$200,000 RANSOM PAYMENT BRINGS BANKER FREEDOM

banker. No one else was permitted to enter the yard, guarded by police and federal operatives.

M. F. Kinkead, Ramsey county attorney, came to the home shortly afterward. The door first was shut in his face. A few minutes elapsed before he was admitted.

Hanni, asked if Bremer was all right, replied: "Yes, he is."

Beyond that, silence veiled the experiences of the banker since the gang seized him shortly after he had left his 8-year-old daughter, Betty, at the exclusive Summit girls' school.

Co-operation Refused At the home with Bremer and his father, were his uncle, Otto Bremer, chairman of the board of the American National bank, and head of the Minnesota Home Owners' Loan corporation. The Bremers, prominent Democrats, steadfastly refused to cooperate with authorities during the banker's imprisonment, feeling that at that time any police activity would endanger the victim's life.

Dr. J. M. Sprafka, who examined Bremer, said his physical condition was "good." He had suffered a beating about the head, presumably when he was seized. His automobile, found shortly afterward, was profusely splattered with blood.

"The wounds are all healed now," said Dr. Sprafka. "Mr. Bremer is very, very nervous. I ordered him to bed for a good rest."

Dr. Sprafka said the bankers' wife and their 8-year-old daughter, Betty, were in the house with the family.

Bremer, the physician said, did not know the vicinity in which he was held captive in relation to Rochester, where he was freed.

Bremer was held the same length of time as John J. O'Connell, Jr., wealthy young member of a politically prominent New York state family. This was the longest kidnap seizure since the fatal Lindbergh baby abduction.

Dr. Sprafka afterward said a ransom had been paid but he did not know how much.

Double Feature

Lee Tracy plays the role of a race track driver in "Straightaway," coming to the Rialto theater on the double feature program for Friday and Saturday. Sue Carol is McCoy's leading lady.

Lee Tracy In Fast Role At Craterian

All the trials and tribulations that go with editing an "agony" column on a big metropolitan daily fall to the lot of breezy Lee Tracy in his new picture, "Advice to the Lovelorn." And we might add—"and then some!"—for it is no ordinary love-story column that the brisk blond star conducts in this newest offering, which began a four-day run at the Craterian theater yesterday.

As Toby Prentiss, he dishes out some of the goofiest advice ever taken to heart by a lovelorn soul. But it's all part of Toby's plot to wiggle out of a five-year contract that holds him to the deserted post to which he was demoted as a penalty for getting drunk and missing the year's prize story by sleeping calmly through an earthquake.

Hoss Death Halts Auto Registration

Lee Garlock, secretary of the American Automobile association here, and who also registers out-of-state cars for the secretary of state's department, said today that he had received word from Salem not to register any more out-of-state automobiles until further notice.

The order was issued from the capital, as the result of the death Tuesday morning of Secretary of State Hal E. Hoss. It is expected that registrations will be resumed upon the appointment of a new secretary.

HAIL STORM HERE SHORT DURATION

A hail storm of about five minutes' duration passed over the Rogue River valley in a southeasterly direction between 12:40 and 12:45 o'clock this afternoon, the federal weather bureau reported.

Although the storm was severe for only a few minutes, no damage resulted to the fruit trees, as could be determined. W. J. Hutchinson, meteorologist, stated. Reports had been made that buds had started to swell in some of the orchards. Mr. Hutchinson said, but added that he did not believe they had developed enough to be damaged by the hail.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, red face, bad taste, bad breath, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, pills, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of the poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all. Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts to Carter's Little Liver Pills is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm in win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores.
