Straus.

'DISGRACED' IS DARINGLY MODERN

"Disgraced" is the story of a woman's fight for love with her own pen today at the Roxie theatre, opens Tuesday, wistful blonde star, is cast in the leading role, with Bruce Cabot, Adrienne Ames, William Harrigan and Ken Murray heading the supporting cast.

It is daringly modern in its theme. Miss Twelvetees, as an attractive modern, fascinates Cabot, a wealthy man-about-town. His ardent wooing finally wins her, even though she knows he is engaged to marry Miss Ames.

Dance at Rogue Elk Saturday night, Feb. 17.

Lee Tracy, with Sally Blane as his leading lady, is his effervescent self again in "Advice to the Lovelorn" coming to the Craterian theater tomorrow.

As in "Blessed Event," Tracy is again a newspaper reporter, sleeping off a jag in a Turkish bath and remaining blissfully oblivious to a major earthquake, thus miffing the results of the year. This fall from grace story in his being demoted to the detestable post of official advisor to that dim host of lovelorn ladies who apply to "agnony" columns for comfort and guidance.

He sets out to work with a vengeance—giving advice which stands such sacred institutions such as marriage, the Home and the Family on their ears, and resulting in the column becoming a syndicated article throughout the country. The com-
