Living Costs To More Than Double Professor Claims

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Professor Edwin Walter Kemmerer, writing in the New York Sun, predicted today that the cost of living will be more than double that of last November when the depression is over and the results of the Roosevelt administration's dollar devaluation have completely worked themselves out. Kemmerer, a monetary expert, who is professor of international finance at Princeton university, foresees a general price level 118 per cent higher than last November's and a cost of living 126 per cent higher.

The President and his advisors say the cheaper dollar is intended to raise commodity prices.

If true—here is a wonderful chance to save. Here are the things you need most, specially priced for this three-day sale.

While we are making no guess at what prices will do—folks a lot smarter are—hence a good time to buy.

It's Wise to Buy Before Your Dollar Shrinks Too Much.
