

Medford Plays Host Tomorrow for American Legion Conference

STATE LEADERS, NOTED WARRIORS WILL PAY VISIT

Program Opens With Arrival On Morning Train—Neighbor Towns to Send Large Delegations for Day

Shortly after 8 o'clock tomorrow morning the city of Medford will surrender its keys to the largest delegation of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members to visit southern Oregon since the state convention of 1928, when the special car of the official state tour steamed in at the local depot. Prominent Legion members from all Oregon will be present for the district conference of Klamath Falls, Lakeview, Merlin, Malin, Ashland, Grants Pass, Kerby and Medford.

Flags will be flying and the bands will be out—Medford's drum corps and Ashland post's kilted band—to welcome State Commander Harold Warner and Dorothy Eakin, state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, and their accompanying delegations.

Meet at Roseburg. Paul McDonald, representing the Ashland post, and Charles W. McDonald, representing the Medford post, left today for Roseburg, where they will meet the delegation and accompany the delegation to Medford tomorrow.

A delegation of Josephine county Legionnaires left Tuesday for Roseburg to attend the first day of the two-day American Legion conference in southern Oregon. The groups will continue to Medford for the Thursday meeting.

The conference here will devote the major portion of time to questions concerning national legislation and the relation of veterans to the general public.

McAlexander Coming.

One of the most interesting guests on the tour, General U. G. McAlexander, familiarly known to millions of Americans as the "Rock of the Marne," will be honor guest at the forum luncheon to be sponsored by the chamber of commerce at noon at the Hotel Medford. Invitations have gone out to all neighboring posts, urging members to make reservations for this occasion. General Creed C. Hammond, consul general of the Philippine Islands for five years, will be the chief speaker at the luncheon and has announced as his subject, "Business Relations With the Orient."

At 2 o'clock the district conference of the American Legion will be held in the court house auditorium. At the same time Auxiliary members will hold their conference in the Colonial club.

At 3 o'clock, Robert Moun, manager of the Portland Better Business Bureau, will speak to the retail merchants of the Chamber of Commerce. Banquet at 6:30. A joint banquet at 6:30 o'clock will interest Legionnaires and Auxiliary members. It will be held at the Hotel Medford and reservations are being made through Cole Holmes.

Of major interest to the general public will be the open meeting at the high school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock. Capt. O. L. Overmeyer, commander of the Medford post, has issued an invitation to all southern Oregonians to attend this session. General McAlexander will be the chief speaker and will have many startling stories to tell of his achievements during the World War.

Warner to Speak. Other speakers will be State Commander Warner and Mrs. Eakin, state Auxiliary president. The Medford Gleemen will sing and the high school band will also entertain with a group of numbers. Commander Warner will at this meeting bring important news to all ex-service men. It was revealed today.

Other prominent Legion men expected here in the official tour tomorrow are: Elwood Hussey of Kerby, district commander of the American Legion; Hugh Rosson, state membership chairman; Dan McDade of the Oregon Journal; E. Palmer Hoyt, managing editor of the Oregonian; Ernest Haycox, writer of western

REREGISTRATION OF VOTERS OPENS

Reregistration of voters for the May primary has started in the county clerk's office, with the Democrats showing a spurt.

Some registrations have been cancelled, due to death, and a number of voters are again sailing under the Democratic flag, after registering as Republicans in the 1932 primary, so as to be able to vote for Republican candidates for public offices. This return to the fold has increased the Democratic registrations.

VETERANS MAKE QUEER REQUESTS FOR WAR RECORD

PARIS, France, Feb. 7.—Unique requests have come to headquarters of the Fidas here from American veterans since the passage of the economy act, according to a statement of H. W. Dunning, assistant secretary general of Fidas and department commander of the American Legion for France. Fidas is the association of veterans' societies of the allied countries in the world war, the Legion being the member society in the United States.

Some of the requests taken from Dunning's statement follow: "Veterans stricken from the compensation rolls by the economy act want certified copies of records from hospitals since abandoned. Others want certificates from doctors who have treated them during the war; some seek comrades with whom they have served."

"One Legionnaire, who had been shell shocked while serving with the Belgians, gave a description of the event which took place in Belgium who had been present recognized the occasion and recalled him. A Legionnaire has requested that an Italian doctor be found. He treated the Legionnaire when both were prisoners of war in Germany."

"One American, writing from the headquarters of the Amazon, requested true copies of his French military record in the Foreign Legion, stating he had lost the originals in an encounter with an alligator."

"An American aviator has asked the official account on an aerial combat he had while serving with a French squadron in 1918. This was obtained for him. He had shot a German ace through the thumb. An average of 20 requests per week come from the United States from American veterans for medals issued by the cities of Verdun and Chateau-Thierry to Americans who served in those sectors during the war. An American veteran who lives atop the Himalayas in India, cited three times in the Order of the City of the French war, is among those who have requested these medals recently."

"The story of Mintz's good fortune was brought here by Provincial Constable Price Morris of Bancroft. He could not confirm the amount of the legacy, but said the mechanic would leave for Edinburgh, Scotland, to receive it in the spring. The constable said that Mintz, who lives at Montegate Valley, 90 miles north of here, rescued the Scottish officer during action at Cambrai on the Somme."

On numerous occasions thereafter, Mintz was asked to have been the officer's guest when he was on leave before returning to Canada at the end of the war.

Mintz is a native of Halliburton. Three Are Stolen—Clarence Gray of 1011 North Riverside avenue reported to police this morning that two tires were stolen last night from his trailer. Both were 30 by 3 1/2 inches in size.

Astronomers to Meet—The teachers' astronomy class will meet at the Senior high school at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Ashland and one in the Eagle Point district. The new districts were created under a state law which requires that when a precinct passes the 500 mark a new precinct be created. For the present this does away with double boards, and is expected to speed up the voting.

A decision in favor of the defendants has been rendered by Justice of the Peace William R. Coleman, in the complicated civil action of O. B. Waddell against Walter Woods and others, for the recovery of personal property, involved in the purchase of a farm in the Eagle Point district by Waddell. The personal property was used as a security. It was an involved issue. In a previous action, suit was instituted over the ownership of 14 cows. In a skirmish that followed the regaining of possession of the cows, testimony purported to show that a woman had knocked down two hay bales and jabbed Woods in the thigh with a pitchfork, while children hurled "rocks weighing up to 12 pounds."

ARE YOU A HAIR MUSSER?

Those untidy habits come from jangled nerves

It's bad enough to look untidy—ill-groomed. But it's twice as bad when you think that those nervous habits are a sign of jangled nerves... a friendly signal that says, "Find out what's the matter."

So, if you catch yourself mussing your hair, biting your nails, chewing pencils—or suffering from any other of those countless little nervous habits—Get enough sleep and fresh air—find time for recreation. Make Camels your cigarette. You can smoke as many Camels as you please, for Camel's costlier tobaccos never jangle your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS
Tobaccos are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

How are YOUR nerves?
TEST No. 16

Place a cork upside down on top of a bottle... Back up six inches... Extend your right arm and slight with your index finger... Walk rapidly toward the bottle, without wavering your arm... See if you can knock off the cork with the first slip. Most people try this test six times before they succeed.

Anton LaFang (Camel smoker), national 1932 all jumping champion, flipped the cork off the first try.
